Foreword

My king and husband, His Grace, the Harbinger of the Last Covenant, Archbishop (Prof.) Iyke Nathan Uzorma, has made several unique expositions in this generation. His published works have touched my spiritual life in so many ways and have equally blessed and enlightened so many people in different parts of the world.

This particular book, 'Hidden Truth of Man and Woman', which is designed as his open letter to the people of this world, is also very unique. As a matter of fact, this book is so unique that some expositions in it are made for the first time on Earth.

Whoever reads this book will find out for himself that the Lord of Creation, through His Harbinger of the Last Covenant, has once again added to our divine knowledge of victory over many destructive things that are actually not far from our dwelling places. In doing this, certain things that are hidden for ages are now exposed.

The Harbinger of the Last Covenant did not write this book just from his personal mental auspices. Through revelations and divine visitations of the Lord and some holy Angels, my king was guided to write this open letter to all humans. In the first place, as you peruse the entire contents of this book, you will realise that no human can say these things, if he is not guided by divine authority far beyond human beings.

I recall an occasion when my Harbinger travelled out of town, and as I was missing him I decided to go and sleep in his personal bedroom. As I opened the door, I saw four holy Angels floating around the room. I was terrified; then I quickly closed the door and left. When the Harbinger of the Last Covenant returned, I told him what happened and he responded thus:

“My queen, I have told you that there is nothing to fear in all the Universes of God. If you weren't terrified but stayed in their midst, the holy ones would have spoken to you. They are always here by the command of the Almighty Jehovah God and His Christ. Therefore, when next you encounter them, relax your mind and hear them speak. You will surely learn something new for spiritual enlightenment and guidance”.

I have long realized that my beloved husband is always spiritually guided in all his expositions. His spiritual mood while and when writing a book tells it all. Most times he doesn't sleep at all throughout the night. And occasionally in the day he shares with me some deep spiritual experiences either with the Lord or His Angels.

This book is a product of some of such experiences. He was led into the higher realms of divine Light several times for the purpose of this exposition. Some of the things he wrote here were things that he never knew before. He learnt them in the course of such divine encounters. On one of such experiences and how it was brought about, he wrote:

“In the Spirit, I was led by the Great One from above, a Heavenly Being of Light, into the inosculate subtle spheres of God's Light in our Solar System, via a flight of the holy gods. This region is the boundary between the middle Planetary Systems, (which includes but not limited to the Earth-world) and the higher Planetary Systems, wherein dwells denizens of the Heavenly realms of Light.

“This is a subtle region that exists within the electromagnetic ambers of ethereal intensities, which transcends the human recognition of space and time; making space and time feeble in approximation to higher realities in the Universes of God....

“Now, it came to pass in this region that the Great Lord Jesus the Christ appeared to me. The Great One from above was there. And the Lord shewed me a mystery of the Heavens and Earth in symbolic terms. The Holy Bible (King James Version) was brought by the Great One from above and given to the Lord. The Lord in turn directed me to read a portion, which says....”

The 'Hidden Truth of Man and Woman' courts a new course, a hidden course now exposed, regarding the entire affairs of man and woman on the surface of the Earth. It begins from the Soul to what the Harbinger of the Last Covenant called “in-between life before physical birth” down to the physical Earth itself.

This is a universal book that carries everyone along, irrespective of religious affiliations and belief systems. In this case, the Harbinger made elaborate references to other spiritual and religious holy writings, such as Srimad-Bhagavatam, The Everlasting Gospel, Upanishads, Puranas, Divine Iliad, Bhagavad-Gita, Shariyat, the Islamic Hadiths, etc., to buttress his message for all humans.

His Grace made it clear that some portions of the Holy Bible were given to us in divine codes, which only the Lord Himself or His empowered Angels can decode. For instance, an Angel of God explained to the Lord's Harbinger the hidden truth of the river that flowed from Eden to water the Garden, which went to four parts. How this is related to human beings is clarified in this work.

It is well exposed here that every human being has a probable destiny and absolute destiny. He spoke of some women in the light of the oceans, seas, rivers and streams of favour. He also speaks of some women as carriers of the dry leaves of the desert. So many hidden things that follow man and woman from birth into this world are exposed in this publication.

This exposition also gives proper admonition of what inner peace of heart in a woman does in the home, for the good of all humans. Through this book, you will realise what lack of knowledge has destroyed in the lives of many people. God said: “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge” (Hos. 4:6).

My prayer is for the 'Hidden Truth of Man and Woman' to shine as a light that dispels the darkness of ignorance and salvage people from the elements of destruction. To me, this is a book of golden knowledge, made to save us from ourselves.

Introduction

Dear earthmen, Grace and Peace from the Glorious Throne of the Almighty Lord be multiplied unto you all. Amen.

Earthman, understand from the unset of this treatise that what you don't know is bigger than you. It is said that when a child is crying and pointing to a particular direction, if his father is not there, his mother is there.

The big tree you see today was once a small seed. The nets are made for catching the fish in the river, not the one already in the basket. It is when you sit on a pin that you appreciate the importance of your buttocks.

Blessed is the man who goes hunting for rats but catches elephant. Let no earthman spit out the juicy morsel which good fortune had placed in his mouth.

The mad man says there is still a lot of work to be done, provided nobody gets mad. Blessed is the man who befriends an eagle, for, behold, he will always look up to the sky.

I write this letter to you, Oh earthman, with every sense of divine commitment and humility. This material expounds, amongst other things, the core mysteries of favour cum wealth flowing from woman to man on the physical realms of Earth.

Here, you are also guided on how to practically tap into this favour and possess the blessings inherent therein. Thus, this treatise is solely embedded in the Immutable Universal Laws, the Will of the Almighty God, which can't change.

Don't pass over lightly the subject matter of this treatise. If you haven't taken any spiritual treatise serious in your journey of life, caution yourself and take the contents of this book very serious. Whether you are a Christian, Muslim, Buddhist, Hindu or not, this letter is for you, for as long as you are an earthman resident in the world of man.

Earthman, I write this letter to you, based on what I was granted the grace to directly receive from the Lord Himself and the Great Angelic Beings of Light above. In such terms, I am just nothing but a mere human channel used to express this treatise on the physical realms of Earth, for the overall benefit of the children of men.

Remember, it is said that what an old man sees while sitting, a child can't see it even if he climbs to the top of the tree. However, in the final recognition, this open letter is solely for those who have the ears to hear.

Consequently, this treatise Hidden Truth of Man and Woman explained that all material favour and wealth found on the physical realms of Earth are embedded in, and flows from, the primordial spirit of genuine womanhood. This flows specifically from four different channels at different levels.

Nevertheless, there is a fifth aspect, more in number than the totality of the aforementioned four, through which poverty, lack and want flourish through woman to man. To this end, the spirit of some daughters of men carry wealth in earthly terms, while majority of the spirits of some women don't.

In this treatise, the earthmen are properly guided on how to “separate the sheep from the goat”. This letter is a follow up to my book entitled Verses of Glorious Marriage, which brings certain deep expositions related to the importance of perfect agreement in love.

The Verses of Glorious Marriage also exposes the vicious decree of the astral chambers against humanity thus: “Let there be millions of marriages on Earth, but let there be no perfect agreement in love”. The reader of this material should endeavour to read Verses of Glorious Marriage as well.

Now, I have long realized, through diverse experiences with the Lord and the Great Ones in the Heavenly realms of Light, that some Great Ones above see the entire human race as one people. They don't see us ultimately as Hindus, Buddhists, Christians, Muslims, amongst others.

Nevertheless, they do often relate to us along these lines of thought, because of our specialised and limited knowledge of the true nature of universal reality. Ultimate Universal reality holds the oneness of all things in the Source of all things, God.

Consequently, part of this treatise are based, not on how the children of men recognise reality via diverse belief systems, but on how reality is recognised by the Angelic Beings of Light above the Forces of Light.

Thus, the reader of this material, who is willing to know more and grow up in the journey of life, may note that some portions of this treatise are far beyond what an earthman could communicate, strictly within the ambit of organised religions and belief systems.

The Great Lord Jesus the Christ said that some people are given the ability to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, while some are not given. When His Disciples raised certain questions in this connection, the Scripture says:

“He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but to them it is not given" (Math. 13:11).

The Heavenly realms of existence, even greater portions of the world of man, have mysteries that may be unveiled. Some people are made to know, while some are not made to know, all depends on one's state of being in the scale of existence.

This material holds some of the mysteries of life that should be known at this stage of man's existence. But even then, not all will have the ears to hear. Now, while standing as a leader of the Christian thought in this my open letter to the earthmen, because it is made for all the children of men, I do this with due consideration and respect for diverse belief systems.

May the reader find divine enlightenment for excellence, as you read and assimilate the contents of this treatise. So be it. Amen.

MYSTERY UNVEILED

In the Spirit, I was caught up into a Heavenly chambers of great Light; the realm of Light wherein the divine knowledge of the 'sheep' is separated from the mundane knowledge of the goat.

This is the chambers of Divine Light, wherein the potency of the blessed 'sheep' is enlarged by the Power of the Almighty God. And, lo, the eternal Light, before and behind the 'sheep', in the Supreme Consciousness of the Everlasting Lord of the Universe the King of Kings and Lord of Lords solely predominates in all the spheres.

I stood upon the centre-current of the Light of Heaven and a Great One from above spoke to me. This is a leading Extraterrestrial Intelligence of the Forces of Light, beyond the rank of Archangel in the higher realms of God.

In that radiation vicinity of the Almighty, behold, mystery was unveiled, even the mystery of mysteries. I learnt the deep mysteries of Adam and Eve; of how and where Cain, Son of Adam, got the wife that he married in the world of man; even of the origin of his wife, her parents thereof (Gen. 4:16,17).

