Appearances Of The Lord And Deep Things He Told Me

Open Letter To The Earthmen

INTRODUCTION

Dear children of men, peace be with you and grace from The Source of All That Is – GOD – in the Name of the Eternal, the Great Lord Jesus the Christ. Amen

It is my desire to write this letter to inform the people of our Earth-world, especially those who are bereft of the knowledge hereinafter expressed, how the earthmen are controlled to some extent by what is hidden from us, by what is higher than us. I hope to throw more light on some aspects of the nature of invisible realities, especially concerning the Forces of Light and the forces of darkness in the Universe.

I will be giving you a clue on how the decisions of the forces above humans, as well as the decisions of the Holy Spirit, affect us in diverse ways, individually and collectively. All these are based on the deep things the Lord told me in the course of His divine visitations at diverse times.

Introduction

Therefore, this material presents a specific kind of exposition which, in my sincere opinion, is for the guidance of all the earthmen – sons and daughters of men – in the world of man. It is based not only on what I believe, but also on what I know in the course of my spiritual experiences in these things, especially with the Lord and higher divine Intelligences of Light beyond the physical world that we know. I am speaking here to the extent that I know, for only the Lord of Creation knows all. And I do so in the consciousness that no one is an island of knowledge, whilst the value of knowledge is the ability to communicate same to others.

A work of divine enlightenment of this nature is multifarious, but the aspect I am dealing with here has to do with the existence of multitudinous decision making centres or courts, in multidimensional spiritual and metaphysical systems of realities. There are higher entities and Intelligences in diverse realms of existence. Some of these operate as the Forces of Light while some operate as the forces of darkness. All these, at different levels and gestalts, have variegated decision making centres—courts.

This book shows how the benevolence and malefic effects of such courts affect the physical realms of Earth, especially humans. Individuals, families, communities, regions, nations, amongst others, are affected in one way or the other by the decisions of different courts situated beyond the realms of men. Here, even your slightest thought is involved; your daily life is involved.

On their unpleasant effect, the hidden courts constitute one of the greatest dangers to the earthman, in the human terms of experience. I use the word 'danger' here solely as related to the people who are not properly situated in the mode of goodness in the journey of life. The mode of goodness is completely different from both the mode of passion and the mode of darkness in existence. This is well explained in my book entitled 'Save Us From Ourselves'.

The Light of Heaven is more focused on Earth upon those who are committed to the mode of goodness. The Great Lord Jesus the Christ admonished us thus: "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in Heaven" (Math. 5:16;KJV). He also said: "Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit" (Math. 7:17; KJV). Here, the Lord is speaking about the mode of the goodness of life, which we are expected to imbibe on the path of divine ascent.

The mode of passion upholds all activities inherent within the systems of self aggrandisement and sensual gratification. This creates bondage and illusions in this material world, by which those situated therein are considered, in higher divine terms, to be embedded within the prison yard of materialism. The forces of darkness thrive in this dimension of existence.

As for the mode of darkness, this is the core enclave of the hosts of darkness. It is the dimension of existence wherein all forms of wickedness are situated; wherein the dominion of the dark world, the propensities thereof, are manifested. The sons and daughters of men in this system, are mere marionettes, helpless captives and core instruments of colossal death in the world of man. In general terms, however, the modes of passion and darkness are the enclaves of multitudes of the earthmen.

Now, it is very dangerous for the issue, matter or case of anyone to be brought forth in any spiritual, metaphysical or astral court in the Universe, while the person involved is on the platform of darkness and wickedness. The practice of wickedness, in all ramifications, does you no good at all in the journey of life, here or hereafter. This is so because we must reap what we sow, whether or not we know it, whether or not we like it.

The process of reaping what we sow in the journey of life is the outcome of decisions made in diverse courts beyond the physical realms of Earth. This my open letter is set to do justice to this subject matter. Consequently, dear reader, please be informed that this exposition concerns you in many ways, whether or not you know it. Thus, you are expected to know more by reading this letter. I only pray that you have an open mind, in the light of Eternal Truth of God, to do so.

MORE THAN THE EYES CAN SEE

First of all, the earthman must know that, as we have physical courts in this material world, there are courts in all the astral realms, in all the metaphysical systems of existence, in all the variegated pure spiritual dimensions of reality, amongst others. In certain terms, some people may have, at one time or the other, had a glimpse into the setting of some of these courts, via related dream, vision, revelation or trance encounters. Some may have directly experienced this in spiritual encounters that seemed literal or physical, until they finally recognised upon waking that they had stepped into another layer of reality.

Here in the world of man, for instance, there are different levels of courts. From the magistrate court to the high court, the court of appeal and the supreme court, legal decisions are made for or against the children of men in physical terms. These courts on the physical realms of Earth, in certain terms, are symbolic of invisible courts.

As we have these courts in this world, there are hidden courts in different realms, in different dominions and systems of realities, in the entire Universal Systems of the Universes of God. However, the Highest Court in all the Universes of God, is the Supreme Court of the Holy Spirit.

This Eternal Divine Court of All that is, is presided over by The Sole Ultimate Reality known in the Holy Bible as the 'Ancient of Days'. This Sole Ultimate Dimension — Ancient of Days — is referred to by certain advanced Extraterrestrial Intelligence — great Angelic Being of the higher realms of Heavenly Light — in our time (name withheld) thus:

"Supreme Divine Gestalt
The sum of all consciousness
Divine Pyramid of interrelated, ever expanding consciousness, that creates simultaneous and instantaneous, Universes and individuals that are given duration, inner comprehension, intelligence and eternal validity".

The Christ of all ages – King of Kings and Lord of Lords – is the Final Advocate in the Supreme Court of the Holy Spirit, for all generations of the chosen ones of God in the world of man and beyond. Saint John spoke of this thus: "We have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous" (1 John 2:1; KJV). Remember that an advocate, in this terms, by definition, is 'a person who puts a case on someone else's behalf'.

Dear reader, there are far more than the eyes can see. Now consider this: In the light of Christ as our Advocate, have you ever seen any physical court wherein He performs His divine duty as our Advocate? Is the dimension wherein this is enacted not beyond what the eyes can see? Christ is our Advocate, yes. Is He not playing this role in a court, namely, the Eternal Supreme Court of the Holy Spirit?

The Supreme Court of the Holy Spirit, wherein the divine authority of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords prevails, has dominion over all the invisible courts in the Universes of God. It also has dominion, from His platform of 'Controller of all Manifestations', upon all the courts and decision making centres in the world of man. We must understand this.

There are diverse unseen realms in all the Universes of God.

Rudiments Of Invisible Courts

The Great Lord Jesus the Christ said: "In my Father's house are many mansions" (John 14:2; KJV). These 'mansions' should be seen in the light of symbolic terms of realities. Thus, the aforementioned 'mansions' portrayed diverse realms of existence. These realms, including the world of man, harbour different kinds of creatures within multitudinous camouflage systems.

Even humanoids exist at different levels, systems, gestalts and multitudinous dimensions of camouflage realities, in all the known and unknown Universes of God. Here, Extraterrestrial Intelligences, Angelic Beings of different kinds and magnitudes are involved. We human beings in this physical world are just a specie out of 400,000 species of humanoids, with diverse judicial systems.

RUDIMENTS OF INVISIBLE COURTS

Let it be emphasised that every realm of existence has its judicial system, amongst others, but all such systems are encapsulated and dominated by Jehovah God and His Christ, in the Eternal Supreme Court of the Holy Spirit. When any matter or issue, from any realm of existence, goes to this sole ultimate Court, whatever that is decided there is final. However, not all matters go there. For instance, sometimes a matter of an earthman can come forth in the chambers of astral court, within the realm of darkness. Witchcraft, juju, vicious shrine, thrones and dominions of the forces of darkness via incantations, amongst others, are involved here.

A court of darkness could make a decision on a person, group of persons, family, amongst others. If there is no higher intervention of a superior court in Light, related to the decision of that court within the jurisdiction of darkness, the decision of darkness will stand. Even the realms of darkness have variegated courts. The decision of a lower court in the midst of the forces of darkness, can be set aside by a superior court of darkness.

As earlier stated, the decision of a court of darkness upon a human being can prevail upon the earth-life of such human, for as long as he is not situated in the consciousness of the legitimate Spirit of Christ. And apart from the effect of such decision on a human being, entities in the realms of darkness are also dragged to their related courts, from time to time, for diverse reasons, and suffer some consequences for actions that run contrary to their rules.

I think that this should not bamboozle anyone, because even in the world of man witches and wizards have rules. Juju priests and adherents, armed robbers, terrorists, kidnappers, cultists, fraudsters, secret societies, amongst others, who are situated in the mode of darkness, have rules of engagements. They chastise and punish their own who flout their rules.

All courts or decision making centres in the invisible systems of reality, whether for the Forces of Light or the forces of darkness, operate beyond the elements of space and time generally known to humans. They operate within the range and realities of ethereal intensities. Thus, a matter brought forth in this terms can be decided upon within hours, days, weeks, months and in some cases years, within the reference point of time as we know it.

EXTRATERRESTRIAL COURT SESSIONS

Furthermore, the Angelic Beings of Light (Extraterrestrial Intelligences) of diverse levels and divine degrees, have courts in their respective dimensions of existence. (The Lord do manifest occasionally amongst them to preside over their decision making). They have rules just as we do. However, whereas our human rules are enacted within the framework of mundane recognition, the Angelic Beings of Light have rules mainly premised upon the emotional cum divine platforms of mental etiquette

These Extraterrestrial Intelligences of Light have a way of chastising their own that step beyond a stipulated bound, in their terms. They know precisely what to do, in their respective courts, based on the degree that any amongst them is considered to have acted beyond his boundary of operation. Thus, they take decisions mostly on issues that affect them.

Extraterrestrial court decisions are not limited to their respective issues, as some of their decisions affect humans as well. This, however, is based on the scale of existence wherein each realm of Angelic gestalt is situated. Those of them in the higher or more advanced realms, when the Lord comes forth to preside in any of their sessions, some decisions taken may affect a person or group of persons on Earth.

Remember the case of Ahab, King of ancient Israel. He was an earthman, then resident in the world of man. However, in an Angelic court session presided over by the Lord Himself in the realms beyond, as recorded in Holy Bible, the decision taken there brought about his defeat and death on the physical realms of Earth. This was enacted solely because of his wicked actions.

"There was none like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up" (1 Kings 21:25; KJV).

We humans must learn from things like this. In that divine court session, during which the case of an earthman – King Ahab – came forth, the Almighty Lord asked the Mighty Ones gathered to make suggestions on that agenda. Concerning that invisible court session – invisible to the earthmen – as revealed to Prophet Micaiah in those days, we read what the Prophet said thus:

"I saw the LORD sitting on His throne with all the armies of Heaven around Him, on His right and on His left. And the LORD said, 'Who can entice Ahab to go into battle against Ramot-gilead so that he can be killed there?' There were many suggestions, until finally a Spirit approached the LORD and said, 'I can do it!' 'How will you do this?' the LORD asked. And the Spirit replied, 'I will go out and inspire all Ahab's prophets to speak lies'. 'You will succeed', said the LORD. 'Go ahead and do it' (1 Kings 22:19-22; NLT).

King Ahab finally died in that war at Ramoth-gilead, by the process of that hidden decision made against him before the Throne, in the realms beyond. The prophets that he trusted on Earth, were the ones who collectively revealed to him that he will win the war and come back alive; but it was a lie, for there he died a painful death. Those prophets spoke strictly in accordance with what was revealed to them, without any iota of recognition that they were deceived.

Things like this happen, whether or not we know it. And elsewhere the Lord said: "And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the LORD have deceived that prophet" (Ezk. 14:9; KJV). The Lord said this within the reference point of Himself as the Supreme Controller of all manifestations, all realities, all existences.

Some Bible scholars think that the Spirit who deceived the prophets of Ahab and made them lie, was a demon or ultimately the Spirit of lie. That is not correct. I have long learnt from the Lord that the Spirit in question is a great intelligence in the domain of the Forces of Light. He is an Angelic Being of the Heavenly realms of Light, but 'acted' in a 'moment' within the archetype of 'falsehood', in the framework of the approved assignment at that time.

Now, that approved assignment wasn't an easy task. When the Lord finally told the Spirit concerned, "You will succeed, go ahead and do it", if some difficulties aren't expected to be encountered, there wouldn't be any need to say 'you will succeed'. And the words of the Lord to that Angelic Being was the empowerment, the prime base and impetus of success in that assignment; the needed approval to act.

The assignment itself required intense divine proficiency and manipulations. It required the invasion of the subtle aspects of psyche chromosomes and consciousness of several people at once, correlating the mental patterns of such people to speak a thing in one accord. And in this case, falsehood was involved, meaning that the Spirit – the Angelic Being – involved, will temporary step aside from his normal 'duty post' and momentarily act as a 'Spirit of lie'.