Behold, the mystery of the 'Tower of Babel' and of languages were unveiled. The mystery in which the earthman was told by the Great One (Angel) that spoke to the great Prophet Moses, in allegorical terms, that the primitive children of men were in those days engaged in the construction of an earthly building "whose top may reach unto heaven" (Gen. 11:4).

I learnt that several aspects of the ancient Jewish and Christian Holy Scriptures are structured within the ambit of divine codes. These eternal codes can only be decoded in divine terms, having been given within the framework of divine terms.

Such eternal codes will never be decoded by mere studying the Holy Scriptures and mental speculations on them. They can only be decoded by the Lord Himself and the Great Ones of Heavenly Light; that is, decoding the Holy Scriptures arising from the Source that begat the Holy Scriptures. And it came to pass that the Great One from above spoke to me and said:

“Harbinger of the Last Covenant, know and understand the deepest mysteries of man and woman in your world. The mystery of man and woman, the completeness of man and the completeness of both, holds the beginning and the end of blessings and favour, yea, even the summary of the battles of life in your world.

“Behold, man is in woman and woman is in man. You have heard that Eve came from one of the ribs of Adam. As a rib from Adam became Eve, so the fabrics of the Spirit of man resides in woman. In this Spirit of man in woman, Oh son of man, which is a portion of the Spirit of the Lord of the Universe in manifestation, resides the Throne of God in woman.

“And of this Throne, behold, this is the primordial 'Eden' in symbolic terms, which is the original man also manifested as woman.

“Harbinger of the Last Covenant, it is from Eden, the Throne of God in woman, that the river flows to water the Garden. Again, whereas woman came from man, man thus retained in himself fabrics of the Spirit of woman; for from him she was projected to manifest within the elements of Matter, Energy, Space and Time.

“The Eden in woman is located on the subtle aspects of her forehead. And, of a truth, the river flows from Eden to water the Garden. Blessed is the woman whose river flows, for she will bring forth the favour, the blessings and wealth of the Earth-world unto man, which exists in four parts. And the women of this kind are in lesser number in all the generations of men.

“Harbinger of the Last Covenant, you have heard that the river flows from Eden to water the Garden. Behold, the Garden, even in the terms of divine codes, has a living symbol as the private part of every daughter of man.

“Behold, the private part of woman is the Garden. Harbinger of the Last Covenant, know and understand that the Garden, is the passageway of the bloodless ones, Souls, into the world of flesh and blood.

“This Garden woman's private part beyond what is generally known and seen in human biological terms, has a subtle aspect. In this subtle aspect lies invisible pathways, linking the Garden to diverse higher and lower realms of Universal existence, from whence Souls are attracted to be born into the physical realms of Earth.

“The earthman embedded in divine knowledge, Oh son of man, should understand this. Let him not foolishly toy with, or play around, in the Garden; for the sake of the fifth part in which the river doesn't flow.

“For, if the water in the Garden flows not, woe be unto the man found in the midst thereof; behold, he will surely inherit the wind.

“There are daughters of men in which the river flows from Eden to water the Garden; and there are daughters of men in the pool of static water that flows not.

“The former are carriers of the favour of womanhood, while the later, which are more amongst men, are dry leaves of the desert. These degrade the earthmen with poverty and with all the repugnant and vicious vicissitudes of life.

“Blessed is the man who goes into a woman, in whom the river flows from Eden to water the Garden. Surely, he will have the evidence of favour as his portion in the world of man, if he holds in her heart the keys of great love and care and peace”.

(At this point, some portions of the Holy Scripture were brought forth to me, by the Great One from above, as follows):

“And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

“The name of the first is Pison: that it is which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold;

“And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone.

“And the name of the second river is Gihon: The same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia.

“And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates” (Gen. 2:10-14).

Earthman, the details of these Bible verses in the book of Genesis, as well explained by divine authorities of the Heavenly realms of Light, will be made known later in the course of this treatise.

THE HEART OF DIVINE UNDERSTANDING

Earthman, in the Spirit, while I talked with the Great One from above, I gained divine understanding and recognition, related to the subject matter of this treatise; namely, the hidden truth of man and woman.

The Lord of the Universe and the Heavenly Beings of Light above will always speak in the terms of Heaven, but the earthman will understand them in the terms of the children of men.

The earthman will only understand the Heavenly terms when he gains the true heart of divine understanding. Thus, the Words from Heaven, when given to the Earth-world, will always end with 'those who have ears to hear, let them hear'.

The Spirit of genuine womanhood was revealed to me, as I stood in the realms beyond with the Great One. This is the Spirit of favour of the Almighty. Clarifications and classifications were made on the Scriptures quoted above and on the entire subject matter of this treatise, which I will later explain.

Nevertheless, before then, let it be emphasized that when it is said that “behind every successful man there is a woman”, it is an absolute immutable fact, even far beyond the human terms of it.

Remember the Words of the Lord, spoken through the wise King Solomon thus: “Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD” (Pro. 18:22). This is an absolute divine fact.

However, this doesn't mean, in the higher divine terms, that the moment you have a wife you have gotten a good thing and the favour of the Almighty. No. You must first have a good wife in order to have a good thing, as prime channel of the favour of the Lord.

What is a good wife in this connection? In divine terms, a good wife is the one that is a carrier of favour and blessings.

This occurs at diverse levels. Through her, whether or not you know it, the Spirit of the Lord will bring these blessings and wealth into manifestation, as the favour from the One Eternal Almighty God.

Again, let it be known that the core divine purport here is not about finding any wife, but about finding a good wife, a woman who is the carrier of blessings. You cannot obtain favour with a woman who is not a carrier of favour.

Not all women are carriers of favour. Some are carriers of favour and wealth at different degrees, while some are, amongst other things, dry leaves of the desert. Can an earthman ever obtain the favour of the Lord, evident in blessings of fulfilled earth-life, while he lives with a dry leaf? I tell you the truth, this can't be.

Now, following what I was taught in the realms beyond the world of man on the foregoing subject matter, I sincerely and specifically reached certain conclusions in this regard, which are herein explained.

Consequently, I am sincerely of the opinion that you either marry and uphold certain standards (which will be explained in this open letter), or you remain single and completely forget about any form of sexual relationship with women.

However, if you choose the later, then you must be prepared to live like John the Baptist, without a dime in the world of man. Even the old Prophet Elijah is not left out here. In his time, he possessed the greatest Power of Heaven available for the sons of men.

Now, even with this Mighty Power upon him, Elijah was unable to feed himself at a certain stage of his earth-life. He had to approach a woman who loved him and fed him. Though generally unknown, but through her, favour came to activate the Divine Power of material blessings upon him, by which miracle was performed via Elijah; and they never lacked food again. (See 1 Kings 17: 13-15).

When a woman that is a carrier of favour, wealth and blessings loves a man, these will flow from her to the man, riding upon the emotions of the thoughts of love, whether or not they partake in sexual activity.

Nevertheless, when sex is involved, under certain specific divine principles, the flow becomes profuse. And under certain specific divine principles, in the light of conjugal participation, the wealth flowing through her will be emptied into the man.

Also, it is possible that the wealth flowing through a woman is hindered from manifesting in her man. This can only be brought about, however, via the actions of the man, amongst other things. This will also be explained.

Now, earthman, if you come into the world of man and no daughter of man, the carrier of blessings and favour, sincerely loves you and wishes you well, even if you fast and pray to God all the days of your life, you will surely be in lack of the material things of this world. Remember that the Great Lord Jesus the Christ didn't marry a wife.

That is the Lord of Hosts Himself in the world of man. Was any dime found in His pocket when the tax collectors came to Him to pay His tax in those days? (See Math. 17:24-27).

There were oceans and seas of wealth that came with the Great Lord Jesus the Christ in those days. These were domiciled in the in-between life, to be later released in subsequent generations, (subjects that will be later clarified in this treatise), specifically because of His ordained mission of suffering and death, to save the world.

Mary Magdalene loved the Lord Jesus so much. Through her great love, some material benevolence occurred in the earth-life of the Lord. Don't forget that the greatest ointment used by the Lord in the world of man, was the expensive “pound of ointment of spikenard” which she brought to 'The Son of Man'. (See Jn. 12:3-8).

The Disciples raised objections to this. But the Lord chastised them and pacified her. In doing this, the Lord practically demonstrated the need to speak to women in the manner that will give them inner peace. But in this case, He spoke in His human terms, not in His divine terms. Thus, the Great Lord Jesus the Christ said:

“Let her alone: against the day of My burying hath she kept this. For the poor always ye have with you; but Me ye have not always” (Jn. 12:7,8).

“But Me ye have not always”, was spoken by the Lord in His human terms, not in His divine terms, which He used solely to pacify the heart of the woman that loved Him so much. However, the Lord in this connection, did speak in His divine terms, in another occasion thus: “And, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world” (Math. 28:20). This holds the divine truth, in divine terms, that His faithful ones have Him always.

Furthermore, the wise men in the divine spheres know that even the great gifts brought to the earthly parents of the Lord by the wise men from the east, which sustained the Lord and His parents during their sojourn in Egypt, was a divine favour, which flowed into manifestation from the Spirit of genuine womanhood in Mary, the Holy Mother of the Lord.

You must know, on one hand, that all the material blessings, favour and wealth of the earth-life are embedded in and represented by the Spirit of genuine womanhood. On the other hand, all the divine qualities of love and peace are embedded in, and represented by, the Spirit of the earthman.

These create the balance required for divine reciprocity of consummate human existence. This is part of the hidden truth of man and woman.

Therefore, as a man not loved by a woman (carrier of wealth) won't excel in material favour of the Lord, so a woman not loved by any man won't reach certain recesses of inner peace and joy. Thus, wealth and favour flow through woman into the world of man, while peace and joy flow through man into the world of man.

The Source of these wealth, blessings, favour, peace, joy, love is the Glorious Throne of the Source of all that is God. Therefore, a man that fails to give his woman peace and joy in love, has failed in the journey of life. And when a woman is a dry leaf, her man inherits the wind, for she has nothing to offer. Now, it came to pass in the realms beyond that the Great One from above said to me:

“Harbinger of the Last Covenant, say: Let a son of man who loves poverty treat a daughter of man, his wife who is a carrier of favour and wealth, anyhow he likes, so that through a bitter experience he will learn the truth at last. But let the earthman who hates poverty with passion give his wife inner peace and love; let him treat her in the likeness of egg.

“Harbinger of the Last Covenant, say: Earthman, your Spirit coming into the world of man, did not bring with you any material thing of the Earth-world, not even a pin. Rather, your Spirit in the garb of Soul brought with it the attributes of love, peace, joy, amongst others, but in a state of potential.

“You are made to bring these forth into manifestation in the world of man, for the embellishments of all, especially the daughters of men. And when you fail here, you will fail in the journey of life. All the material things of the Earth-world cars, houses, clothes, wines, shoes, money, riches, wealth, etc. are brought to the earthly spheres of life via the glorious spirits of genuine womanhood”.

THE WATER SUBTLE ASPECTS

I learnt in the realms of Light, beyond the world of man, that all the wealth of the Earth-world flows into physical manifestation from the water. And this water is symbolised by the daughters of men.

Now, when mention is made about water in this connection, some earthmen within the framework of organised religious terms, think that all spirits of the water are evil, vicious or wicked. This is certainly not the case, however. As there are good and bad humans amongst men, so there are good and bad spirits of the sea.

Remember, in the first place, that in the beginning “the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters” (Gen. 1:2). This Spirit of God hitherto retained the individualized units of the Spirits of the Lord in Light, within the eternal embars of the oceans, the seas, the rivers, the streams and the entire eco-systems of the waters of life.

For instance, there are certain Spirits of the Lord in His Eternal Light, great Angelic Ones, who have simultaneous dominion upon the land and the sea. This includes but not limited to the Mighty Angel revealed to Saint John, who was “clothed with a cloud and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the Sun, and His feet as the pillars of fire”.

This Great One, revealed to Saint John, “set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the Earth”. This is a reference to the dominion of his divine operational code, upon the land and the sea. (See Rev. 10:1,2).

Nevertheless, there are Spirits of the Lord in Light, great Angelic Ones, in higher and lower degrees, resident and having their operational bases within the subtle spheres of the waters of life.

In their different divine administrative jurisdictions, these have coordinating Angels, of which each in-charge of a jurisdiction, can rightly be called 'Angel of the water'. For further example, recall what Saint John wrote when the third Angel with his vial poured same upon the waters. Thus, John wrote:

“And the third Angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood. And I heard the Angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shall be, because thou hast judged thus” (Rev. 16:4,5).

Therefore, let it be known that not all Spirits and Angelic ones in the subtle spheres of the waters are vicious entities. Yes, there are vicious entities there, but there are good entities there as well.

Now, in the divine spheres of Being, the daughters of men are symbolised by water while the earthmen are symbolised by fire. Thus, the coming together of man and woman, is the coming together of fire and water.

The water should quench the fire when it is about to ravage and consume; again, the fire should warn the water when it becomes too cold. Blessed are the children of men that walk on this path. And, as a matter of fact, the earthman has more responsibility to discharge in this regard.

To this end, I recall what the Lord of the Universe, the Great Lord Jesus the Christ, told me in the realms of Light beyond the world of man, when I was about to get married to my queen in 1995. In the Spirit, He said to me, amongst other things:

“Remember and always bear in mind that, what a woman becomes after marriage, is the making of her husband “.

Consequently, and in the light of this, let it be emphasized, Oh earthman, that within you and with you lies the energy, the propensity, the characteristics, to make your wife a lovely queen, a living monster, a wicked one, an adulterous woman, amongst other things.

Until you learn that whatever your wife becomes, is your own making in many respects, you will cast the blame of your concepts of her failures to her and to others. And it came to pass that the Great One from above spoke to me and said:

“Harbinger of the Last Covenant, say: Earthman, marry a woman you love in the world of man, but blessed are you if she carries a portion of favour. Not all women are with favour and blessings. Therefore, you are twice blessed even if the wife of your heart is the symbol of a little stream of flowing water.

“You have heard that the genuine spirit of womanhood is behind every successful man. Behold, this is the truth. This occurs within the ambit of emotions.

“Therefore, when a woman who has the spirit of wealth loves a man and wishes him well from the deep emotions of her secret heart, whether or not she is his wife, whether she is his mother, sister or friend, potions of her wealth will flow to him.

“Know this also that when a man takes to himself a wife, the wealth flowing through other women to him will be compressed to flow solely through his wife, if she has within herself the spirit of wealth and favour.

“But if the wife is a carrier of the dry leaf of the desert, Oh Harbinger of the Last Covenant, she will become a blockage to him. Therefore, the spirit of wealth which flowed through other women to him, may not reach him again, unless one amongst the women who loves him has a stronger Spirit.

“As it is said in your world that behind every successful man there is a woman, so let it be known and said that behind every poverty in the life of the earthman is a woman. A daughter of man resident in the world of man, is either a spirit of favour in motion, which manifestations are in four parts, or a spirit of dry leaf that dishonour the sons of men”.

SPIRIT OF THE WOMEN IN WEALTH AND FAVOUR

Earthman, you have been told that the spirit of the wealth in the daughters of men is symbolised by the river which flows from Eden to water the Garden in four parts.

“And a river went out of Eden to water the Garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads”.

The first in the series of the four heads or parts of the river is named 'Pison', “which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold”. This gold is symbolised by the 'ocean of wealth', which will be fully discussed in the later part of this treatise.

(Note: A woman may be a carrier of favour and wealth, without her being wealthy; or she could even be physically poor or comes from a poor family, till she gets married to a man, who will unlock the wealth in her, by giving her inner peace of heart).

(In some occasions, her family and friends may benefit from her favour, at different degrees, whether or not they know it, before and after her marriage. In some occasions, such women may be wealthy, or have an evidence of great favour, before they are married).

Now, the Great Angelic Being of Light, who told the great Prophet Moses these things, gave further divine insight into the gold (enormous wealth) embedded in the first part of the river of Eden. Thus, it is written:

“And the gold of that land is good, there is bdellium and the onyx stone”. Here, the gold of the “land of Havilah” itself, has two major aspects in symbolic terms, namely, “bdellium” and “the onyx stone”.

The Great One from above explained to me that “bdellium” in this connection symbolised the ocean of wealth and the duration thereof in the world of man. This aspect, this ocean of wealth, does come but seldom comes into the world of man, because it is the human manifestation of the Spirit of God embedded in the God-aspect of the feminine gender as 'the Goddess of wealth'.

This feminine aspect of the Spirit of God is spoken of in the Scriptures thus: “God is known in her palaces for a refuge” (Psl.48:3). The 'God' who is known “IN HER PLACES”, is the Spirit of the Lord manifested in the subtle aspects of the Universe as the Goddess of wealth. Her wealth, when manifested on the physical realms of Earth, serves as a refuge to the sons of men for thousands of years.

This occurs especially when She personally manifest Herself on Earth, in the ultimate and consummate glories of genuine womanhood. Her manifestations on Earth will be explained later. However, Her human manifestations has direct and indirect aspects.

Whenever She comes to the world of man, normally as a Holy Woman, She vomits wealth (vomit used in symbolic terms) accessed by different generations of the children of men, even after Her physical departure.

The wealth She vomits to this end, also serves in certain divine spheres as the prime impetus to the subsequent physical births or manifestations of the Spirits of women, within the framework of diverse degrees of wealth, in different generations of the children of men.

Remember, on the physical realms of Earth, he who controls the economy of the Earth-world in Light, has greater stake in the affairs of the children of men in many respects. Can the work of the Lord on Earth make progress to a large extent without the wealth of the Earth-world? We can say that again.

In this my open letter to the earthmen, some of the direct and indirect human manifestations of the Queen of wealth, the ocean of wealth Herself, the consummate Queen of genuine womanhood, the “God known in Her palaces for a refuge”, will be discussed.

This is strictly as revealed to me in the higher realms of Light, far beyond the world of man, which I didn't know before now. However, I am aware that such divine information may be offensive to the sensibilities of some earthly “masters” of organised religions.

Now, the ocean of wealth has direct and indirect aspects. Apart from the ocean of wealth, which the Supreme Queen of genuine womanhood brings into the world of man, from the symbolic 'Pison' of Eden the Havilah's land of gold upon which is embedded bdellium, there is another aspect of Havilah, namely, “the onyx stone”.

This, in the divine classification of the great river that “went out of Eden to water the Garden”, the river that flowed into “where there is gold”, is the indirect aspect of the ocean of wealth.

Thus, both the ocean of wealth in the direct aspect (bdellium of Eden), and the indirect aspect of the ocean of wealth (the onyx stone of Eden), are found in Havilah the land of gold. This is the first part of the four parts of the river of Eden. (The direct and indirect aspects of the ocean of wealth will be explained later in this treatise).

As the ocean is greater than the sea, so the sea is greater than the rivers and streams of water. The symbols of these in the world of man are the daughters of men. There are daughters of men hitherto in the world of man who carry within themselves the sea of wealth. Their wealth could last for hundreds of years, but not for some thousands of years, as in the case of the direct aspect of the ocean of wealth.