Also, remember the case of Archangel Lucifer. A decision was taken against him, because of his inordinate and bogus ambition to, amongst other things, "be like the Most High". This was contrary to advanced mental etiquette required of him. Consequently, as a punishment, he was cast out from the higher Heavenly realms of Light; he was "cut down to the ground, which did weaken the nations" of the children of men. (See Isaiah 14:12-16).

Things like this happen; things less than this has happened and is happening in the realms of Light, beyond the recognition of the children of men. There are rules in the divine spheres of reality. I am not talking about rules enacted solely within the ambit of organised religions, and transposed into the divine by the earthmen, but rules situated within the domain of advanced mental etiquette of higher Intelligences. And when these rules come into the paradox of God's duality, magnification plays out in diverse spheres of the realms beyond.

DIVINE INQUIRY

An example of this, is what the Lord came forth into the abode of 'Harbinger of the Last Covenant' and once told me. It was on Friday 2nd July, 2021, by 3.16 am that the Lord physically appeared to me while I was in prayers and singing songs of praise to His Name. This is one of the Lord's numerous physical appearances to me, in the course of my 'divine inquiries' before Him, as contained in this treatise.

The Great Lord of Creation granted me the special grace to be conducting divine inquiry from time to time, in the world of man, during which He physically appears to me. It is a deep mystery. I was given some divine codes for the purpose of the activation of this, which includes but not limited to 'emergency inquiry'.

Deep things of the Lord are involved here, but I won't go further because this is not the subject of this material. However, suffice it to be said that during divine inquiry, the Lord, in certain Aspect of Himself, manifests physically to the Harbinger of the Last Covenant. I have learnt that anyone can present any issue for divine inquiry, but not everyone is attended to.

Those who stand faithfully with the mission of the Lord, entrusted to the Harbinger of the Last Covenant, are foremost partakers in this regard. Sometimes I present issues to Him; sometimes He comes forth on issues not presented by me, in which a person, family, nation and our world may be involved.

However, some people in our world have, at one time or the other, benefited from the Lord in the course of the process of divine inquiry that He instituted via the 'Harbinger of the Last Covenant'. Now, in that aforementioned hour, He said several things to the one writing these things, one of which goes thus:

"Harbinger of the Last Covenant, if I tell the earthman to do a thing to another man; a thing which he wouldn't want to be done to himself: as he carries it out in the happiness of obeying Me, behold, he will surely receive the punishment thereof, for not pleading for My mercy to the other person".

That was my first time of hearing this kind of message from the Eternal One, who is both King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Dear reader, we must understand always that the Lord of all the Universes works in mysterious ways. The above statement of the Lord comes within the ambit of His duality. Do you think that all those who killed and maimed in the past generations, in the name of carrying out the sacred orders of the Lord, went scot-free? Do you think that those doing so now will totally escape?

The Lord works in mysterious ways. Remember, He was the one who sent the great Prophet Moses a message to Pharaoh, King of ancient Egypt, to let the Israelites go. He was also the

A Session I Witnessed

One who acted in opposite of this message and hardened the heart of Pharaoh. Thus, He hindered Pharaoh from abiding to His divine instruction. That was a manifestation of His duality in the physical systems of reality.

A SESSION I WITNESSED

I also recall one of my direct experiences with the Lord in our time. On a certain day, by divine mercy, the Harbinger of the Last Covenant knelt before the Holy Presence of the One Eternal King of Kings and Lord of Lords. I was deeply surprised to note at that time that He brought forth to me the issue of a certain man

The Lord told me several things concerning the one whose issues were brought out. In the human terms, it was like some complain against the man. Meanwhile, the man in question wasn't straightforward in his dealings with me. I am aware that some people see him as a fraudster and he had even once scammed my queen (wife) and made away with her money. In all these, I kept showing him love in mercy, as taught by the Great Lord Jesus the Christ.

As the Lord was enumerating the faults of this man, He even reminded me how he defrauded my queen, saying: "These are reports made against him before Me. With all this, tell Me, how can anyone excel in life?". Then He added: "Does he know what he is doing to himself? I also want to hear more about him from you". At this point, it was clear to me that the Lord wanted me to speak.

In response to what He said, I bowed before Him and said: "Oh my Father, the Everlasting Master and Lord of Light; I plead for Your divine mercy on him. Please have mercy on him, my Father". It spiritually dawned on me at that moment that any word I speak against the man before the Lord, is a word spoken against myself. That is how it goes in all ramifications of existence. We must take note of this.

At that point also, I reminded the Lord of the Scripture that says: "Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin" (Rom. 4:7,8; KJV). Furthermore, I pleaded with the Lord to give the man a second chance and guide him to excel in His Light, in the journey of life.

It may be recalled that at that period, the man I am talking about was faced with numerous unpleasant situations. Favour eluded him in diverse aspects. Some people in a position to help him started to avoid him. As I was pleading for him before the Lord, two other holy ones—Angelic Beings—finally joined me to plead for him.

At a certain stage, the Lord touched my head and said: "I know that you still love him, regardless of all that he has done to you and others". Then I said: "I love him Lord with Your Love; I know that You Love him far more than I love him; I know that You Love him far more than he loves himself". It was at this point, after He kept silent for a while, that the Lord said to me concerning him thus:

"Okay, right now I have discharged and acquitted him. Send for him at your convenience, let him confess his sins, and pray for him (Which I later did). I have restored favour unto him and I will cause him to excel before Me".

I say this here in order for us to have a glimpse on some of the ways of the Lord. I later realised that my meeting with the Lord at that time was, on one hand, a kind of 'court session', in which the Lord sat both as the Advocate and Judge. On the other hand, it was a divine test set by Him – The All In All – for the Harbinger of the Last Covenant.

Remember, it is written: "Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy" (Math. 5:7; KJV). We must strive always to stand on this platform. Man must show mercy to what he is higher than, so that what is higher than him will show him mercy. One African (Igbo) adage has it that "He who takes a child by the hand takes its mother by her heart".

The love you show to others is actually the love you show to the Lord of Creation, your Maker. The Lord did admonish: "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself" (Math. 22:39; KJV). That is the path of Light, the path of divine enlightenment. Anything short of this, you are on your own. Again, in approximation to the mercy that you show to others, same you shall obtain, in accordance with the inexorable Universal Law of Reciprocal Action. Always bear this in mind.

Now, it happened at last, as spoken by the Lord, that favour was restored to the man I earlier spoke of. Unpleasant situations in his life turned out to become pleasant situations. That is how it goes, when the Lord directly intervenes in any situation. When the Lord directly comes into any venture or situation, there must be a change for the better. All the issues pending or decided on that man, in different jurisdictions and realms of invisible courts, were squashed that hour by the Lord —the greatest of all powers.

CHASTISEMENT OF ANGELIC ARBITRARY ACTION

In another occasion, the Lord appeared to me, in the course of which He said something that bamboozled me. It was about Angel Gabriel who is well recorded in both the Jewish and Christian Holy Scriptures. (The Islamic Koran and Hadith also mentioned Angel Gabriel). The Lord spoke to me about the visit of this holy Angel to Zacharias, son of Barachias, father of John the Baptist, who was a Jewish priest in that era.

In his old age, while ministering at the temple in Jerusalem, Angel Gabriel appeared to him. He told Zacharias: "Thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John" (Luke 1:13; KJV). Upon hearing this, amongst other things the Angel said, Zacharias doubted the Angel, because of his old age and that of his wife. He considered that, in the human terms, he and his wife were far beyond the age of bearing a child. At this point, following the doubt expressed by Zacharias, the Angel told him:

"I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings. And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season" (Luke 1:19,20; KJV).

Commenting on this incident, the BRIDGE BIBLE DIRECTORY by Don Fleming, 'An A to Z of Biblical Information', says: "Zacharias could hardly believe the good news and wanted a sign to confirm it. The sign he received was also a penalty for his unbelief: he was made dumb till the baby was born". This comment represents a fact generally upheld by Bible scholars and believers. And it is so because what happened thereafter, in the realms beyond, weren't disclosed to the earthmen.

However, the Lord specifically told me that Angel Gabriel acted beyond his boundary, when he raised the standard of the assigned divine Power and made Zacharias dumb. That wasn't part of what Heaven sent him to do on Earth. He was sent solely to deliver a message to Zacharias. Before then, when the Lord physically visited our father Abraham, ate in his house and gave him this kind of message, the wife also doubted and laughed at it, but no action was taken against her. (See Gen. 18:1-15). In this case, Zacharias doubted whilst Angel Gabriel, by spontaneous action, reacted and made him dumb.

Chastisement Of Angelic Arbitrary Action

Speaking further to me on this, the Lord said:

"Gabriel, by making Zacharias dumb then, within the court of his kind in the course of time, was both chastised and reprimanded. On account of this, he was suspended for a while, during which he vacated his duty post and later restored".

Do you also remember when the Prince of Darkness came forth to dispute about the body of the great Prophet Moses with Archangel Michael? – "But Michael the archangel, when he disputed with the devil and argued about the body of Moses, did not dare pronounce against him a railing judgment, but said, 'The Lord rebuke you!" (Jude 1:9; NASB). Here, we see how Archangel Michael exhibited a high dimension of advanced mental etiquette.

Archangel Michael did not go beyond his brief and start to pour insults and "railing accusation" (KJV) to the Prince of Darkness – the Devil. He knew that wasn't necessary in higher divine terms, rather what was important to this end was to take charge of the body of Moses, to which he was well focused.

Michael also knew that to insult the Prince of Darkness, when he was not permitted by the Lord to do so, can be used against him.

Insults and railing accusation have subtle consequences. Michael knew this. He was fully aware of the Universal Law of Homogeneity, which is immutable. He knew that such will attract into the fabrics of his subtle aspects the propensities of the object of his insults and railings. Thus, he completely avoided making a fuss with the Devil on the mission he went out for, namely, to take charge of the body of Moses. And in this, he succeeded in the Name of the Lord.

We must understand that the coming to take charge of the body of Moses, by both Michael and Lucifer, were based on decisions taken in their respective dimensions and jurisdictions, for diverse purposes. This involved certain interests of the Forces of Light and the forces of darkness, in the realms beyond.

Now, because Moses didn't get to the 'promised land', due to the elements of anger that impelled him to act contrary to a divine instruction at some point, the forces of darkness came. They may have concluded, in one of their hidden chambers of decision making, that the body of Moses belonged to them.

Chastisement Of Angelic Arbitrary Action

Such a conclusion will be based on certain codes of astral right. Darkness knows that, by astral right, whoever that disobeys the Holy Spirit can easily be dragged to their camps.

The realm of darkness is fully aware of the divine standing order, which reverberates in the higher Heavenly realms thus: "Whenever you deviate from the dictates of Jehovah God Almighty, you have disqualified yourself from the family of God". Consequently, the Prince of Darkness came for the body of Moses. Due to many factors, which I won't discuss here, taking over the body of Moses, will enable them decode certain subtle aspects of its atomic structure, amongst others, and in some ways not generally known to humans, use same for higher occult manipulations.

This was what the Lord sent Archangel Michael to prevent. And it was done. The coming of Michael in this regard, was also a decision taken in Heaven. It was a higher decision beyond the proclivities of the forces of darkness. It also showed, to the final recognition of the hosts of darkness, that the great Prophet Moses, regardless of the fact that he didn't enter the 'promised land', has his place in the Heavenly realms of Eternal Light

DIVERSE REALMS AND COURTS

Dear reader, let it be emphasised once again that decisions made in diverse invisible courts, which concerns the Earthworld, affect humans in different ways. We humans were all born on Earth from different realms. That is the truth, whether or not our religions know it. I have given details of this in some of my published works, including 'Hidden Truth of Man and Woman', 'Deeper Realities of Existence', 'Verses of Eternal Truth', 'Save Us From Ourselves', 'You Have Another You', amongst others. (You may see the aforementioned materials for more clarity).

Now, the realm that you came from, into the physical realms of Earth, has a hand to some extent in deciding what happens to you, as far as the decisions of invisible courts are concerned. Matters concerning you can also be decided upon by courts not situated in the realm that you come from. While here on Earth, however, you may be elevated by divine mercy and inheritance of the destiny of honour to come to the systems of the path of Light.

When this is done, then all decisions about you will be taken over by the Holy Spirit. Apart from these sets of people, all humans whose originating homes are situated in the multidimensional systems of the Holy Spirit, have their invisible court cases completely taken over by the Holy Spirit.

While you are on Earth, you may not have a case in any physical court of the Earth-world, but you may have multitude of cases decided or pending in diverse invisible courts in the Universes of God. The already decided cases now constitute fabrics of your inherent life experiences, pleasant or unpleasant. The impending ones, though on-going, will further determine the sequence of your experiences in the course of time, here or hereafter.

The earthman is expected to be upright in the Spirit of the Lord, so that his soul will approach the courts of the Lord, in benefits of the benevolence. This benevolence is premised within the realisation that one, regardless of his faults, is discharged and acquitted in the highest court of the Almighty Father. Furthermore, this is enacted within some exemptions in the divine terms of rules.

King David of ancient Israel, in this terms, was a beneficiary of the divine rules of exemptions. Thus, he said: "My soul yearns, yes, even pines and is homesick for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh cry out and sing for joy to the living God" (Psalm 84:2; Amp. Bible). His soul certainly wouldn't yearn 'for the courts of the Lord' upon the realisation that great punishment awaited him there.

King David had every reason to say what he said. In the first place, it was known that some aspects of his earth-life, some portions thereof, were filled with sins and iniquities. These would make any soul to be severely punished in any lower divine court, and greatly in the courts within the dens of the astral forces of darkness. But he escaped all these and was even divinely proclaimed as a 'man after the Heart of God'. It was an exceptional case in the order of things.

As a man after the Heart of God, David was completely discharged and acquitted in the highest divine court of the Almighty God. Things like this do happen, not only to King David, but to some divinely selected people, whose originating realms are rooted in the Higher dimensions of the Spirit of God.

Even if some of us hold that the 'court' spoken of by King David, isn't a spiritual court in a Heavenly realm, but a courtyard in his palace dedicated to God, then in certain terms that doesn't change anything. The important fact is that his soul approached such a 'court' with thanksgiving of victory and divine mercy.

EXPERIENCES IN THE REALMS BEYOND

There was also an incident wherein the Harbinger of the Last Covenant was dragged to a court session in the realms beyond. The Forces of Light and the forces of darkness were involved. The Lord God Almighty, in the Two manifested Versions of Himself – Jehovah God and His Christ – were directly involved as well.

In certain realms beyond the world of man, some Forces of Light came forth. Here, I am speaking about a unit squad of Angelic Beings, placed by the Lord to be led in battle by the earthman writing these things. Things like this happen to selected chosen ones on Earth, both in the conscious and unconscious levels, but in this case it was on a direct conscious level of spiritual experience in the realms beyond.

In any space combat between the Forces of Light and the forces of darkness, related to issues with the world of man, an earthman (or a daughter of man) must be involved. This is where your elevated Spirit in divine Light comes in. Your Spirit can act along this line, moving from the dichotomy of your mental matrix, without the interception of your memory unit; thus, you wouldn't know of your involvement therein in the physical structure you know as yourself.

However, in a more advanced aspect, you will be directly involved and know. Now, knowing or not knowing in your physically oriented self, does not in anyway invalidate the reality of what may have occurred. Your knowing this, is classified as spiritual participation on a conscious level, whilst not knowing is spiritual participation in an unconscious level. This – knowing or otherwise – is brought about via the mental matrix.

The mental matrix has a dichotomy coordinating two major aspects of your identity, your whole self. From the central point of dichotomy, the physically oriented unit of the mental matrix takes charge of all issues related to your existence in the physical realms of reality. From that same point also, the subtle or subjective oriented unit of the mental matrix takes change of all issues related to the hidden (unknown in general terms) or higher aspects of your spiritual realities, in different dimensions of your core identity—the Spirit that you are.

Consequently, if you are looking at this in terms of percentage, then your physical structure holds just one percent, while the multidimensional aspects of the Spirit that you are holds ninety nine percent. For instance, after death in our human terms, when the physical structure is discarded, the multitudinous aspects of the Soul—within the subtle fabrics of the Spirit that you are – will sojourn in conscious experiences at diverse cum variegated realms of the Spirit.

Now, it happened in the realms beyond that the Harbinger of the Last Covenant was leading a squad of divine army towards a destination for space combat. The battle was against a unit of the forces of darkness; they were descending from an astral realm in the space towards a place on Earth, located in Warri, Nigeria.

The mission of these forces of darkness was to empower a vicious secret cult, to the end that human blood will go for blood. You may or may not be aware that the forces of darkness require human blood, just as a vehicle needed fuel to function. They need human blood for the potentization of psychic powers. Human blood enables them to quickly shift from one layer of the 'within' and of 'consciousness' to the other in a given battle.

Human blood is so important to the forces of darkness. It is needed for it to be difficult and near impossible to catch them in battle. It enables them in battle to, amongst other things, facilitate escape from one hidden realm to the other. More can be said along this line, but I won't go further, as this is not the subject matter of this material. I have made detailed exposition of this via my 'Prof. lyke Nathan Uzorma YouTube Channel', amongst other platforms.

As I was leading this squad of Light, numbering over 500, a host of darkness appeared to hinder us from accomplishing our mission. They were over 3000. This squad of darkness was led by an entity, whom I recognised as being in the astral rank of 'Adept-Major'. He is also a 'judge' in the realms of darkness. In the course of our movement, two great pillars of whirlwind appeared; one on our right side and the other on the left.

The strange whirlwind on our right side was scarlet in colour and the mysterious one on our left was yellow, but with dots of scarlet. Their appearances were terrifying, but my heart was at peace, whilst observing and knowing that they manifested to accompany us — the Forces of Light. At a stage, the hosts of darkness blocked our path. Their leader, in a kind of court session, read out charges against the one writing these things.

Furthermore, they also gave astral reasons why Warri, Nigeria, should remain under their dominion. At this point, the scarlet whirlwind transformed into a Man and became the Almighty Father—"The LORD is a Man of war" (Exo. 15:3; KJV)—Then He spoke to the hosts of darkness thus:

"My son, Harbinger of the Last Covenant, is on My approved assignment. Your court has no jurisdiction or judgement over him, even if he urinated.

The city of Warri must abide in the dominion of My Light; it is one of the enclaves amongst the children of men, within the domain of Sky City of My Kingdom on Earth, the Father of all that is, have spoken".

After saying these, the Almighty Father shouted, telling the other whirlwind: "King of Kings and Lord of Lords, ngwa!" The word 'ngwa' is from the Igbo language (my tribe in Nigeria) and represents a directive for urgent action. It was then I realised that the yellow whirlwind with scarlet dots, is a form taken by the Christ of all ages — the King of Kings and Lord of Lords — who is the Sole Ultimate Leader and Commander-in-Chief of the entire armies of Heaven. The Scripture spoke about Him thus:

"And I saw Heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and He that sat upon him was called Faithfull and True, and in righteousness He doth judge and make war.

His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns; and He had a name written, that no man knew, but Himself. And He was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and His name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in Heaven followed Him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of His mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it He should smite the nations: and He shall rule them with a rod of iron: and He treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And He had on His vesture and on His thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS" (Rev. 19:11-16; KJV).

Experiences In The Realms Beyond

The earthmen do not know as they should, the divine authority of the One Eternal King of Kings and Lord of Lords, in their religions, sciences and government – the prison yard of materialism – but certainly they will surely know. This will be well known and recognised as hidden realities begin to unfold in the physical systems, following certain actions going on in the subtle aspects of Earth, building up to colossal upheaval about to manifest.

Before I continue with my spiritual experience in the aforementioned battle, let me say something very brief about the Christ – King of Kings and Lord of Lords – who leads the armies of Heaven. There is a high squad of the armies of Heaven – Forces of Light – a sector of the divine army situated in the higher dimensions of Inter-Planetary Extraterrestrial Intelligences of Light.

This high squad, a concentrated Heavenly dominion, is within the systems of the 'Divine Hierarchy of Space Masters'. They have been reaching out to our Earth-world in different ways. They work with all units of the armies of Heaven. Of recent, they have been sending, more frequently, messages to the people of this world, through established channels, and the one writing these things is fully aware.

Some of their messages contain warnings, that we must not toy with the divine path of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. They well understood the eternal validity of Oneness of Jehovah God and His Christ, which they refer to as Fire from Fire. A recent message from the Divine Hierarchy of Space Masters, on the immutable authority of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords goes thus:

"Out of the Supreme Fire, out of the Consuming Fire, comes Another – Fire on the Throne – King of Kings and Lord of Lords His Divine Power is greater than any power, known and unknown to the children of men; far greater than the combined materialistic and spiritual might of all the armies, above, within and beneath Earth

"Be warned, ye denizens of the Earth-world, be warned: The judgment is passed! All those who deride Him, the marionettes who serve the hidden dark powers, and all those who heed not His words, will soon be removed from the Earth surface, in a manner that will prove what happened in the days of Moses to be a child's play

"We are committed and ready to fully reclaim the Earth-world to the Light of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. In the mandate granted us, even if it warrants the earthman starting life again from the desert, after the impending mother of all battles, for the Earth-world to be reclaimed and to flourish in the Light of Heaven, so be it".

Now, back to the incident wherein Two Versions of the One Eternal God – Jehovah God and His Christ or "God and the Lamb" (Rev. 22:3) – manifested as whirlwinds, the Almighty Father did something. He came to the middle space between me and, leader of the hosts of darkness, struck His left heel there to make a little hole and disappeared. The mouth of the hole was a bit smaller than the mouth of a tea cup.

Immediately this was done, the yellow whirlwind with dots of scarlet — King of Kings and Lord of Lords — became an ubiquitous whirlwind that covered the entire hosts of darkness there. The whirlwind lifted the forces of darkness, gathered them together and transmogrified them to what can't be expressed in our human words. He cast them into the hole made by the Almighty Father. Then He sealed the hole with His right heel.

Thereafter, He said to me: "move on". Then He disappeared. Finally, we moved on to an enclave of the tanks of blood. They were all destroyed. What the forces of darkness wanted to use a secret cult to achieve in Warri, to use man against man, for the purpose of shedding human blood on a large scale, came to naught. The victory was secured in a related court session in which the Lord spoke for me, and those with me.

Dear reader, remember, for the Universal Lord to be known as the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, there must be 'Kings' and 'Lords' in the hierarchies of both the Forces of Light and the forces of darkness, for him to preside over them all. In certain terms, I have experienced this severally. Some humans are part of this, but unknown to some of them in their physically oriented aspects.

One early morning (2 am Nigeria time) the Lord appeared physically to me in my house. He told me, amongst other things, to get prepared for He will return after seven days to take me to a certain realm. When the day appointed arrived, the Lord took me to the realm He spoke of. It is one of the unlimited Heavenly realms of Light.

A crown was placed upon me there, and the Lord ordained the Harbinger of the Last Covenant as the one in charge of that realm. That is where the one writing these things came and that is where he will return at the time appointed. Since then, I have been taken to that dimension several times. The headquarters of this realm has a large number of the armies of Heaven. Some were at strategic points of entrance to the castle.

After the ceremony of crowning experience, the Great Lord disappeared from this realm. The crowning occurred in an hour within the likeness of a human daylight. In an hour within the likeness of a human night, I said to myself: 'Let me remove this kingship paraphernalia, go out causally through a little corner and observe this realm of existence, not as the presiding one, but as a mere visitor'. As soon as I did this, I was immediately attacked.

It happened that my first step outside the opulent castle in the realms beyond, a strange creature at the security post therein struck me. He mistook me to be an unwanted intruder. I dodged his attack, but a little portion of his body touched my chest. The creature, realising that it was me, immediately went on his knees, and others like him gathered to plead for forgiveness. I was in pain, especially on my chest. I couldn't even stand up. Then they activated a code for the Lord to appear, and the Lord appeared.

The appearance of the Lord brought about a brief divine court session in that Heavenly realm. He asked the Angelic creature to speak. This entity and those like him were strange Beings, having the body structure of both man and beast. They are well equipped for battle. Their duties include, amongst other things, securing that realm from attacks of the vicious mighty astral entities of the dark world. They were also assigned to provide protection to the one ordained to preside over that realm.

The creature told the Lord that he didn't know that I was the one, because I disguised myself. The Lord affirmed his report to be true. The Lord further explained that such entities, and all entities in all the realms, are not infallible. They can make occasional mistakes, but far less in approximation to the mistakes of the children of men.

Furthermore, the Lord told me that some aspects of such Beings, especially when it comes to providing protection, is highly programmed to action. It is almost like the way we program computer in the world of man. He then reverted to the creature and said: "What will you say now to the Harbinger of the Last Covenant?" Then the creature said to me:

"My respected one, we love you. I know that you are here now and that your physical structure is in the Earth-world. Please forgive me for what happened. I know that the pain you are experiencing now will align with your physical structure when you return to the Earth and will even increase Please don't go to any earthly hospital for treatment; and please don't take any drugs The pain will eventually go away from you".

As this creature was speaking, he and others like him were kneeling. I was sitting in a painful mood. The Lord and three other holy Beings with Him were standing. And the Lord said to the creature: "The Harbinger of the Last Covenant will now decide your fate. Whatever he says now will stand before Me". Consequently, I pleaded with the Lord to forgive the creature, that I have sincerely forgiven him, as it wasn't even his fault.