For instance, the Harbinger of the Last Covenant is spiritually aware of a certain queen in Europe, who came to the physical realms of Earth in the great spirit of the sea of wealth. And of the sea of wealth also, a daughter of Zion came forth in the Spirit of Light as a symbol of the sea of wealth. This is the wife of a Bishop and pentecostal church founder in Nigeria, amongst a host of others now in different parts of the world, within and without the realm of religions.

There are daughters of men in different parts of the world, who are carriers of the sea of wealth, the second part of the river of Eden. Now, whether custodian of sea, river, or stream of wealth, their presence in the world of man, whether or not they know it, is of tremendous benefit in many respects towards the survival of many Souls in the world of man.

In general terms, however, when women of this nature (ocean, sea, river and stream of wealth), depart from the world of man, the spirit of wealth that accompanied them settles in the realms of in-between life (which will be explained later), from whence it originated in the first. This will be used again to accompany some subsequent daughters of men, who would be born later on the physical realms of Earth in our terms.

Now, apart from the direct and indirect aspects of the ocean of wealth, which simultaneously represent one part of the river flowing from Eden to water the Garden, the symbolic river of Eden still has other remaining three parts.

Thus, concerning the second river of Eden, the Angel that spoke these things to the great Prophet Moses said: “And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia”. This divine expression represents the daughters of men, who are carriers of wealth in the symbolic terms of the seas found in the world of man.

Again, there is a third river in Eden. And in such terms, rivers are bigger than rivers. To this end, and in such terms, river Nile and river Niger, are true examples. The daughters of men, who are carriers of this dimension of wealth, spread same on various stages, varying aspects and degrees.

Of the third river in Eden, we read: “And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria”. This is a representation of major and not so big rivers found in the world of man. The daughters of men within this framework are still great carriers of wealth at diverse degrees.

Of the fourth river, the Scripture says: “And the fourth river is Euphrates”. Now, spiritually speaking, as embedded in the higher divine spheres of existence, the physical size of river Euphrates is a camouflage to what it represents in this connection.

To this end, and as made known to me in the Spirit, river Euphrates represents diverse streams of flowing waters in the world of man. The daughters of men of this kind are carriers of favour and blessings, at varying degrees, but not in enormous terms.

Nevertheless, it is far better for a son of man to have, in the woman of his life, even a minute stream of flowing water, than to dwell upon the chambers of a dry leaf, a daughter of man who is a carrier of the spirit of poverty.

A dry leaf holds one of the worst experiences for any earthman on the surface of Earth. A dry leaf is a punishment for the earthman in certain terms. The specific conditions, apart from the general aspects, upon which dry leaf or favour operates, will be later discussed.

Spiritually speaking, and as earlier stated in this treatise, woman is the symbol of water and man is the symbol of fire. The water should quench the fire when it is too hot, lest it burns down the house; the fire should warm the water when it is too cold, lest in her coldness she is swallowed by the enemies of the house.

In the subtle aspects of her womanhood, the water flows from her 'Eden' (the Spirit of man in her) to water her 'Garden' (her private part). This is how it is seen in certain higher realms of Heavenly Light. In the Spirit, if the river that flows to water the 'Garden' finally flows out of her, then she is a possessor of favour in any of the aforementioned aspects of the four parts of the river.

However, if the water in her 'Garden' does not flow out in the spiritual aspects of her being, if it is a static water, then she is a carrier of poverty. The worst of this, is a pond of dirty water. This is the worst carrier of larger aspects of misfortunes.

The Souls of such women (dirty pond water) in the in-between lives, thoroughly imbibe the spirit of dry leaves of the desert, while coming into the world of man. As a matter of fact, marrying such women, or having any sexual activity with them, is a clear covenant, not only with poverty, but with all sorts of wickedness and evil things.

Any sexual intercourse with a daughter of man, whose water does not flow out in spiritual systems, whose water is static and sealed, is a great pollution and through that, nothing but poverty and the repulsive vicissitudes of life will be transmitted from her to the man.

The wise King Solomon of ancient Israel, expressed the true situation of such daughters of men, who are more in number in the world of man, thus:

“A garden inclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed” (Song of Solomon 4:12).

Yes, when that fountain, that 'Garden' is sealed, (“a spring shut up”), nothing good flows out to the earthman from there. Is there no difference between drinking from a static water that doesn't flow and drinking even from a little stream of flowing water?

What about the water that flows out from the 'Garden'? Surely, partaking in the fruits thereof, is a blessing to the earthman. To this end, the wise King Solomon, speaking in the Spirit of the Lord, for such blessed daughters of men, that is, for the Spirit of favour in the daughters of men, said:

“A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon. Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits” (Song of Solomon

4:15,16).

When a son of man eats from the fruits of the 'Garden', wherein the water thereof flows, he partake in the blessings, wealth and favour of the spirit of genuine womanhood; provided he gives the daughter of man all the required support she needs, to enable her water the 'Garden' for her man at all times. And the foremost thing required from the earthman in this connection, is that he must strive in love at all times to give her inner peace.

The Spirit of wealth, embedded in the daughters of men, flourishes as a portion of the earthman, when the woman's inner heart is encapsulated in peace. Earthman, you have nothing to offer a woman other than inner peace. This is your work henceforth, Oh earthman.

When you fail woefully here towards a woman who is a carrier of favour and blessings, you will become a blockage unto yourself, for the favour she carries will elude you. Your portion to this end, will be like the portion of those who dwell with the dry leaves of the desert. I have warned you.

KEY TO THE HEART OF WEALTH

Earthman, when you meditate deeply on the sacred teachings of the Great Lord Jesus the Christ, you will understand that His teachings, in divine terms not in mere human terms of organised religions, are the sum-total of the Highest Spirit of excellence in Light.

Recall in His sacred teachings, the foremost thing that He gave to all generations of the faithful ones, before His departure from the physical realms of Earth. What was that? Let's hear Him:

“Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you”. (See Jn. 14:27).

Earthman, did you hear that? Did He say houses, clothes, chariots, business breakthrough, wealth or any material thing of the Earth-world “give I unto you?” No. Is the Lord of the Universe not aware that the children of men need these earthly things for survival, as well as to enhance the physical progress of His Vineyard in the world of man? He knows.

To this end, and because He knows this, He had to specifically give us something, within which framework and ambit the manifestations of all the physically oriented good things of the Earth-world, would occur in materialisation, namely, peace. The Lord gave the faithful ones something (peace) which contains all the material good things of life, when properly, judiciously and prayerfully applied.

Earthman, the issue here is not a matter of mundane religious argument. No matter the angle you take, inner peace in the heart of a daughter of man, who is a carrier of favour and wealth, is your foremost channel of blessings in the world of man.

Inner peace is a product of love. Therefore, give the daughter of man love, for her to dwell always in the midst of peace. In doing so, do it in her terms, not in your terms, for little things matter much in the hearts of the daughters of men.

Endeavour always to find out the terms of love of the woman in your life and give same to her. You may give her love in your terms of love, not in her terms, which may even cause friction -- and her heart will be eluded of inner peace.

As much as you can, with all the energies of your earth-life, avoid quarrels in your home, Oh earthman, for this is amongst the elements of the worship of fools.

Canakya Pandita, a highly enlightened being of the spiritual essence, was one of the wisest men of ancient India. In the ancient Niti Sastras (the Sanskrit word 'Sastras' means 'Scriptures'), he admonished the children of men thus:

*“The Goddess of fortune
personally comes to that place where fools are not worshipped, where grains are carefully* stocked, and where there are no quarrels between husband and wife”.

He spoke of “where fools are not worshipped”. What does this mean? When you give a woman outside money more than your wife, for the purpose and aggrandizement of sexual activity, that is a worship of fools. When you give your relatives money, even your mother, not wanting your wife to know, that is a worship of fools.

When you speak a word to your wife and it turns out to be a lie, which brings confusion to her heart and it robs her of inner peace; when you promise her a thing and failed to fulfil your promise, and even becomes careless on how you speak to her about it;

When you give her money to buy a thing and turns around to collect the balance from her; when you do not embellish her heart with lovely sweet words, rather you turn around to hurt her with your words; when you do not sincerely appreciate her, amongst other things; then your home is a temple for the worship of fools.

Earthman, we are all involved in this. At one time or another we have all fallen short of these expectations. This is the time for us to redress our steps, if we truly desire blessings in the journey of life. Therefore, I say to the sons of men: The only time we have rest in these things, is when we are asleep.

Listen, as soon as you wake up from sleep, resume your daily duty of giving peace to the inner heart of your wife in love. This also is a work of the Lord. Do not let your proclaimed 'mundane religious holiness' blind you on this matter, otherwise you may inherit the wind.

Now, earthman, you don't know whether your wife is a carrier of the spirit of favour, or a carrier of the dry leaf of the desert? I say, if you have been hurting her in many ways, then change and give her inner peace even for a year.

Experiment on this by the guidance of the Spirit of the Lord. If the heart of a woman is given real inner peace for a whole year, her man will know whether she is a carrier of favour or a carrier of the dry leaf of the desert.

Even then, you will fail, if within the aforementioned period, portions of her inner heart still clings to your misdeeds of the past. Guide her heart in love to discard the past for the progress of the future. I am saying this in general terms, for in specific terms there are differences, which I will come up with later in this book.

Nevertheless, in this general terms, if you give her peace for a whole year, without yourself indulging in sexual activity with another woman, and there is no change in your life for the better, in the favour of the Lord in this world of man, then she is a carrier of the dry leaf of the desert.