Finally, the Lord shook my hand, saying that I have spoken well. He also directed one of holy ones to escort me back to the realm of my physical abode. This was done. Upon my physical return, the pain became more severe, to the extent that I couldn't stand straight. My queen (wife), children and everyone in my abode who saw me, were greatly shocked. The pain lasted for ninety days. At first I wondered what the spiritual significance of this experience was all about, but at last I knew. Always remember that there are more than the eyes can see, and that the ways of the Lord are not the ways of the children of men.

WHAT WE SHOULD KNOW

When I say that you came from a particular realm into this world, it may go contrary to the accepted belief systems of some earthmen. Some people think that their existence started from the day they were born or the moment of conception in the womb. In divine terms, that is not the case. You have always existed and will always exist, whether with or without the body camouflage reality. If you understand the true nature of identity and consciousness, the true nature of man, that you are ultimately a soul and the soul you are is a Spirit and a portion of God, a portion in God, then this will be better understood.

Where you came from to this Earth-world, has its own court at different levels. The Lord said to Prophet Jeremiah: "Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations" (Jer. 1:5; KJV). Here, the Lord is speaking about where Jeremiah came from, which was well known to Him, before his physical body was formed in the womb to be born as an earthman.

The book of Psalms chapter 100 verse 4 says: "Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise: be thankful unto Him, and bless His name". This is talking about man's relationship with God. These 'gates' and 'courts' may have symbolic representations in the world of man, but ultimately they are not physically oriented.

These 'gates' and 'courts' also exist at different levels, in different realms of existence. Even the Mighty Extraterrestrial Intelligences that we refer to as Archangels, Cherubims, Watchers, Living Creatures, amongst others, the most advanced of them have their 'Space Ships' embedded with courts. Within the ambit of their operational codes, if you understand the rudiments of their 'duty-posts', you will observe that 'courts' are related to their realities. Some more advanced Extraterrestrial Intelligences have both inner and outer courts in their 'Mother Vessels', representing higher and lower courts. (See Ezk. 10:1-5).

Now, what do these courts do? Just as we have physical courts here on Earth, so there are diverse related invisible courts in different realms of existence. A matter can be taken to a magistrate court and decision is made. On one hand, if the individual upon whom that decision was made does not like the decision, but is incapable of making appeal, that decision will stand upon him. On the other hand, if the individual has the capacity to make appeal, he takes it to a higher court, and so on till it gets to the supreme court.

When an earthman is brought forth to any invisible court, and he is bereft of the Mercy and Light of the Holy Spirit, what do you think will help him? If he is deeply situated in the mode of darkness and wickedness, what will plead for his cause?

What We Should Know

Whatever decision that is taken on such a person, even in a lower invisible court, will stand upon him. If the decision is made against him in the astral world of darkness, that decision stands, except there is a direct divine intervention of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Divine intervention in this regard means moving that decision to a higher divine court.

In the light of the foregoing exposition, there are things we must know, as far as the issue of dragging a person to invisible court is concerned. To this end, even what you may consider to be a little thing matters. For instance, I am aware that a charge of failing to say 'Amen', upon hearing the Name of the Lord, is facing some earthmen in diverse Angelic courts now.

It is possible for the Lord to wave this charge aside from a person, based on some factors, when it gets to His final dimension of ultimate reality. It is also possible that, if this is not waved aside, decision taken therein could result in some earthly predicament. At this point, let it be known that there is absolutely nothing like chance, luck or accident in the Universes of God. "For whatever a man sows, that and that only is what he will reap" (Gal. 6:7; Amp. Bible). That is how it goes, at different levels, big or small.

You may mistakenly pierce yourself with a needle and think that it was a minor accident. No, it is not; you have reaped something there. What about a little headache? You think it occurred by chance or merely because of stress? The stress itself, which gave birth to the headache, is still part of the process. What about when someone gives you a helping hand, like freely giving you some money, is that mere luck? No, you reaped want you sowed. Every day we reap what we sow, in big ways, in small ways.

The Name of the Lord must be honoured. Great Angelic Beings of Light are committed to that. When someone says to your hearing: "In the Name of Our Lord Jesus Christ", and you fail to respond 'Amen', they hold that you have derided the Lord's Name. They will take it up against you. If you are a believer but fails in this regard, whilst your failure is counted in large instances, your chastisement will increase. It will be more than an unbeliever who does so.

Furthermore, great Extraterrestrial Intelligences of Light count it as offence for one to 'fail to present himself to the Priest daily'. This has to do with morning devotion. And in this terms, the Lord is the Chief Priest unto Himself in all the realms. Remember the great Melchizedek? He was the human manifestation of the Spirit of Christ on Earth, in the days of our father Abraham. But in that manifestation, He played the role of 'Priest of the Most High God'. (See Gen. 14:18; Psalm 110:4; Heb. 7:1-3).

What about the Great Lord Jesus the Christ? It was said of Him: "And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh" (1 Tim. 3:16; KJV). Did the Lord not play a priestly role in those days? Remember that He was also called Rabbi, which is a Jewish spiritual teacher of the Scriptures. The paradox here is that the Lord in human manifestation is also the 'Priest of God', which is Himself.

Now, partaking in morning devotion every day, in praise to the Holy Name of the Lord, is noted by the Angelic Beings of Light as 'presenting yourself daily to the Priest'. This is whether or not the person conducting the devotion is an ordained priest, in organised religious terms. Anyone on Earth who fails to do so, has a charge for this. Again, whether or not you are a believer, determines the degree of chastisement that may follow. If you fail to present yourself in the morning to the Lord, to begin a new day, but you present yourself first to whatever activity that begins your day, you won't go scot-free. This is as far as the holy Angels are concerned, unless the Lord directly intervenes in His ultimate dimension.

WHAT CHRIST TAUGHT

Dear reader, I tell you, nothing will salvage me; nothing will salvage you; nothing will salvage the children of men, outside the divine teachings of the Great Lord Jesus the Christ. If you deeply study the teachings of Christ, you will have a clue of what I am saying here. Some aspects of His teachings deal with the issue of invisible courts. For instance, in those days the Lord did say:

"Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing" (Math. 5:25,26; KJV).

Sometimes when we read this eternal admonition of the Great Lord Jesus the Christ, we think that they are only physically oriented, but it is far more than the physical aspects generally known. Of course, in relative physical terms, we see things like this happen in the world. However, this is more connected with the hidden realm of existence beyond the world of man.

The Lord said: "Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him". On "the way" to where? What do we understand by "whiles thou art in the way with him?" What does "the way" mentioned here portray in the divine terms of the Lord? If you have an adversary and you are about to travel from Lagos to New York or from Accra to Johannesburg, will you tell the adversary to be on the way with you? Even then will he agree, as that may not be part of his schedule? I don't think so.

Then, what does the Lord refer to as 'the way' and where does it lead to? I tell you, the Lord is speaking here in connection with the realities of invisible courts. What makes a person an adversary to another, at any given point, is based on the action, word or thought of that person. When you speak a bad word, for instance, against a person and it hurts that person, from that moment you are an adversary to him.

Consequently, you are on 'the way' with that person you have hurt, going into a certain dimension of invisible court, unknown to you. The Lord admonished that to overcome this, to escape this, agree with that your adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him. The adversary in this connection could be anybody. It doesn't mean it must be someone who is in the order of permanent enmity with you.

Your adversary could be anybody that hurts you in a moment point or that is hurt by you. You must know, as part of the greater divine rules of life, that great blessings await you when you live a life that hurts no one, and when you are not hurt by anyone. When you inflict pain — emotional, mental, psychical or physical—on someone, you are an adversary.

Now, the adversary could be someone in your household. The adversary may be your husband, wife or child; it could be your grandfather, uncle or friend. When a child does something wrong and you ask 'who did this?' if the child confesses the truth, then beware. If you are wise, in such instance you wouldn't beat that child, otherwise you will be on the way with your adversary. To beat or punish someone in anyway who spoke the truth, certainly puts you in a serious disadvantageous spiritual position now, in the journey of life.

Even if a child lied to you in fear or whatever, don't beat him, rather use the word of God to correct that child. This principle stands steadfast now before the Throne of the Lord of Creation. People usually quote the Scripture that says: "He that spareth his rod hateth his son" (Pro. 13:24; KJV), and rely on same to beat children. However, the paradigm has shifted now before the Throne, whilst the proclaimed 'rod' is no more stick or cane, but the word of God. I speak here as 'Harbinger of the Last Covenant'.

What about the reign of Christ? Is it not with an iron rod? — "And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron" (Rev. 12:5; KJV); "And He shall rule them with a rod of iron" (Rev. 19:15; KJV) — Gun, stick, knife, bomb won't be involved here. That chapter is closed now; the paradigm has shifted.

The "rod" that is given for our use now is prayer/fasting, with total commitment to the Holy Spirit to change any child, any soul, for good. We should use prayer with patience and strong believe in the Holy Spirit to change a person. That is the "rod" for you and I. If you beat a child now and it pains that child, I tell you, you are on the way with your adversary.

Quickly agree with that adversary; call the child back and apologize to him. Pacify the child. Explain to the child why you did what you did and caution him with the words of love not to repeat the mistake that he made. When you do this, you have agreed with your adversary and blocked the way to the 'judge'. Even thereafter, still be patient with the child, within the knowing that he may still repeat the mistake again and possibly again, until he matures.

People in the western world have, to a larger extent, overcome this issue of torturing children, all in the name of correcting them with 'rod'. But here in Africa, torturing children is seen as part of a way of life. However, always bear in mind that when you torture a child or anyone else, you are on the 'way to a judge', and the blame of the outcome is on you. Christ has given us the way of escape; we must endeavour to follow it.

I recall an incident wherein a certain man came to me. He was encumbered by diverse unpleasant situations. He was dismissed from office for over ten years and all attempts to secure another job failed. The man is a faithful one of the Lord in his terms, but material blessings eluded him. I conducted a divine inquiry, and the Lord specifically unveiled the cause of his predicament.

The first son of this man is a great Soul from a strong realm of Light. From the originating point of his descent, he is far ahead of his earthly father in the scale of the Almighty. But when he was a boy of about six years, he misbehaved and his father (the man I am talking about) flogged him. An invisible court from whence he came passed judgment. That was the main cause of the man's problems.

He was directed to go and apologize to his son before I raise a divine decree of the Lord in prayers to salvage his situation. This doesn't mean that his son had any grudge against him, as he couldn't even remember the incident when his father met him to apologize. One thing is that the earthman may forget, but invisible reality doesn't. Not long after apologising to his son, things changed for good. His dismissal was reviewed and turned to retirement. He was paid huge amount of money.

In another occasion, a woman complained to me that her business was going down. She suspected that witchcraft was at work. But upon divine inquiry, it was made known that numerous cases of her beating her daughter of four years were brought up against her in the realms beyond. Finally, she stopped beating the girl, and things changed unto her for good. Remember, the Lord Himself said: "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge" (Hos. 4:6; KJV). We all need advanced divine knowledge now than ever.

The foregoing exposition constitutes one of the mysterious statements made by the Great Lord Jesus the Christ. While "you are on the way" with your adversary, means that within some time frame, from the moment of a misdeed enacted by you against a person, something will begin to occur, namely, your being placed on the way to an invisible court. The core mystery here is that anybody you offend or hurt in this world, the Spirit of that person will immediately report you to the court where he comes from. Generally speaking, this may be unknown to you and the person in physical terms. This occurs whether the one you offend is young or old.

I have said it severally and written it in some of my books that man is a Spirit. The soul of man is a concentrated unit of the Universal Spirit, which is God. In this terms then, when we say Body, Soul and Spirit, we are referring firstly to the body structure that you know; that is the physical body. The soul has different covering downwards leading to the last covering that we see as the human body.

From the physical body upwards, there are other human subtle bodies, such as mental, emotional, astral, causal, memory and etheric bodies. The dream bodies and mind are also involved. The mind body is the last covering of soul. The soul is a concentrated unit of Spirit. The Spirit is the prime base of identity and consciousness.

When we talk about man as a Spirit inhabiting the body that you know, we are referring to the other layers of the body up to the soul, which is the concentrated unit of the Spirit. When you talk about man as ultimately a Spirit, you are talking about the primordial state of a unit in God, the preliminary condition of reality before the final concentration of Spirit as soul. The existence of man is a mystery of God and will always remain a mystery as man unfolds, in the eternal within of the within of himself.

As earlier stated, greater aspects of what man as Spirit does, are not known in the system of what man as the physical body is or thinks he is. There are so many things that you as Spirit does which you in the gross material body camouflage doesn't know. We must grow in the dimensions of the higher realities of our identity and consciousness, beyond the camouflage systems of the physical body structure, to know what we are in the Universes of God.

Therefore, when you hear that your Spirit has gone to make a report in the realms beyond, you may ask: when and how was the report made by me? Listen: when someone causes you pain – physical, psychological, financial, amongst others – that pain sends signals to a different layer of reality. Specifically, it sends signals to the realm from whence you came. That is the report. If the invisible court in that realm can't deal with the issue, a higher court even in another realm can come in. This is especially when a court of your native realm invites a higher one. Things like this, and much more, do occur.

Christ advised man to quickly reconcile with his adversary while on the way with him. Failure to do this, your issue will come forth in a court of the realms beyond. Man should endeavour not to fail here, otherwise unpleasant things will follow. As the Lord Himself said: "lest the adversary delivered thee to the judge and the judge deliver thee to the officer". The 'judge' here represents the jurisdiction wherein judgement is passed, based on the action taken by you against anybody anywhere.

Do you sincerely think that the 'judge' mentioned by the Lord in this connection deals only with the earthmen working as judges on the physical realms of Earth? What about the 'officer' whom the judge delivers one to be punished? Do such officers exist only here on Earth? If they do, then the words spoken by the Lord will stand as 'nothing' to the earthmen in certain ways.

There are people who offend others and cause them pain, but get away with it or appear to do so, in strict earthly terms. No officer arrested them, no earthly judge passed judgment on them, and to them, in their wrong thinking, 'nothing will happen'. Are you aware of such people? Are you one of them? I tell you, all such people are facing charges in the realms beyond. Some are already in detention, but physically unknown to them.

The Lord said that when the judge takes decision in such an instance and hands you over to the officer, and you are taken to prison, you will not come out until you pay the "utmost farthing". That means the offence must be paid for. For as long as you refused to plead for forgiveness and make amends, you must pay for it. This is what is going on all over the world. Every day we pay; every day we are rewarded for good or bad in different ways. That is why one must strive to be on the path of goodness, so that good will follow him. The Lord also said in another place:

"When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite" (Luke 12:58,59; KJV).

Here, the Great Lord Jesus the Christ admonished us once again to 'give diligence', in the course of one being dragged to a court. The aim of giving this "diligence" is for one to be delivered from a particular projected predicament. Now, what is this 'diligence' that must be given in specific terms for one to be extricated—delivered?

In the human terms, even by the definition of dictionary, the word 'diligence' deals with 'the qualities of a hard worker, including conscientiousness, determination, and perseverance'. Thus, we note that 'diligence' isn't an object, material or otherwise, which one person should give to another person, in order to set himself free. It is a quality of being, embedded in consciousness and mental pattern.

When this 'diligence' is transposed into the divine terms of reality, the platform from which the Lord spoke and speaks, what it symbolises will be clear. For, in divine terms, it represents the committed effort that one is expected to make, so as to be delivered from the invisible court verdicts that will physically manifest in unpleasant situations.

Simply expressed: 'diligence', spoken of by the Lord in this connection, stands for total forgiveness. Humbly asking the person whom you offended for true forgiveness and practicing total forgiveness; this is diligence. One early morning (4.25 am), the Lord spoke to the hearing of Harbinger of the Last Covenant thus:

"All those who persist in sin, have alienated themselves from Me. They have no part nor portion with the Light of My Holy Kingdom.

"All those who see themselves as sinners, go on bended knees and seek for forgiveness, have obtained same. All those who fail to see themselves as sinners, but continues in sin, their sins will remain with them. Anyone who rejects Me, behold, he has signed that his sins will remain with him.

"Whoever accepts Me has obtained forgiveness from sins. Children of men, the problems facing you, your family, your community, your world, derives from what you have just heard. Advice yourself to seek Me.

"Advice your family, your community, your religious group, your government, to seek Me; for I am the Light of the world".

Do you know what is meant by 'your sins will remain with you?' It means that you must pay for it, whether you like it or not. In divine terms, one is expected to quickly reconcile with his adversary, apologize, ask for forgiveness, live and let live. One is expected never to bear malice towards anyone, for whatever reason. One is expected to maintain a pure heart always, towards God and man. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God" (Math. 5:8; KJV). It is only with a pure heart that you will see the Finger of Jehovah God and His Christ in all realities of existence, of your being.

Our human frailties – faults or sins – make us 'blind' before the Throne and drag us into diverse realms of invisible courts. We can only 'see' and be salvaged by sincerely asking for forgiveness and receiving same from those we offended, more importantly from the Throne of the One who is the all in all. Christ once said:

"For judgement I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind" (John 9:39; KJV).

When you receive the Lord's mercy, by pleading for forgiveness and receiving same, then you are truly made to 'see'. Conversely, when you claim to be righteous, in your organised religious terms, and fail to acknowledge yourself as a sinner before the Throne, then you will remain spiritually 'blind'. Therefore, when the Lord spoke of giving 'diligence', it entails committing yourself seriously to these things.

To this end, Saint Paul admonished: "Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: Neither give place to the devil" (Eph. 4:26,27; KJV). Giving place to the devil mentioned here, has to do with allowing the basis for which your issue comes forth and determined by the astral courts of the forces of darkness. This should be avoided at all cost.

Saint Paul said that one may be angry but should not sin in his anger. We should endeavour to subjugate anger, but if at all it comes, we should never entertain animosity via the propensities of grudges. In his words: "Let not the sun go down upon your wrath". This is extremely important in divine terms. For the sun to 'go down upon your wrath' shows that grudges have come into play.

It is extremely disadvantageous for anyone to go to bed in the night with grudges in his consciousness. The matter of such a person in the astral courts of darkness is highly accelerated and facilitated. What Saint Paul said — "Let not the sun go down upon your wrath" — and what the Great Lord Jesus the Christ said — "Agree with thine adversary quickly" — are synonymous to each other. Both yield the same divine result. Both shows the urgency required for these things.

Even the saying, "be ye angry", which to us is normal in human existence, when done, should equally be confessed to the Lord. This is to be on a safer side in divine terms. Sometimes a believer says 'oh, I have no sin'. Who tells you that? A believer still commits sin, but his sins are forgiven and covered by the Lord: "Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered" (Rom. 4:7; KJV). That is the inheritance of true believers recognised by the Lord Himself

For instance, do you know how many ants you have killed today, while walking down the road or driving about with your vehicle? Yes, the ant is a little creature, but each ant is a certain degree of camouflage manifestation, possessing both consciousness and identity arising from the Universal Body of the One Eternal Almighty God. Thus, the movement of each ant and the purpose thereof, are well known to God. Do you know how the "spirit" of an ant reports the earthman to the realms beyond, unto the Creator? What you don't know is bigger than you.

The experience I had with a cockroach, about climbing my shoe in a certain place, is published in one of my books. As I was about to kill it, I heard the Lord telling me to stop what I was about to do. He told me to show mercy on that which is less than me, so that what is higher than me will equally show me mercy. Remember that the Lord said: "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy" (Math. 5:7; KJV). That is how things go in the journey of life.

Never you at any time claim to be righteous before the Throne or claim to be holier than another person. Leave all such issues to the Almighty Father, but endeavour to be steadfast on the path of Light. Don't deceive yourself, in the name of being a "holiness preacher", by claiming to be righteous than fellow earthmen. Rather, humble yourself and lie low before the Holiest of the Holies – the Almighty. Saint John wrote to the believers of his time thus:

"If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him are liar, and His word is not in us" (1 John 1:8-10; KJV).

This was a message to believers in those days; this is a message to believers unto this day. The truth is that we humans are all woeful sinners at different levels, including the righteous men, including the Harbinger of the Last Covenant. It is written: "Indeed, there is no one on earth who is righteous, no one who does what is right and never sins" (Ecc. 7:20; NIV). This is the truth; that is why we have Christ as our Advocate, otherwise there wouldn't be any need for Him acting as an Advocate for us.

Consequently, as we are admonished to be angry and sin not, we must be mentally and spiritually prepared. We must understand that people out there will act to make us angry. Even the household is not ruled out here. We must be ready to quickly reconcile with the adversary, lest we are dragged to a court. If the sun goes down in your anger, be sure that the issue concerned will appear before a judge in the realms beyond. But if you forgive, and is forgiven, the matter will be dissolved before the Lord of Creation

When someone is practicing wickedness against you and you sincerely forgive him, whether or not he asked for forgiveness, you have salvaged yourself from the danger of a court in the realms beyond. If the person involved ask for your forgiveness, he stands equally salvaged. But for as long as the person didn't change and ask you for forgiveness, the matter will continue to go 'on that way' till it gets to its destination.

I hope you will understand these things, possibly better than I am trying to explain, because this is part of the reality of existence. Many things are involved here, but don't forget that whoever holds another person down also holds himself down. You hold someone down on the road to prevent him from going to work, you are equally holding yourself back from going elsewhere. The Lord also said:

"But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgement: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire" (Math. 5:22; KJV).

Here, the Lord spoke of one being angry 'without a cause'. Who determines the 'cause' unto divine validity? That cause is not determined by you. If you are angry with someone because he failed to give you money or a loaf of bread, how valid is your anger in divine terms? If the person involved doesn't even know that you desire a loaf of bread from him, but you put it in your mind and begin to bear grudge, are you angry with a valid cause? Though you have determined in your consciousness, in your mental pattern, that there is a cause for your so-called anger, but in the divine spheres of the Holy Spirit your anger is null and void; it is invalid.

That anger with your brother without a cause, immediately puts you in a "danger of the judgement". Unpleasant situations are bound to physically occur, arising from the conclusion of this 'judgement', in a court of the realms beyond.

Certain things are mentioned here by the Lord; judgement is mentioned here, council is mentioned and hell is mentioned. All these are experiences of predicament at different levels. Do you know that any iota of grudge you have in your mind puts you in a danger of judgement? If you want to be freed by the Holy Spirit, you must free others from your heart, no matter what they have done against you. That is the divine order of the Lord. If you fail here, then you will fail in many things.

Our Lord Jesus Christ also said that when you say 'Reca' to your fellow man, you will be in danger of the council. Where is this council situated? Is it not in the realms beyond? The word 'Raca' means 'empty-headed'. It is a word of insult. Have you seen any court on the physical realms of Earth that handles a matter relating to this kind of insult.

When you insult your husband, wife or anyone in this manner, are you dragged to any earthly court? I am yet to see such a court in my country, Nigeria. Do you have any in your country? Does it mean that those who insult others in this manner in Nigeria, for instance, are totally free from court proceedings in all the realms of existence?

When you call someone a fool, according to the Lord, it puts you in the danger of hell. The 'hell' you hear here does not necessarily mean to occur only after one dies, in earthly terms.

One can also have hellish or hell-like experiences here on Earth. Diverse unpleasant situations, diverse predicaments, acute health challenges and chronic diseases, acute poverty, amongst other hellish experiences, including untimely death, can occur as a result of decisions of invisible courts.

SUPREME COURT OF THE ALMIGHTY

Dear reader, here in the world of man, you may see someone doing well in earthly terms. Such a person may have a pretty wife, good looking children, mansions, cars, amongst others. If such a person has a case in the realms beyond already decided, and about to manifest, then 'something' awaits him. You see a man eating well, clothing well, but doesn't know what awaits him, from the courts of the realms beyond.

Whatever that happens to you and I has a cause. For instance, the cause of death of a certain known prophet was made known to me. He was given a life span, which was eventually cut short by the decision of the 'Supreme Court' of the Lord. This was made known to the Harbinger of the Last Covenant by a holy one – advanced Extraterrestrial Intelligence or Angelic Being – of Light from above.

There are far more than the eyes can see. The matter brought forth against the prophet, lasted for four years of human calculation, in different courts of diverse realms, until the Lord Himself finally took decision on it. That particular prophet came to this Earth-world from a strong realm; a realm that has the capacity to make lots of appeal. Not all realms have the capacity to do so.

The first decision made against him was appealed; same with the second decision, the third, and so forth. Finally it was sealed by the ultimate 'Supreme Court' of God that his years should be cut off, and he died. In the hereafter, he was placed in the domain of humanoids beneath the regions of men.

The prophet I am talking about was a good man in certain terms and did a lot of good things. But there was a dubious man that came to his congregation. This earthman, in the religious terms, was an ordained priest. The prophet gave him an opportunity to speak, but he used same to lie unto the Most Holy – Christ – even unto the Holiest of the Holies: Jehovah God Almighty.

A charge was brought against the church priest, by four thousand holy Angels and two hundred and seventy Spirits of men/women from Earth situated in the Light of Heaven. He was accused to have lied, both in symbolic and philosophical terms, against the Throne. Specifically, while the priest was speaking at that point in a large congregation, he referred to a particular work done on Earth by the Lord as a work done by the Prince of Darkness. Consequently, he was charged for 'blasphemy' against the Holy Spirit. His charges were intense, because as a priest he was expected to know better, and not to use his office to lead humans astray. His case didn't take long as he was taken out (died) within six months.

Now, what was the offence of the prophet in this connection? Listen: As the priest was speaking, it was immediately revealed to the prophet the areas that he lied unto the Throne. The prophet was equally directed to stop him from speaking further, rebuke him and set the record straight.

However, the prophet couldn't comply with this divine directive for fear of his large congregation. He didn't want them to cast aspersions on him, by questioning why he allowed the priest to come forward and speak in the first place. He felt that they will think that he should have known that the priest will tell lies, because they held him as a high prophet.