At this point, you should use your tongue to count your teeth. And you may choose to look for the black goat when there is daylight, because when night comes it may be difficult to find. For a pre-planned battle does not consume even the cripple.

Yet, in this, Oh earthman, I admonish you to hold your peace and still hold her firm upon the altar of peace in love, otherwise you may have yourself to blame; otherwise you may completely inherit the wind, on the physical realms of Earth.

When you give peace of heart to a daughter of man, who is a carrier of dry leaf, the direct mercy of the Lord may reach you, via the benevolence spirits of some daughters of men, whose hearts truly love you and wish you well.

You have nothing to loose by giving peace of mind to a dry leaf, for peace is what we must give to all. With peace given even to a dry leaf, behold, you may be placed by the mercy of the Lord upon the rough road of gradual growth. He who shows love, peace and mercy, will obtain same in the journey of life. And the Great One from above, in the Heavenly realms of Light, again said to me:

“Harbinger of the Last Covenant, say: Woe to the earthman who has a dry leaf and does not give her inner peace. For, behold, the favour and blessings of life will flee from him with the wings of the eagle. And, behold, the experiences of his earth-life, in terms of misfortunes, predicaments and unwanted vicissitudes of life, these will be hit lot; and he will speak of them both as the works and triumphs of the devil”.

Earthman, you have been told to give inner peace to the woman of your heart, who is a carrier of favour and blessings. This is for your good in the journey of life. The favour and blessings from a woman, who is a carrier of favour and blessings, flow out from her to the man, from time to time, only when her inner heart is filled with peace.

Thus, depending on what her man does to her, all the favour and blessings embedded in her may flow out, or some of them may flow out, or none of them may even flow out.

THE PRIMORDIAL HUMAN SPIRIT IN GENERAL TERMS

Earthman, you are a Spirit now, and Spirit you will always be. Saint Paul wrote that man is “spirit and soul and body” (1 Thess. 5:23). This is in the focus of a particular consciousness, within the body camouflage, on the physical realms of Earth.

Your Spirit is ultimately your core identity. Your Spirit, the Spirit that you are, has no beginning and end. Rather, it holds within itself the consummate propensities of multidimensional existence.

Now, if you are looking at your Spirit strictly from the ambit of religious framework, then that is 'the Breath of Life' which the Seed-Giving-Father of all realities, God, breathed into Adam and duplicated through Adam to all manifestations of the children of men.

The Sanskrit ancient religions of the Vedic times, gave to the earthmen the first ever set of ancient religions sastras, meaning scriptures. These include but not limited to Srimad-Bhagavatam, Upanishads and Puranas, some of which are over ten thousand years ago.

These are amongst what is known as the 'ancient Vedic scriptures'. All these recognised the eternal validity of man beyond the physical body generally known. From the Vedic perspective, the core essential aspect in this connection is the Spirit of God called 'Param'atma' (Spirit), while 'Jiva'atma' is the localised Soul, the individualized Soul personality.

In the Sufism of Islam, the core essential aspect of man and woman, which is the Spirit, is called 'Ruh'. However, in the general teachings of Islam, as found in both the Koran and Hadith, 'Ruh' is the core identity of human, the Spirit, detached from the body, while the Soul is called 'Nefs' inside the body.

An Extraterrestrial Intelligence of Light (name withheld), speaking in this connection, said: “Identity (Spirit) and consciousness existed long before your Earth was formed. Consciousness is the force behind matter, and it forms many other realities besides the physical one”.

He further said: “Soul is not something that you have. It is what you are. Soul is always in a state of flux, or learning, and of developments that have to do with subjective experience rather than with time and space It is part of you that is indeed indestructible”.

In the Hebrew religion, Judaism, the Spirit of God in general terms is called 'Yechidah'. However, the unit or version of the Spirit of God breathed into Adam, is called 'Ruach Ha Kodesh' of Jehovah or Yahweh Elohim, while the Soul is called 'Nephesh'.

In Africa, the Igbo tribe in Nigeria to be precise, the Spirit is called 'Mmuo', the Soul is 'Mkpuru'obi', meaning, 'seed of the mind', while the mind or heart is called 'Obi'. However, Saint Paul captured the entire tripartite nature of man as 'Spirit, Soul and Body'. Consequently, concerning man, in the beginning of creation, we read in Genesis thus:

“And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul” (Gen. 2:7).

This 'Breath of Life', which ultimately is the Spirit of the One Eternal Almighty God, has no beginning and end. Thus, the portion of God and a portion in God, which is now yourself, is a Spirit of the Lord in manifestation, within the framework of Matter, Energy, Space and Time.

When individualized and given a degree of separate identity, that individualized unit of the Supreme Universal Spirit, God, becomes known as Soul. To this end, Soul is the concentrated individualized unit of the Supreme Universal Spirit of God.

It is like when you fetch a bucket of water from the ocean and later turns the fetched water into ice-block via a refrigerator. As the ice-block still retains the properties of the ocean, from whence it was fetched, within the unit of its own concentrated propensities, so the Soul also retains in itself the properties of God, within the elements of its core identity as Spirit.

Consequently, the properties and propensities of God, is what the Soul is set out to unfold in itself, within the framework of its core identity as Spirit. As such, in the endless journey of life, in the life of eternal existence, the Soul is placed in the cycles and realms of endless manifestations in all the Universes of God.

When you consider your whole self, in the light of the totality of your core multidimensional identity the Spirit that you are and will always be then you will know that you have no beginning and end.

THE SPIRIT THAT YOU ARE

What is your beginning if not the Spirit that you are. What is the Spirit that you are if not a unit of the Supreme Universal Spirit, which is beginningless in God. In the light of the foregoing, let me present part of my article posted on the internet, on the 7th April, 2019, thus:

“Now, in the 'eternal dream' of the Almighty God, is found the Beings of all consciousness.

“In God's 'initial state' of Being and Supreme Consciousness, within the everlasting paradox that the Almighty God had and had not initial state, for in such terms His BEING is in the NOW, He saw within Himself all that is.

“He saw within Himself unlimited number of potential mighty and lesser Beings in possession of consciousness, even before the base of the beginning.

“The Almighty God caused these potentiall mighty and lesser Beings to be released from His 'eternal dream', into manifestations at diverse stages, degrees, times, gestalts, occasions, circumstances, worlds, levels and realities in the scales of existence.

“Earthman, you were there, in that primordial 'dream' of the Almighty God. Finally released into manifestation and individuality, from the eternal dream of God, you in turn 'dream' of Him, as all things do, which includes but not limited even to the mighty hosts of the Universal gods.

“Earthman, let your 'dream' of the Almighty God cause you to manifest Him in your Being, via your expectations, wish and desires, for these rule all actions.

“Let your actions be geared towards THE LIGHT OF THE ALMIGHTY GOD, as practically demonstrated by the Great Lord Jesus the Christ in the world of man.

“By your volition and consciousness, strive always to uphold the Spirit of Love and Light, for your ascent in the journey of life. For only by this shall you fulfil the mission of honour, as you 'dream' of a return and unity with your Source -- God. Think about Him always and elevate your inner being, in the BEING of all Beings”.

Now, earthman, your Spirit, in its concentrated unit of individualized Soul, has multidimensional, multitudinous and multifarious forms of manifestations, all generally unknown to you within the limitations of your temporal camouflage of bodily existence.

Now, in such higher terms of divine existence, the 'you' that you presently know as yourself, is the latest addition to your overall identity the Spirit that you are. This has a divine purpose, however, but that is not the subject matter of this treatise.

When the Spirit is individualized as Soul and begins the journey of descent into the world of man, the Soul on its way downward acquires different subtle bodies. These include mind, mental, emotional and causal bodies. The dream body and the body with which the dream body dreams, amongst others, are all acquired. Finally, the Soul assumes the gross material body, for existence in the world of man.

Why am I saying all these? Because it will finally lead us to the stage of in-between life, where the Soul, coming in the form of a daughter of man, acquires either the benevolence of favour or the repulsive nature of dry leaf, as well as the diverse conditions attached thereto.

YOUR SOLE ULTIMATE ORIGIN

Nevertheless, in doing so, we must first clarify that the core identity, the Spirit that you are, has no beginning and end in God. For instance, speaking of himself in the light of his core identity as Spirit, the Spirit of Wisdom, which was his Spirit in manifestation (everyone has a particular gestalt of his overall Spirit that can manifest), the wise King Solomon wrote:

“The LORD possessed me in the beginning of His way, before His works of old.

“I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the Earth was.

“When there was no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

“Before the mountains were settled, before the hills were brought forth:

“While as yet He had not made the Earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

“When He prepared the Heavens, I was there; when He set a compass upon the face of the depth;

“When He established the clouds above: when He strengthened the fountains of the deep:

“When He gave to the sea His decree, that the waters should not pass His commandment: when He appointed the foundations of the Earth:

“Then I was by Him, as one brought up with Him: and I was daily His delight, rejoicing always before Him;

“Rejoicing in the habitable part of His Earth; and my delights were with the sons of men” (Pro. 8:22-31).

Here, the eternal identity, validity and consciousness of the Spirit, which you are and will always be, is described by King Solomon, using the core identity of his prime primordial aspect, namely, his Spirit. As earlier stated, the Spirit, which is yourself in basic divine terms, has no beginning.

This was also expressed by Solomon thus: “The LORD possessed me in the beginning or His way, before His works of old”. The beginning of the way of God, is the beginningless of the Spirit of God in God, from whence we came.

The wise King Solomon also wrote: “I was set up from everlasting, or ever the Earth was”. Again, the everlasting from whence he was set up, that is, in the human terms of time, the everlasting past, still holds the summary of the mystery of the beginningless of Spirit, which is yourself in God and from God.