The ways of men are not the ways of God. For failing to abide by the divine directive given to him, a charge was equally brought against the prophet. This charge was for 'hearing and condoning the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit'. By this act, blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, which he didn't directly participate in the human terms, was counted against him in divine terms as one who directly participated. This finally led to his untimely demise in the world of man.

Beware Of This

BEWARE OF THIS

As we hear things like this, we must be very careful and learn from it. It is said that a wise man learns by hearing, but a man bereft of wisdom learns from experience. Remember that the Lord Himself categorically said: "Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgive unto men" (Math. 12:31; KJV). We, the children of men, must be careful about what comes out of our mouths.

The Great Lord Jesus the Christ also did say: "For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned" (Math. 12:37; KJV). Don't forget this; never pass over it lightly. When you speak, let your words give life, not 'death', to others. Use your words to salvage yourself, because as you are here on this Planet, you are given a particular number of words to speak from the moment you were born.

When you finish speaking that amount of words, you will speak no more in your current physical structure, within the world of man. But by your volition, you can choose the kinds of words to speak from the pool of the amount of words assigned to you. Therefore, speak the words that will elevate and not degrade you and other people.

The Lord said: "All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men". This forgiveness occurs when you sincerely ask for it. If you fail to ask for it, then you will pay for it. Remember that the word 'blasphemy' has to do with irreverence to that which is sacred. Is God not the Most Sacred of all that is sacred?

We speak in blasphemy unto the Lord in so many ways, some of which are not held as blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, and therefore can be forgiven unto men and taken out of record. But when a thought, word or deed is held as blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, it must be paid for; I repeat, it must be paid for.

For instance, when you are praying and you say 'Oh God where are you?' that is blasphemy. The Almighty Father is everywhere at all times. That is the truth; it should be understood by everyone. Thus, when you ask God 'where are you?' What is the meaning of that? And when you say: 'Oh God, why me? Why is this happening to me?' who are you questioning, the Almighty? What about when you say: 'Oh

God, if truly you are God, come and do' this or that? Do you truly know what you are doing?

All these are blasphemous, but they are amongst all manner of sin and blasphemy that shall be forgiven unto men, as spoken by the Lord. However, when anyone attributes the Finger of the Holy Spirit, who works in mysterious ways, to the forces of darkness, that becomes a different thing. It becomes a blasphemy against the Holy Spirit; this has the capacity to wipe off the entire record of good things done by anyone.

In the light of the foregoing, I laugh when someone comes out to say 'I don't commit any sin'. Do you know the divine configuration of this things? Do you have the perfect knowledge of what is, and what is not, before the Throne? Do you know how things are counted by Him, who is the all in all, and otherwise? Always bear in mind that His ways are not our ways. In one of the Lord's divine visitations to me, He said amongst other things:

"Harbinger of the Last Covenant, whoever speaks when I have not directed him to speak, has failed before Me. Again, whoever that didn't speak when I direct him to speak, has in the same manner failed before Me. Therefore, let man listen to Me alone. For, behold, I, even I, your Lord, don't hear the words of men in the likeness of how man hears the words of man.

"Likeness the Mighty Angels before Me: they do not hear the words of man in the manner of men. A thing said by man can be heard in a different manner and taken in a manner unknown to man. Let whoever loves life beware of what he says and what he hears. Behold, in these, the counting of sin and iniquity are found".

The Great Lord Jesus the Christ specifically said that "Every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment" (Math. 12:36; KJV). We must understand that 'the day of judgment' is part of an ongoing process hitherto. We must endeavour to completely refrain from speaking idle words. Don't speak anyhow.

Beware Of This

The Lord promised to salvage those who mind how they speak before God and men. He said: "And to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God" (Psalm 50:23; KJV). And in order for us to order our words in proper divine perspective — order your conversation aright — Saint Paul admonished thus: "Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man" (Col. 4:6; KJV). Dear reader, if you know that the word you intend to speak will not give peace to another person, please don't speak it, for your own good.

One on the path of Light should keep on speaking good and doing good. The good that you do will surely speak good for you before the Throne in the journey of life. Especially a good done in the Name of the Lord; it will surely speak for you. Don't wait for anybody to tell you before you support the work of the Holy Spirit on Earth.

Haven't you heard that even money can answer for you? – "money answereth all things" (Ecc. 10:19; KJV) – yes, it does, for good or bad. Your money is symbolic of your energy, your time, as well as the evidence of your material possession. When properly utilised in the selfless services of the Lord, it will 'answer' for you in diverse ways before the Throne. When you spend money for the things of the Holy Spirit, whether or not you are appreciated by humans, your record is there before the Lord and will speak volumes for you

BE MINDFUL IN LITTLE THINGS

One early morning (4.18 am), someone very close to me called to inform me about a revelation he just had. This man is gifted in visions and revelations. He had a revelation of how police (anti kidnapping squad) forcefully arrested him in his house. He pleaded with me to conduct a divine inquiry to ascertain what the revelation was all about

While speaking, the man finally added: "Harbinger, do you know that I am not bothered even if I am arrested, because I have no skeleton in my cupboard". Before I continue with this incident, I want to firstly make a vital divine point. Now, a court verdict may be set forth against an earthman, from the realms beyond. However, when the decision is about to be physically established, it could follow a process in which the earthman involved may be seen to be 'innocent' in earthly terms

In other words, sometimes invisible court decision about a person, its manner of physical execution at a given point may follow a different, not similar, framework. For instance, you may secretly and deliberately cause a problem to someone. Later in the journey of life, a tree may fall and break your leg; and this is a payment for what you did. But the circumstances surrounding this, may project you as an innocent person in the eyes of men.

What about Elijah, for instance? He murdered some 'false prophets' in his time (see 1 Kings 18:40). What did the Lord say? He said: "All they that take the sword shall perish with the sword" (Math. 26:52; KJV). When the Spirit of Elijah returned to the Earth again as John the Baptist (see Mal. 4:5; Math. 11:13-15; 17:10-12), he, as John the Baptist, was equally murdered. But this was done under a different framework, in which John the Baptist was killed as an innocent man, even for the sake of righteousness.

Now, around 10 am, as I was preparing for a divine inquiry, as requested by the man, via an appointment set by a code of the Spirit of God, I got a news from his wife. She informed me that her husband has been arrested. I still went ahead with the inquiry, during which the Lord appeared and said thus to me:

"Harbinger of the Last Covenant, can you recall the last words he used? He said 'Harbinger, do you know that I am not bothered even if I am arrested, because I have no skeleton in my cupboard'.

"Therefore know and understand that action was taken on the strength of his words. If he didn't speak in this manner, but rather sought after My intervention, he would have received same. Now that he is arrested, behold debts will be paid off. He will be released, after some days of tribulations, and I will bless him under My new chapter".

On a human false allegation of terrorism and kidnapping, for which he was completely innocent, this man was held in detention for about three months. However, in the course of the aforementioned inquiry, the Lord unveiled the root cause of his predicament. This was prior to my plea for His direct intervention. I pleaded with the Lord to salvage him, to help him, as a help unto the Harbinger of the Last Covenant.

The bad words he said to his wife was the prime base for this. Listen: whatever that is not found in the realms beyond, will not come into physical manifestation. Whatever that happens on the physical realms of Earth, is programmed from the realms beyond. The man once insulted his wife, saying: "I regret that I married you; you need to go to a girl who has a child without husband and learn how to take care of yourself and kids".

The intense emotional pain she had, arising from this insult, reached the "high heavens". Her originating invisible realm of physical manifestation took it up against him in a court of the realms beyond. In conjunction with other things made known to me, which I wouldn't go into here, the problem that came to him was set forth. Children of men, this is how things go in the journey of life. Today, by the grace of God, our man has learnt to be a better husband, and the Lord has truly blessed him.

In another occasion, there is a man here in Warri, Nigeria, who had some misunderstanding with his wife in the morning, before he left for work. We must beware of little things, little issues and misunderstanding, before we are put where we least expected. Some earthmen are in the habit of shouting and quarrelling with their wives when asked for money. This was what the man did that morning.

When a thing like this is done, can you tell where and what it leads to? In the course of their quarrelling, the man insulted his wife, saying: "Get out of my sight, you smelling rat". This pained the woman so much; it was a pain that ignited several things. The man has been in the habit of always insulting his wife. In such instance, big cases may have piled up against him in courts of invisible realms. And unknown to him, that day was a day to execute judgment.

After quarrelling and insulting his wife, he left his house in anger. This is equally highly disadvantageous. One should endeavour to leave his home in peace at all times, not in the mode of intense exasperation. Matters of this nature are easily handled by the astral realms of the forces of darkness. Before the man returned, his wife died; neighbours bore witness that the woman committed suicide and left a note, which implicated her husband. The man is currently serving life imprisonment.

In another occasion, there is a man also here in Warri; he is a blood relative to the Harbinger of the Last Covenant. He was used to slapping his wife in anger in a little provocation. The woman reported this to me. I spoke to him, but it didn't stop as he secretly continued. He was used to begging his wife thereafter not to inform me.

One day he gave his wife a slap and after three days he became sick. He was sick for twenty one days. The Lord told me to warn him to stop that act, otherwise he is on his own for whatever that befalls him. At another time he gave his wife a slap again and after twelve hours he became sick. His illness was a serious one; it lasted for seven days. He confessed his faults and pleaded his wife to forgive him. She did and I prayed for him.

One night, five great Beings from another world physically appeared to me in my abode. They were envoys from the elders of that world. And that world itself was the realm from whence the wife of the man came by birth into the world of man. The visitors physically manifested on her behalf. Finally, the leader of the etheric envoys spoke to me and said:

"Oh blessed one, Harbinger of the Last Covenant, we are here in place of (he mentioned the man's wife's name); the elders of our domain sent us to you. The woman married to your own by flesh and blood is from our dimension of existence. The issues concerning her and her husband have been in our different decision centres. Greater aspects of her husband's wealth is scattered on this account.

"By the execution of judgment, fowls have eaten deep into their home. With deep respect we come to you;

we know you, even if you know us not. We know that the Name and Seal of the Living God is upon you in this Planet.

"Therefore, we have come to formally inform you that our daughter has now grown before us. And by the signs and signet of our elders, as approved by the Almighty God, a crown is now placed on her. By this, anyone who beats her, including her husband, will immediately pass through the chambers of death. We respect you and have come to inform you, so that you won't be taken unawares if it occurs upon her husband, your own in blood".

Be Mindful In Little Things

After my few words of appreciation to their coming, the visitors disappeared from my abode. Thereafter, in less than an hour, the Lord appeared to me. He told me that the visitors were from a certain realm of Light within our Solar System. Their realm of existence is far ahead of the earthmen, but equally not well advanced like more advanced Planetary denizens of Light, in both our Solar and Galactic Systems. The Lord then admonished me to take the purpose of their visit seriously, to avoid untimely death.

Consequently, the following day, I sent for the man and his wife. They came. They were bamboozled by my knees on the ground, while informing them of all that transpired. I warned the man never in his life to lay hands on his wife again. I pleaded with them to go and live in peace as never before. Finally, I prayed for them. The man and his wife were deeply touched by my disposition and obeisance to the Lord while speaking to them; he vowed never to beat his wife again.

About two months after, something happened and the man slapped his wife again around 11 pm. In less than 15 minutes after doing this, he suddenly fainted. As his wife and some neighbours were rushing him to a nearby hospital, his wife called to inform me. Consequently, the emergency divine code, given to me by the Lord, was activated for emergency divine inquiry. And the Lord appeared to me, saying:

"They have come to take him away. Because of you, I will intervene. He will see and learn in a hard way. Let them bring him to your dwelling place now. If he is taken to any earthly hospital, he will go and not return".

I quickly called them and they brought him to my house. From his place to my house is a distance of about 25 minutes drive, if there is no traffic jam. He was unconscious when they carried him into my abode. And he remained in that state for three days and nights. When he finally regained consciousness, he told everyone all that he saw in the realms beyond.

In the realms beyond, he saw the judgment of a court with a verdict that he should be taken from the Earth-world. This is death in earthly terms. His main offence was beating his wife. He observed that so-called small beating on Earth was magnified in the realms beyond as a colossal catastrophe. He witnessed when the Lord Himself appeared in that realm, took over court proceedings, saying that His appearance was for the sake of Harbinger of the Last Covenant.

The Lord then commanded him to go back to the Earth-world. It was at this point that he regained consciousness. An adage has it that 'you don't tell a deaf person that war has come'. It is also said: 'Don't tell a child that fire will burn him, the fire itself will tell the child'. From that moment unto this day, the man completely changed; and now his wife testifies that he is the best husband any woman could wish for.