At this point, we will discuss, from the next sub-heading, the descent of the Spirit, in the concentrated unit of individualized Soul, solely in the form of the daughters of men, via the subtle realms of in-between life.

However, be informed that any Soul coming into the world of man, whether in the form of the sons of men or daughters of men, must first descend into the realms of in-between life, before physical birth.

It was the descent of the Spirit, in the garb of Soul, into the world of man, that the wise King Solomon described thus: “Rejoicing in the habitable part of His Earth; and my delights were with the sons of men”.

Now, Oh earthman, hear about the subject matter of in-between life, before physical birth, during the period of a pregnancy leading to physical appearance of the children of men.

THE IN-BETWEEN LIFE EXISTENCE

Now, there are many things connected with the Spirit, which is you, even the Soul in basic terms, that are generally unknown. And using the framework of the bodily platform, some issues, characteristics and gestalt of the Spirit-Soul can't ever be known at all.

In this terms, therefore, and as a matter of ultimate truth, your Spirit does many things in different spheres of existence, including the subtle spheres of the Earth-world, that you can't know, and may never comprehend, in your physical aspects.

To this end, it is important to note that all your life experiences, inherent in the entire physical aspects of your being, including your dream encounters and all related subjective experiences, constitute but one percent of the engagements and activities of the totality of your whole self, namely, your Spirit in the garb of Soul.

The remaining ninety-nine percent of the activities of your Spirit (the word 'Spirit' always used in this treatise in its existence in the garb of Soul and beyond the garb of Soul) remains unknown to you. As you unfold spiritually now on Earth, but more especially after death in earthly terms, the percentage will begin to increase gradually, in the journey of endless life.

Earthman, you think that you know all the workings of your Soul, the concentrated unit of your Spirit? You certainly don't know at all. You look at yourself more from the physical aspect that you know as 'you'. But even in this your gross material body, which you call yourself, do you know the workings of all the hidden paraphernalia of it?

Your physical body is composed of several things, including but not limited to the atoms, cells and molecules. Apart from those versed in the scientific research of these, but in general terms, have you ever seen these atoms, molecules and cells of your own physical body before?

Even though you don't see them atoms, molecules and cells -- does your not seeing them hinder them from doing what they should do? They do what they should do, whether or not you know about them. They do what they should do to keep your earth-life going. In the same vein, your Spirit does its work far beyond your comprehension and recognition.

It is obvious that you look at yourself more from the physical aspect appearing in the world of man. But you are far more than the 'self' you know on the physical realms of Earth. You are an eternally living Soul, and your Spirit which composed the Soul that you are, is a part of the Supreme Universal Spirit that we call God.

Thus, as earlier stated, there is a portion of God, and a portion in God, which is yourself, namely, your core multidimensional identity, your Spirit in the garb of Soul.

Now, when a Soul projects or programmes a portion of itself to manifest in the world of man via birth, the programmed portion of the Soul, namely, the personality involved therein, will begin the journey downward into the physical realms of Earth.

The Soul itself, by virtue of its primary nature in the light of the Spirit, being the most concentrated 'Power-House-Unit' in all the Universes of God, can't be fully and totally materialised in one earthly personality.

Consequently, the Soul sends portions of itself to manifest as personalities in diverse realms of the Universes of God, including the Earth-world. Now, in the ultimate terms of reality, the Soul is neither masculine nor feminine, but has the propensities of these in-built within the fabrics of itself. This enables the Soul to manifest as any of these genders, and beyond these genders, in any realm of existence.

On its way downward into the physical realms of Earth, the Soul (the personality to be born) enters into the systems of multitudinous probabilities. This is a subject matter that may take volumes of books to be fully explained.

However, part of the mission of the Soul into the world of man in this connection, is to, amongst other things, physically demonstrate into action, certain potential thoughts that exists within the electromagnetic 'powerhouse' of itself, that seek realization solely on the physical landscape.

In the light of this, however, the personality that is yourself lives not only in the 'sea' of probabilities, but also within the ambit of the Universal Law of the Probable Systems.

For instance, if a thought comes into your mind, that you should pray by 6pm, or that you should visit a friend by that time, or that by that time you should have a chat with your grandmother, all these are thoughts of probabilities at the very time they were initiated by the Soul in your mental pattern.

Each of these thoughts has inherent in it a destiny, when physically acted upon by the elements of your volition. By this, the daily lives of the children of men are embedded in the pool of probable destinies.

Each thought actualized by you, via your freedom of choice, opens up the door of a destiny situated in it. There are many things involved here that are not explained, because even the thought that you rejected, when it has more emotional charge than the one you practically demonstrated, opens up a different door in other subjective realities connected to 'you'.

However, on its way downward into the physical realms of Earth, the Soul must first step into the subtle realms of in-between life. There, the Soul acquirers the framework of its probable destinies, as well as the basis upon which its absolute destiny will be enacted. There are probable destinies and there are absolute destinies.

The absolute aspects of destiny deal with specific conditions, situations and experiences that cannot change from the moment a Soul personality is physically born. To some personalities, for instance, the time of departure, death in earthly terms, is fixed on the aspect of absolute destiny. Thus, when that time comes, the personality must depart.

While to some personalities, the time of departure is on the aspect of probable destiny. This means that no specific time is fixed. Consequently, based on some circumstances, one may live a long life or a short life; the varying circumstances of his departure having been fixed on probabilities. In such existence, there will be evidence of one 'cheating' death in diverse occasions, knowingly and unknowingly.

A whole lot of things are involved in this in-between life existence. It is here that the issue of favour and dry leaf are resolved, specifically upon the daughters of men. This comes under the Universal Law of Minus and Plus.

This is solely embedded in the feminine gender, or upon the Soul personality that takes a woman's form. Some stand for plus, which is favour, some stand for minus, which is dry leaf of the desert, while some stand for both, all on diverse conditions.

Now, the reality of favour or dry leaf, in-built within the feminine gender of a Soul personality, in the realms of the in-between life before physical birth, operates strictly within the dictates of absolute destiny. Once in-built, it cannot change, under whatever reason or circumstance, upon its signed and sealed conditions.

Again, you must know that the personality appearing on Earth, in this connection, has her hand in certain terms, in the script of this absolute destiny. All personalities, male or female, have their hands in the making of all aspects of absolute destiny, whether or not they finally like or dislike such experience, when enacted at last within the material field of the physical landscape.

The realms of in-between life is highly organised. There are great Extraterrestrial Intelligences there, great Angelic ones, guiding the realms, as assigned to them by God.

In connection with the foregoing, some of them are symbols of favour, some are symbols of dry leaf, some are symbols of both, while many of them are symbols representing none of these things. And if you are thinking in terms of size, the subtle realms of in-between life is ten times bigger than the Sun.

Now, for instance, the death of the Great Lord Jesus the Christ on the Cross, leading to His resurrection, was on the aspect of absolute destiny. There are things that you cannot change in this your earth-life, no matter what you do to change them.

The Great Lord Jesus the Christ made it clear that the Son of Man goes as was written about Him. “The Son of Man goeth as it was written of Him” (Math. 26:24). Did the Lord Himself not attempt to change that absolute destiny?

“O My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt” (Math. 26:39). This was the prayer of the Lord, in an attempt to change what can't change. Therefore, even when He attempted to change the situation at a certain stage, and earnestly prayed for the experience of that kind of death to be taken away from Him, the prayer wasn't granted.

You can't change any iota of your absolute destiny, but you change different fabrics of your probable destiny, through the daily different choices you make in the actualization of your decisions the thoughts of your heart, amongst others.

As earlier stated, a whole lot of things are involved in the in-between life before physical birth. It is at this level of existence that the issues of mental stances, characteristics and tendencies are planted, within the coming Soul personality.

Some of these are planted on the aspect of absolute destiny, while some are planted on the aspect of probable destiny. The probable aspect is planted within the framework of an open-ended system. This means that, under some circumstances, including through prayer, any aspect of the probable destiny can be changed while you are resident on the physical realms of Earth.

By analogy, the in-between life before physical birth, a programming point of the coming Soul personality, is like the phones we use in the world of man. When a phone is manufactured, it comes with some icons or applications. There are also some applications that you can install and uninstall, which we may see in the light of probable destiny.

Do you know that there are some icons that you can't uninstall? This is because the manufacturers have programmed them in such a manner that we can't uninstall them. This should be seen in the light of absolute destiny, which cannot change.

Now, mention is made here about mental stances programmed in a Soul personality, in the in-between life before physical birth. Some are within absolute destiny, while some are planted within the aspect of probable destiny. But in general terms, however, this has to do with choices made within certain aspects of belief systems.

For instance, under the framework of mental stances, whether a Soul personality will be born into the family of Christians, Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists, amongst others, all are well considered and the options weighed under several circumstances.

Furthermore, the opinions that will be imbibed or inherited by the coming Soul personality, arising from the leftover experiences of the ancestors, as coded in the psyche chromosomes of the forefathers, all are properly examined. This is done mostly on the aspect of probable destiny, but occasionally on the aspect of absolute destiny.

Now, the realms of the in-between life, is so called because it is neither the pure realms of Souls nor the world of man. Thus, in certain terms, it is a realm between the realm of Souls and the physical realms of Earth.

The Soul personality in the in-between life, experiences the realm of Souls in a dream format and experiences the world of man in like manner. Thus, from the realms of in-between life, it dreams of its original home, as well as its destination, namely, the world of man.

Most times when a Soul personality is in the in-between life, the pregnancy leading to his/her physical birth had begun, though there are exceptions. The choice of the would be parents are made by Soul personalities themselves. Consciousness (life-current) is projected from the Soul personality in the in-between life to the baby (foetus) in the womb.