WE ARE ALL INVOLVED

Dear reader, whether or not we know it, we are all involved in the intricate web of the foregoing invisible court decisions. Haven't you read where the Great Lord Jesus the Christ Himself said: "The prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in Me?" (John 14:30; KJV). The 'prince of this world' in this connection refers to the Prince of Darkness, head of the cosmic hierarchy of the dark world.

What did the Prince of Darkness come to do around The Son of Man? He certainly came to do what he is used to doing in diverse places, namely, fault finding. And when a fault is found, in the configuration of sins and iniquities, by the forces of darkness, it gives them the 'right' to drag a person to the astral courts of the dark world. But in The Son of Man – the Great Lord Jesus the Christ—the Prince of Darkness found nothing of his kind to hold. All glory and honour be unto the Christ of all ages, Lord and Master of the Heavens and Earth, King of Kings and Lord of Lords, now and forever, Amen.

Now, in the journey of life, to the extent that a thing is found against you, to that extent you may be dragged to hidden systems of existence, which may be currently unknown to you. Here, everyone on Earth is involved – boy, girl, old, young – we are all involved. To this end, you must understand that if you do good to others with a pure heart, you do so solely unto yourself; likewise if you do evil to anyone in the world of man, you do so solely unto yourself, whether you are old or young.

There was even a case of a boy of 13 years whose parents brought to stay in my house. The boy came to the Earth with the spirit of theft, which he inherited from his father via the mental stances of his forefathers. The originating realm of his descent into the world of man is a dimension which shares in the simultaneous threshold of Light and darkness. There are such realms in the Universes of God.

Thus, the boy was stealing from the box of the 'Mercy Store House' in the abode of Harbinger of the Last Covenant, reserved for the widows, orphans and destitute. He was also stealing from people around in different ways. In one of the mysterious appearances of the Lord, He directed me on what to do about the boy. But He specifically told me never to call the boy a thief or accept that he is a thief before people, during the period that He (the Lord) permitted for him to reside with me.

I kept to what the Eternal Lord said to me. The boy stole over a million Naira and his father even shared from same. I always defended him whenever he was caught stealing from others, in keeping with the divine instruction given to me. One early morning the Lord came forth and said certain things to me concerning the boy.

Amongst other things, the Lord said: "Now the cup is full and judgement is passed; send him back to the source that beget him". I pleaded for the Lord's mercy upon the boy, and He said: "At the time appointed, My mercy will manifest, even by the overthrow of the judgement passed, but for now let him stay away from your abode".

However, all that the Lord directed were carried out. But when I think about things like this, I say to myself 'look at a young boy also involved in the verdict of a court physically unknown'. Doesn't this call for carefulness on the part of everyone, old or young? If you are being followed by a swarm of flies, you don't need to ask from whom the funny smell is coming.

In the ancient world, there was an incident recorded in one of the Vedic Sanskrit 'sastras'. It was about an 'innocent' old wise man, who was trying to speak the words of wisdom into a wanted criminal. He wanted the criminal to change his evil ways and turn a new leaf. In the course of doing this, the criminal and the old wise man were arrested and sentenced to death.

While the criminal was finally hanged, the manner for the death of the wise old man took a different turn, as ordered by the King. Strong rod was to pass through his anus and come out of his mouth. He prayed to the Almighty God to show him why he should die in that painful manner. Later he had a revelation that cleared the air.

When the wise old man was a young boy, he was in the habit of catching grasshoppers, thrusting a broomstick from the anus of each of them through the mouth. The 'spirit' of each of these creatures made report against him in the realms beyond. At a stage, judgement was passed that, though he is a good man, but he will die in like manner when his time comes to be transferred from the Earth-world. At last he died in the manner that was stipulated. That he did this while he was a boy wasn't ever considered in the invisible court wherein his judgment was made.

For Christ Himself to declare that the Prince of Darkness comes, but has nothing in Him, shows that the subject matter of the foregoing exposition is a serious issue. Few years ago here in Nigeria, a leading member of a vicious secret cult boasted that he will send evil spirits to kill a certain pastor. Few weeks later, thunder struck down the pastor and he died. The manner of his death was well reported in the media.

I was later consulted by some of his church members to know why such a thing happened. However, it is important to know that such a thing can't happen to everyone. It can never occur to someone that is properly situated in the Eternal Light of Christ. Never! There must be a psychic opening for that to occur. It is written: "Whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him" (Ecc. 10:8; KJV). That is it. That is how it goes.

When you hear a thing like this — "Whoso breaketh an hedge" — you will understand that no one's name or title is mentioned. It could be anyone — Pastor, Prophet, President, Prime Minister, Archbishop, Pope, Deaconess, Imam, Guru, Apostle, name it — but it must be someone who breaks the hedge. As the hedge is broken, the 'serpent' will certainly strike in any form, including but not limited to untimely death.

Don't ever be afraid of the 'serpent', but never you break the hedge. If you don't break the hedge and you are perfectly situated in the secret place of the Most High — "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty" (Psalm 91:1; KJV) — you are far placed above the Devil.

Thus, anytime your name is mentioned in any den, realm or enclave of darkness, I tell you, the Spirit of the Lord in Light will answer for you. The Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ will rise and speak for you. And the human agent of darkness used in this connection, will surely find himself where he least expected. This is where the divine rudiments of 'back to sender' comes in.

In the course of my divine inquiry, to ascertain the basis for which a Christian church pastor was struck to death by thunder sent by an agent of darkness, the Lord Himself spoke certain things. In the first place, the Lord didn't recognise the man as His servant. He told me that the man was equally a bona-fide member of a different secret cult, from whence he obtained elementary occult powers to operate as a church pastor. This was never confessed and renounced by him.

We Are All Involved

Now, the pastor had some misunderstanding with the other fellow, who was far ahead of him in the vicious network of the forces of darkness. Their issue passed through judgment in the chambers of the astral entities of the dark world. There, the other man secured greater advantage and power to eliminate the pastor via thunder. This was also set up in disguise, to deride those who saw him as a church leader. That same moment, the Lord spoke to me, saying:

"Harbinger of the Last Covenant, you have heard from Me that any sinful act or iniquity not confessed, remains upon the offender. And any sin or iniquity forgiven and covered by Me, no court in all the realms of existence, in Light or in darkness, can take it up".

In the Holy Bible, the Lord told His empowered Disciples: "Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained" (John 20:23; KJV). This stands unto this day. Whoever sincerely confesses his sins to your hearing and you offer a prayer for forgiveness to the Lord, the record of that sin will be wiped off in any invisible court in all the Universes of God.

When someone sincerely confesses his sins to your hearing and you fail to pray for his forgiveness, because of the enormity of his sins, it will be retained. But the Lord told me once that such "will be retained upon the head of the person who heard the confession and not the one that confessed". Therefore, whenever one confesses to your hearing, your duty is to pray for his forgiveness and not to judge him on account of it. This is also to save your head.

Furthermore, to the so-called 'pastors' who seek the powers of darkness, in the guise of serving the Lord, be warned: this is a dangerous hour in the Earth-world. This is the time of winnowing and the separation of the sheep from the goat. Darkness will use you and finally destroy you, but Christ never fails. And to all I say: do not know anyone solely from the human bodily standard or structure; do not know people from the titles they have. You may see someone as a 'high chief', but in reality he is a 'high thief'. You may see someone as a 'pastor', but he may be a 'demon' in disguise.

Remember, we are admonished in the Scriptures not to know people only from the camouflage of the body structure of flesh and blood. The earthman is far more than the physical body generally known. Saint Paul wrote: "Henceforth know we no man after the flesh" (2 Corint. 5:16; KJV). A human being is beyond the body that we know.

What about Christ Himself? He was a human being, born on a day known to people, but the Spirit that took that body form is the Creator, Lord and Master of all the realms of existence. Now, as you are reading this letter, do you truly know whom you are beyond your body structure? Do you know all that is done by the Spirit that you are?

Our divine duty includes to live in love and peace. Divine Love is the Light of God in motion. You have to show love beginning from your home to your neighbourhood, to your community to your religious enclave, to the region where you belong, to your nation and to the world at large. Then you will be salvaged, but if you add wickedness to wickedness, whatever you see you will manage it.

THE ESCAPE PATH

Dear reader, if you take time to understand the deep teachings of the Eternal and Great Lord Jesus the Christ, you will appreciate this material. You may even comprehend the deeper realities of this my open letter better than I am trying to communicate. Above all, in terms of personal experience, you will recognise the need to always live in love, mercy, peace and total forgiveness.

The foregoing is not a matter of merely calling ourselves 'Born Again Christians' without practical demonstration of the teachings of the Lord. That can't take us to any higher ground in the journey of life. We must understand that the earthman, in his mundane aspects – the prison yard of materialism – is nothing but a dwarf. Thus, he can't see far as a giant does.

When the earthman – the dwarf – truly desires to see far, then he must endeavour to stand upon the shoulders of a giant. And in this terms, Christ is the true giant of all giants. Whoever takes a stand upon the Christ of all ages, will surely be victorious in all the battles of life, here and hereafter. Christ will speak for him in each and every matter brought forth against him in the realms beyond.

Again, it is said that man is an angel, but only with one wing. Thus, he cannot fly. You can't fly with one wing, you need two wings to fly. Now, when a man with one wing embraces another man with one wing, both of them will then jointly have two wings; then they can fly. And what is this 'embrace'? It is true love, mercy, peace and forgiveness at all times. Christ taught and practically demonstrated all these divine qualities in the world of man for us to emulate.

Christ did not come to give us material food, money, husband or wife. He came to show us the way to God; He is the way to God. And that way, the escape path, is embedded in the practical application of love, peace, mercy, total forgiveness, amongst others, at all times. Without these, how can you escape from the courts of the invisible world.

Many judgements are passed and cases pending in different courts, different invisible realms of existence, against several people in the world of man. In certain divine terms, many people on Earth are 'wanted people' in the realms beyond. Certain things that happen to us are the physical manifestations of decisions made in diverse invisible courts.

That is why we must strive to be on the path of goodness at all times, in thoughts, words and actions. Endeavour to keep on doing good, so that good will follow you always. Good gives birth to good; evil and wickedness give birth to evil and wickedness. Evil speaks for evil, and good speaks for good.

FINISHED JUDGMENT ON THIS WORLD

My beloved reader of this treatise, we, the children of men, have come to the final hour of fulfillment; the long foretold era of Planetary winnowing. Of this, there is no doubt. To this end, we will be witnesses to the judgment of the One Eternal Almighty God executed at different stages in the world of man.

Judgment can be executed upon a person, a family, a business venture, a community, a nation, a world, amongst others. Consequently, as I was told by the Lord Himself, what we know as COVID-19 Pandemic is a judgment executed on Earth. The Lord, in one of His divine visitations, said to me:

"Harbinger of the Last Covenant, say: Behold, the children of men look up to the government; even the religions of men, and the government look up to science; and science looks unto itself to solve human problems. Behold, they do not look up to Me; they see Me not as the True Owner of this world.

"Therefore, by My Hand, I will cause religions, even government and science, to fail. And surely, the children of men will look up to Me at last. For this purpose, I have given the world a sign, a warning shot—the COVID-19 Pandemic – which is the first in the four stages of My judgment about to occur. He who has ears to hear let him hear".

On this note, I have said it severally that COVID-19 Pandemic is a mere warning shot to this world. The children of men should be prepared, because greater ubiquitous worldwide colossal upheavals are on the way. These represent the manifestations of judgement already finished within the realms beyond, but have now entered the domain of executions in this era of winnowing.

As these unfold, religion will surely fail man; government will fail man; science will fail man. And it will happen that the earthmen will know that, of a truth, the Earth-world is the bona-fide property of its Owner. And what happened in the days of the great Prophet Moses, between Moses and Pharaoh in the land of ancient Egypt, will be a child's play in our time.

Look at a little warning shot, the COVID-19 Pandemic, how it dictated to the government, controlled the movements of men, forced religion to comply to its modus-operandi and bamboozled science. Now, earthmen, do you think that the world will just go scot-free from its multitudinous and enormous atrocities committed in all the ages? No. There is time for everything, and this is the time of God in our time.

Earthmen, you fight wars and render women and children homeless. You murdered the Great Lord Jesus the Christ in the world of man. You spend huge sums of money to manufacture arms and travel to the space, while the poor continues to wallow in pain in your midst. You deride the Lord of Creation – Owner of the Earth – and His bona-fide messengers even in our time. You do all these and much more. Now is the moment of judgement, the execution thereof, for these and other abominations. Therefore, man should be prepared. The ongoing judgement of the world, with the warning shot already mentioned, was also revealed to Saint John thus:

"And after these things I saw four angles standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads" (Rev. 7:1-3; KJV).

The day that the Lord appeared and explained this Scripture to me, I was highly perplexed. No theological seminary will explain it in the terms wherein the Lord Himself spoke. I won't even go into details here, because doing so will take volumes of materials. Therefore, let it be a matter for another day.