The coming Soul personality and the parents, especially the mother, even some family members, may occasionally meet in the dream state. When the Soul personality is finally born, it takes complete five years for the Soul to totally assume the body, because it enters via a gradual process. And when the Soul fails to do so within this period, the body won't survive for so many reasons. Then death will occur.

Let me not take this issue further, rather let's concentrate on the subject matter of this treatise. The point has already been made, that favour and dry leaf flow into physical manifestations from the daughters of men.

This is strictly within the ambit of absolute destiny, which cannot change. We will now go into the rudiments of this, as programmed in the realms of the in-between life, before physical birth.

Behind every successful man is woman and behind every unsuccessful man is woman, period.

Now, what was earlier stated, regarding the true nature of Soul, the in-between life experiences, destiny in its absolute and probable aspects, amongst others, should be taken as a clue of such realities. They are clues, not full details, because such details will take volumes of books.

Suffice it to say that the in-between life is a realm of multiple focus and choices of potential activities for the Soul personality to be born. Such propensity is inherent in the overall nature of the Spirit.

The Soul, which is you now, which includes you now, a portion of which you are, ultimately lives in the eternal essence of alternate present and multiple focus. Such state of consciousness, however, is an integral part of the eternal heritage of all Beings, all Spirits in the garb of Souls.

THE OCEANS OF WEALTH

Earthmen, I have earlier spoken in this my open letter to you about the eternal existence of the Goddess of wealth, the feminine aspect of God (a manifestation of God in a Heavenly realm of Light), spoken of in the Holy Scriptures thus: “God is known in Her palaces for a refuge” (Psl. 48:3). Churches and organised religions don't know of Her Being.

This 'God' who is known in Her palaces for a refuge, the Goddess of wealth, has in rare occasions manifested Herself physically into the world of man, in both Her direct and indirect aspects.

This was made known to the Harbinger of the Last Covenant, in the higher realms of Heavenly Light, by the Great One from above a 'Watcher' in the higher realms of the Almighty. (For more on the 'Watchers' in Heaven, see Dan. 4:13,17,23).

Her direct aspect of manifestation has to do with Her full physical appearance. However, Her indirect aspect of manifestation deals with a situation where She sends a portion of Herself to encapsulate a feminine Soul personality, already in the in-between life, who is heading to the physical realms of Earth via birth.

Nevertheless, whenever She comes into the world of man, which is very rare, whether in Her direct or indirect aspects, She brings forth the fruits of the ocean of wealth. This begins from the time of Her manifestation to several different generations of the children of men. In some exceptional occasions to this end, She does not immediately bring forth the ocean of wealth following Her physical manifestation.

In this connection, after Her departure from the physical realms of Earth, following death in earthly terms, the ocean of wealth upon which Her physical presence is embedded, once enacted on Earth doesn't return with Her into the realms of Her pure Heaven.

Rather, this is programmed and retained in the subtle realms of in-between life, for subsequent usage of manifestations of some daughters of men. This dimension of mystery is been unveiled in this manner for the first time, in the world of man.

This occurs within the ambit of a particular lineage of wealth. Each manifestation of this God who is known in Her palaces for a refuge, is a divine lineage of wealth.

In most cases, but not always the case, this divine lineage of wealth, which sees the human race as one, operates in the world of man within the framework of, and in respect to, diverse religious and spiritual belief systems.

You must know that, regardless of our diverse tribes, races, religious, tongues, amongst others in the world of man, as well as the tenacity with which we uphold these mundane divisions on the physical realms of Earth, there are certain Heavenly realms of Light that see the entire human race as one people.

Thus, when they act, they act within the realities of their own recognition, not ours. It is already made known in the introduction to this material that, ultimately, all the Universes of God are one in the Supreme Consciousness of the One Eternal Almighty God. And there are Heavenly personalities who see the entire existence along this line.

SRIMAT RUKMINI: Now, in specific terms, (as made known to me in the realms beyond the world of man, by the Great One from above), in the ancient times of the children of men, about 5,000 years ago, the Goddess of wealth brought the ocean of wealth into the world of man.

This was through Her manifestation in the direct aspect as Rukmini, the Princess of Vidarbha, daughter of King Bhismaka, ancient India.

Rukmini, the first wife of Lord Krishna, finally became the chief queen of all the queens (wives) of Lord Krishna in the mysterious city of Dwaka. At the same time, the foremost lover of Lord Krishna, Queen Radha, was herself the ocean of wealth in the indirect aspect of the Goddess of wealth.

In those days, Lord Krishna married 16,108 wives. Seven of His wives, namely, Mitravinda, Kalinda, Satyabhama, Bhadra, Jambavati, Lakshmana and Nagnajiti, were carriers of the seas of wealth. Even the rest of the wives of Lord Krishna were carriers of rivers and streams of wealth.

Thus, the Vishnava religious systems of the past and present India, hold that part of the earthly mission of Lord Krishna was to vanquish demons and demonstrate the opulence of the greatest wealth ever.

Consequently, Lord Krishna became the wealthiest living Being in the history of the ancient world, both in all aspects and in all respects. He caused stones to float on the water and used same to build many mansions on the ocean.

These mansions include but not limited to the 16,108 mansions He built for His 16,108 queens. This was the city of Dwaka, the debris which still lies today beneath the Indian Ocean, even by the evidence of modern archaeology.

The ocean of wealth that flowed from the direct aspect of Rukmini and the indirect aspect of Radha, entered into the rudiments of thousands of years, as earlier stated in this treatise, regardless of the gaps in-between along the lines of years.

These oceans of wealth, following the departure of their aforementioned human channels, did transmogrify in the in-between realms of existence, into streams, rivers and seas of wealth, for subsequent manifestations into the world of man, via some suitable daughters of men.

Thus, a particular divine lineage of the ocean was established in the world of man, to be accessed in certain terms, knowingly and unknowingly, both by those within and outside the framework of that lineage -- the particular belief system upon which it was enacted.

Consequently, Swami Prabhupad, the greatest contemporary oriental spiritual master and ISKCON worldwide founder, is an evidence of this lineage of wealth, upon the reality of his wife been a sea of wealth in our time, from the primordial ocean of wealth of Rukmini and Radha lineage of wealth.

Today, he even has a palace of gold (temple of religious worship) in the United States. (For more details on Lord Krishna, Rukmini and His other wives, see the ancient Vedic scriptures: Srimad-Bhagavatam, and the Puras).

EXCEPTIONAL ASPECTS OF THE OCEAN OF WEALTH

Furthermore, when the Goddess of wealth, the Ocean of wealth Herself, comes into the world of man, by Her general rule, whether or not Her husband gives Her inner peace of heart, Her wealth must manifest. Once She is physically on Earth, wealth must as a Universal rule occur.

This is a fundamental aspect of Her identity, which is not found in all other manifestations of the seas, rivers and streams of wealth, in the world of man.

Nevertheless, in all the records of Her manifestations in the world of man, none of them was bereft of inner peace, or denied inner peace by their respective husbands.

In this connection, such husbands, who certainly won't be mere earthmen in human terms, do ensure by practical examples that the heart of the manifested ocean of wealth is thoroughly and constantly in the state of tranquillity peace, joy and love.

Such husbands do so for, amongst other things, guidance to all generations of the earthmen. Because of their elevated levels in divine spheres of existence, they act thus so as to properly guide the sons of men on how to treat the daughters of men in the journey of life. This is for the overall good of the children of men.

When we take a critical look at a certain expression made by Krishna to Rukmini, then how we should conduct ourselves, for the purpose of giving a woman inner peace, may be well noted. He once told a priest concerning Rukmini (which the priest also conveyed to her to make her happy) thus:

“My mind is always absorbed in the thoughts of the daughter of Bhismaka, and sometimes I cannot sleep at night because I am thinking of her” (Srimad-Bhagavatam, 10th Canto). He was in a different location from Rukmini when He said this.

PRINCESS OF EGYPT: Also, the wise King Solomon of ancient Israel married to an ocean of wealth in his time. This became a divine lineage of wealth. This was a Princess and daughter of one of the Pharaohs (Kings) of ancient Egypt. This great woman, who was the first wife of King Solomon, came to the physical realms of Earth on the indirect aspect of the ocean of wealth.

After his marriage to the daughter of Pharaoh, and following his request for wisdom from God, the Lord told him amongst other things thus:

“Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches and honour: so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days” (1 Kings 3:11,13).

These things were said to him soon after his marriage to the daughter of Pharaoh, who was a divine lineage of the ocean of wealth in the indirect aspect. You must understand that when God speaks for your favour, He also programmes the channel for its manifestation.

Womanhood is the ordained channel for the material manifestations of wealth in the world of man. Remember, if you are not spiritually watchful, a daughter of man can become a blockage or hindrance to your prayers unto God, even your prayers for divine favour. To this end, Saint Peter admonished the earthmen thus:

“Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto a weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life;

that your prayers be not hindered”
(1 Pet. 3:7).

This admonition shows that under some situations and circumstances, your prayers to the One Eternal Almighty God, can be hindered in the world of man by a daughter of man.

What about when you dwell with a daughter of man “according to knowledge”, especially the knowledge of giving her inner peace of heart? Will your prayers still be hindered at this point? No. Does this not show the extent to which she is a channel of certain things in your life, for good or bad?

The daughter of Pharaoh was a channel of blessings in the life of King Solomon. She was a channel through which God's promise of blessings to King Solomon was fully materialised.

She wasn't a hindrance in this regard. In recognition of this, though Solomon ended up having 700 wives and 300 concubines, she was the only one that Solomon made a 'porch' exactly like the one he made for himself.