However, for now suffice it to be said that the four Angelic Beings mentioned here, are in-charge of the four stages of what were meant to physically occur. And to the four Angels, it was said "to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea". By what process was this given? Judgement. When it is said "to hurt the earth", you know that some earthmen are involved. What about the sea? Who will be hurt therein? The fish?

The 'Seal of the Living God' is mentioned and the number of those who will receive same is equally mentioned in verse 4 of that chapter, namely, 144,000 people. These were the original souls redeemed, not just now, but from the "foundation of the world" (Rev. 17:8). I recall that the Lord told me thus in one occasion: "Harbinger of the Last Covenant, know and understand that all those who will be salvaged in this generation, are those already salvaged right from inception". This is a part of the hidden mysteries of God.

These redeemed souls, in the course of soul transmigration or regeneration, as also taught by the Lord, have become millions of people currently on the physical realms of Earth. (See John 12:24; 1 Corint. 15:36-44). In this terms then, the millions of salvaged souls in our time are divine archetype of the original number already mentioned — 144,000 — whilst the 144,000 souls themselves will equally have a valid symbolic representation in the world of man. Remember that the biblical book of Revelation itself, was given in 96 AD specifically for what will later occur in the world of man. (See Rev. 1:1).

Now, the first of the four Angels mentioned has started work. His work is a mere warning shot. COVID-19 Pandemic is part of this. The second Angel will equally act in due course, greater than the action of the first. The third Angel will execute judgment beyond that of the second. And the fourth Angel will act, superseding the third.

Earthmen, I tell you: when all these are fully enacted here on Earth, the words of the Lord will be fulfilled, which says: "As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to Me, and every tongue shall confess to God" (Rom. 14:11; KJV). We have now entered into the era; and what you have heard is where we, the children of men, are heading to. Therefore, the judgement in this terms is concluded, finished and sealed.

The Finger of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords is supremely situated now on Earth than ever. He has finalised His judgement. What is going on now is the execution of His judgement, as far as this Planet is concerned. What He has set forth to occur cannot be taken away. The things that Christ said concerning 'the great tribulation' in the Holy Bible, as He appeared and explained to me, are mere clues of what will happen. Details of what will befall man will be experienced by man. But I tell you: as one side will fall, another side will rise.

Earthman, this is the time of God and this is the time for God. We must all look up to God and be solely committed to Him and Him alone. This is not the time for organised religions. This is not about any religion. Which religion will salvage us? This is about you and your Creator. If you are found wanting in His Holy Presence now, you won't like what is going to happen to you soon.

Therefore, when I bring forth the issue of invisible courts here,

I do so solely for your guidance in the journey of life. How do you live your earth-life? Why should you live your life in wickedness. I am not saying this to hurt anyone or make you feel bad, but what needs to be known should be known.

Right now, as I speak: the gospel we preach in this world is on one hand, valid before the Throne; on the other hand it is a formality before the Throne. It is valid, to the extent that it is used by the Holy Spirit to touch and transform those that should be touched. It is a formality, to the extent that it stands as a witness to the recalcitrant earthmen. And to the later, the Harbinger of the Last Covenant received a word from the Throne thus:

"The hot pot of water is boiling before Me against all the destroyers of men. It is about to overflow; it is about to explode. And when it does, something will happen. The world should wait for the impending catastrophe. Behold, I will surely destroy all the destroyers of men in this generation. Look at the terrorists, the kidnappers, the killers of me; look at the wickedness of the wicked and the increase of abominations.

Why should My chosen ones bother themselves in preaching to them? But let My chosen ones preach to them and to all as a witness and evidence unto them. Whoever wants to continue with that which is abominable before me should be left alone.

Let the abominable one continue in his abominations; and, behold, he will surely meet his waterloo".

The Lord made this declaration with regards to what is about to occur in the world of man. Even when the Seventh Angel sounded his Trumpet, it was said, amongst other things, that the Lord, the True Owner of this world, will ultimately "destroy them which destroy the earth" (Rev. 11:18; KJV). And elsewhere for the chosen ones, and for the wicked minded ones, it was said: "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still. And, behold, I come quickly; and My reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work shall be"

(Rev. 22:11,12; KJV). This is the era; earthmen, this is the hour of fulfillment.

As we hear these things, where should we stand? Let the faithful ones take a firm stand upon the immutable foundation laid out by the Great Lord Jesus the Christ. That is the sure way.

Let us stand and continue to pray for God's mercy to transform the wicked minded humans in this world. The terrorists of this world, the kidnappers, those using corruption to subjugate and victimize people, greedy minded ones, the blood-money elements and all the agents of the forces of darkness, have you ever considered what lies ahead of you? Do you know that the execution of judgement is in operation as I speak?

This judgement is even quickened now and embedded on the path of acceleration. Therefore, be warned. The great Prophet Daniel in his time, by the Spirit of the Lord, looked into time and saw the future of man. He saw our time, the era and hour of fulfillment. This is clear to those who understand the chronology of the Holy Scriptures. Amongst other things, Daniel wrote:

"I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; Until the Ancient of Days came, and judgement was given to the saints of the Most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom But the judgement shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end" (Dan. 7:21,22,26; KJV).

To understand the details of what Daniel saw and wrote, I suggest that you read my book entitled 'Verses of Eternal Truth'. However, one thing is certain: the 'Supreme Court of the Holy Spirit', presided over by The Ancient of Days — the Almighty Father Himself — has already passed judgment concerning the Earth-world. Execution of His judgement is ongoing.

By His divine judgment, He has turned the table; He has taken away power from the Beast; He has made the White to be Black, and the Black to be White; He has laid the Foundation and opened the Gate of Mercy for all the chosen ones all over the world. The earthmen should just watch and see what will be playing up in our midst.

CONCLUSION: TIME TO ACT IS NOW

I want to use this opportunity to warn people, anywhere you are, whether you believe in the mission of the Harbinger of the Last Covenant or not, endeavour at all times never to practice wickedness. Do not continue to get yourself entangled in the intricate web of diverse invisible court decisions against yourself. Rather, endeavor to maintain peace and live in love, mercy and forgiveness with all humans, irrespective of nationality, religion, tribe, gender or race

Also, be very careful of what you speak, as well as what you hear. Let the words that come out of your mouth give peace and life to another person. We are living in a dangerous hour. As spoken to me by the Lord, the pot of water is boiling and has boiled to the brim and about to explode. When it explodes, the existence of man in this world will be uttered from what you already know.

So therefore, the era of wickedness is over; don't continue on that path. This is not the hour to continue to oppress anybody. This is the hour to fully take a firm stand upon the path of Light. The time to act is now. Even in your home, anywhere you find yourself, live in peace and love. That is the platform via which the Spirit of the Lord will set you free. Sevenfold blessed is the one who will come to this recognition in practical terms.

Conclusion: Time To Act Is Now

This is the time of God in our time. This is the hour to seek the Lord and work for Him with all your energy, time and material things. When you spend your time and energy praying for the good of others, including your known and unknown enemies, you are the first beneficiary. If you fast along this line, you will surely be lifted. When you give out your material things in the service of the Lord with a pure heart, you are the first beneficiary. These can wipe away judgements and cases pending against you in the realms beyond.

Now, remember the Scripture which says this about the Lord: "Therefore hath He mercy on whom He will have mercy, and on whom He will He hardeneth" (Rom. 9:18; KJV). Be a vessel of honour, not dishonour. Always live in mercy, wherein lies true love and forgiveness, and you will surely obtain the mercy of the Almighty Father of all that is.

Dear reader, it is said that you cannot have a durable roof unless the walls are built on a firm foundation. It does not matter how slowly you walk, just as long as you don't stop. You don't need a mirror to see what you have at hand. He who must collect a debt from a fish must first learn to swim. If your love for honey made you kiss the bees, don't blame the bees when they kiss your lips with stings.

Finally, I started this open letter to the earthmen in the morning (10.15 am) of Thursday the 15th of September, 2022, and finished it in the morning (2 am) of Thursday the 29th of September, 2022. That same day, in the afternoon, my secretary bought a printed copy of the manuscript to me for proofreading. In the early hours (3 am) of Friday the 30th of September, 2022, while I was reading this material, the Great Lord physically appeared to me.

I observed in this appearance of the Lord that He was happy with this treatise. He said certain things concerning my nation. He spoke concerning a family in another nation; a family that is very dear to my heart. He spoke concerning our world, amongst other things, which are not contained here. Then He took the typed manuscript from me, lifted it up with His Right Hand and said:

"This day I bless this epistle in the midst of men; I bless this amongst Spirits and Angels. All those chosen, called and faithful unto Me should know this: I started with you in Peace and your end in Me is Peace.

Conclusion: Time To Act Is Now

"My Peace will never leave you. My work, which you should do always, is the work of Peace; and My Peace will speak for you at all times in all the realms.

"I pronounce My spiritual and material blessings upon whoever that will join hands with the Harbinger of the Last Covenant to spread this epistle on Earth".

Earthmen, thus ends my treatise – my open letter to you – on 'Christ Speaks'. A word is enough for the wise. Let the Peace and Blessings of the Lord abide with you all. Amen. Amen. Amen.

I am one of your own in the world of man.

his publication has brought many people to the path of Christ in different parts of the world. It is the testimony of lyke Nathan Uzorma, who rose from the peak of darkness to the Light of God. Before his direct encounter with Christ, which led to his conversion, he was the 'Living Grandmaster of the occult Order of Terrestrial and Astral Hierarchy', Prof. Stephen Pinder Eieh, Dean of the Faculty of Engineering of Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, Nigeria, described this book as: "The foremost conversion testimony, renowned as the jewel of exposition of hidden powers. A book of all times on the highest game of occult deceit. It has opened the eyes of many in different parts of the world". This book shows the eternal potency of the Spirit of Christ.

SECRETS FROM HEAVEN

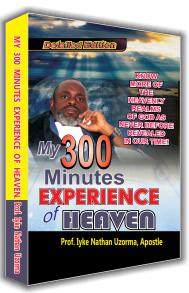

By Iyke Nathan Uzorma

his book is a record of direct spiritual experience of the Harbinger of the Last Covenant with the Great Lord Jesus the Christ. The Lord visited him physically and commanded him to write down His words. The Lord then spoke to him on issues relating to the rise of man in His spiritual strength. The control of three specific centres of the body, for the excellence of the Divine Light of God in one's life, amongst other things, are well elaborated here.

MY 300 MINUTES EXPERIENCE OF HEAVEN

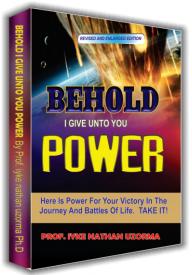

n another occasion, the Harbinger of the Last Covenant had an intense spiritual experience wherein he was taken into the Heavenly realms of Light. There he had revelations that lasted for 300 minutes in the human terms. What are the departed saints learning now in the Heavenly realms? What are the 'Seven Duty Posts of Silence' in Heaven? How does 'The Book of Remembrance' in Heaven affect humans on Earth? What is the true meaning of 'Abraham's bosom' outside the interpretation generally given? What are the primordial elements of Universal creativity? Answers to these questions, and much more are provided in this book.

BEHOLD I GIVE UNTO YOU POWER

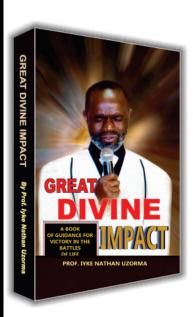

By lyke Nathan Uzorma

his book is a classification of powers operating within the physical, metaphysical and spiritual systems of reality. It shows the limitations of psychic, occult and esoteric powers in approximations to the limitless Power which Christ referred to when He said: "Behold, I Give unto you Power to thread on serpents and scorpions". It is written in the light of invisible warfare, to show the Power above powers, with practical evidence and testimonies of victory.

MIND RUDIMENTS Vol. 1

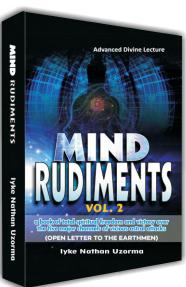

By Iyke Nathan Uzorma

he mind has four fundamental faculties via which the impressions of the divine Spirit, embedded with the Soul identity, pass through diverse layers of being into the physical aspects of man. When a fifth abnormal faculty is formed in the mind, it gives birth to five specific channels by which the life of a person can be dominated in the mode of ignorance. And in the mode of ignorance, the dominant mode of the multitude of people, one is enslaved. However, when the four fundamental faculties of the mind work in their normal condition, one rises in the scale of existence. Details of these are published in this book. It is an advanced divine lecture.

MIND RUDIMENTS Vol. 2

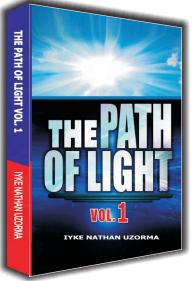

'Know thyself; return to thyself and to the Light of the Almighty God', is the summary of this advanced divine lecture. This material holds that purity is the quality of the mind that makes it possible for the earthman to rise to the life of the Holy Spirit.