All his wives and concubines, however, though most of them weren't of the Jewish stock and were thus referred to as "strange women" in the Jewish religious terms, but none of them was a dry leaf of the desert the spirit of poverty. Rather, in them Solomon, apart from having an ocean of wealth, had seas, rivers and streams of wealth.

By virtue of the Immutable Universal Laws of the One Eternal Almighty God, embedded in the plus and minus factors, it is impossible for a dry leaf of the desert, the spirit of poverty, to dwell in the jurisdiction wherein the ocean of wealth has dominion. And regarding the enormous wealth of King Solomon, the Holy Scriptures declared:

"Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold,

"Besides that he had of the merchantmen, and of traffic of the spice merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the governors of the country.

"And King Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold six hundred shekels of gold went to one target.

“And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

“Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold.

“And all King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver: It was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

“For the king had at sea a navy of Tharshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

“So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the Earth for riches and for wisdom (1 Kings 10:14-18, 21-23).

THE BLESSED MARY: Another manifestation of the Goddess of wealth, the ocean of wealth Herself, in Her direct aspect in the world of man, was Mary, the earthly Holy Mother of the Great Lord Jesus the Christ “God is known in Her palaces for a refuge” (Pls. 48:3).

At the same time, however, Mary Magdalene (great lover of The Son of Man, but not in sexual aspects), was also a manifestation of the ocean of wealth in the indirect aspect.

The ocean of wealth is far greater than the seas, rivers and streams of wealth. Thus, the ocean of wealth, manifested in the world of man, is the most blessed above all the daughters of men.

This is because she is the greatest and the ultimate carrier of blessings, favour and wealth on the physical realms of Earth. Remember what a Great One from above specifically said to Mary:

“And the Angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee:
blessed art thou among women” (Luke 1:28).

Mary was blessed amongst women (1) because she was the embodiment of the ultimate blessings and favour ocean of wealth, (2) because she was the earthly Holy Mother of The Son of Man.

Mary, the Holy Mother of the Great Lord Jesus the Christ, and Mary Magdalene, came once again to bless the children of men. These were the oceans of wealth in both direct and indirect aspects.

The wealth they brought wasn't immediately released upon The Son of Man, because of His specific divine mission of suffering, death, resurrection and ascension. Thus, these oceans of wealth held theirs in the potential state of the in-between life.

Having settled in the in-between life, these oceans of wealth were made, in the years ahead, to encapsulate some future daughters of men. These chosen daughters of men, will in turn manifest them in the world of man, via diverse and numerous streams, rivers and seas of wealth.

Thus, Mary, the earthly Holy Mother of the Great Lord Jesus the Christ, as well as Mary Magdalene, formed in one combination a divine lineage of wealth on the physical realms of Earth. This was part of the mysteries of Christ going back to prepare a place for the faithful, a place that wasn't prepared before He came. (See Jn. 14:2).

Apart from Mary Magdalene, who was an indirect aspect of the ocean of wealth, there were other two women, each which bore the name 'Mary', that were human manifestations of the seas of wealth in that era.

These seas of wealth infused with the manifested direct and indirect aspects of the ocean of wealth to establish, or rather prepare, a new divine lineage of blessings in the world of man. In certain terms of divine reality, this new divine lineage joined in many respects, but not in all respects, to form part of the preparation of a new 'mansion' spoken of by the Lord Himself.

Now, the indirect aspect of the ocean of wealth in those days, namely, Mary Magdalene, as well as the two seas of wealth -- Mary the mother of James and Joseph and Mary the sister of Lazarus and Martha -- including the direct aspect of the ocean of wealth herself (Mary the Holy Mother of Christ), all were Marys by providence, not by mere coincidence, in that era.

All these Marys were deeply emotionally attached to The Son of Man in divine terms. Apart from His earthly Mother, all the other three Marys were the only daughters of men specifically recognised as 'close friends' of the Great Lord Jesus the Christ.

In divine terms, their emotional support to the Consciousness of The Son of Man, was the impetus for the release of the spirits of blessings, favour and wealth, upon the sons of men in the years beyond the ordained era of suffering.

This divine lineage of wealth was to ensure that, in the years ahead from thence, those who believe and call upon the Lord of the Universe, the Great Lord Jesus the Christ, will have a basis of wealth and some control of portions of the economy of the Earth-world.

The higher control you have over the economy of this world, the greater stake you will have in the affairs of the children of men, whether for Light or for Darkness. When you consider the amount of money spent by Europe and America, in major initial aspects of the spread of Christianity, then you will begin to appreciate the importance of wealth in the works of the Lord on Earth.

Now, because there was no marriage in that earthly incarnation of the Lord of the Universe, the Great Lord Jesus the Christ, the foremost basis of the physical release of the ocean of wealth on a full scale didn't occur. Hence such was domiciled in the in-between life, for subsequent manifestations via some chosen daughters of men.

The mission of suffering and pain to save mankind, as said earlier, not that in which material opulence is shown, was the mission of the Great Lord Jesus the Christ. But after His death and resurrection, subsequently the equation changed. This was towards the activation of the domiciled oceans of wealth, through some daughters of men, who will manifest as seas, rivers and streams of wealth.

Today, in the world of man, the evidence of the favour, blessings and wealth of Christianity, upon individuals, churches, institutions and some proclaimed 'Christian nations', is there for all to see. (For more details, see Math. 27: 55-56; Luke 8:1-3; Math. 28:1-5; Jn. 20:1-18; 11: 1,5; 19:25).

KHADIJA DAUGHTER OF KHUWAYLID: Now, earthman, the first wife of the Prophet Mohammed, was not just a mere daughter of man. She was beyond the streams, the rivers and the seas of wealth.

The great Soul that she was, the Soul personality that came as her, was an ocean of wealth in the indirect aspect. And as usual, no dry leaf of the desert could stand in the jurisdiction of her dominion.

Thus, all the wives of the Prophet Mohammed were diverse streams, rivers and seas of wealth. Check out the wealth of many Islamic nations, beginning with Saudi Arabia. Things don't just happen. Every occurrence has a base of manifestation beyond the physical realms of Earth.

Khadija, daughter of Khuwaylid ibn Asad of the Quraysh tribe of Mecca, a successful businesswoman, was the first wife of the Prophet Mohammed. Through the ocean of wealth, which was brought through her into the world of man, wealth was established to different generations of some daughters of men in the realms of Islam and beyond.

You must understand, Oh earthman, that without favour, blessings and wealth on the physical realms of Earth, the earth-life will not only be boring to the children of men, but will be sterile in so many ways. To this end, regardless of any amount of spirituality exhibited by the sons of men, which actually lies within the purview of the earthmen, the earth-life itself will be bereft of contour and balanced progress.

Now, that the Prophet Mohammed placed Khadija in his heart, not only as the First Lady of Islam, but as the best amongst all women, is well known to all true Muslims and was well known in the days of the Prophet himself. This was also well known to his wives even several years after the demise of Khadija.

Thus, his other wives knew that the Prophet Mohammed, by different means and expressions, placed Khadija above them all, while she was no more on the physical realms of Earth. This occasionally brought about some normal woman elements of jealousy in his wives.

In one occasion, following such expression of jealousy from his pretty wife, A'isha, the Prophet once again openly proclaimed his deepest love and appreciation to Khadija an ocean of wealth. To this end, the Prophet declared:

“By Allah, I do not have anyone better than Khadija. She believed in me when others were steeped into infidelity. She testified to my truth when others rejected my claim. She helped me with her wealth when others deprived me”.

This was the stand of the Prophet Mohammed, as earlier stated, even while Khadija was physically no more. (See: Al-Bukhari, Sahih, vol. 5 Arabic with English p. 104; for more details, see: Musnad of Ahmad bin Hambai, vol. 6, p.117-118, 150; Sahih of Tirmidhi, and Ibn Kathir).

OCEAN OF WEALTH FROM AFRICA: In our time, in the entire world of man, the ocean of wealth in the direct aspect, has manifested once again. Her direct manifestation is in the form of a great woman, known as and called: 'Holy Mother Elisabeth Olumba Obu'.

This great woman is the queen of Leader Olumba Olumba Obu, The Sole Spiritual Head, and founder of the Brotherhood of the Cross and Star.

Leader Olumba Olumba Obu, who is held in many systems of thought as custodian of highest mysteries, married Holy Mother Elisabeth Olumba Obu and begat children through her without sexual activity.

It is on record in different materials of the Brotherhood of the Cross and Star, that The Sole Spiritual Head, Leader Olumba Olumba Obu, a complete virgin all through, called Mother Elisabeth soon after their marriage and spoke to her thus:

“Henceforth, I have given you children, but without the meeting of man and woman, in the manner of men”.

The great mother, also a virgin all through, began to be pregnant and to have children, solely by the potency of the spoken words of The Sole Spiritual Head.

The first male child that came out of her womb, known as 'His Holiness Olumba Olumba Obu', also has a queen, namely, Queen Esther Olumba Obu. She is also a manifestation of the ocean of wealth in the indirect aspect.

These oceans of wealth are presently manifested in the world of man, to bless many generations of the children of men, in the framework of thousands of years ahead. Also manifested along with them are different seas, rivers and streams of wealth, in different parts of the world.

In the years ahead, these manifested oceans of wealth will totally dominate and control the economy of the Earth-world. This will occur in a manner that the present children of men may not comprehend.

At that time, it will be generally known, as revealed to me in the Heavenly realms of Light by the Great One from above, that all previous manifestations of the oceans of wealth have fused with the current manifestations of the Goddess of wealth, spoken of thus: “God is known in Her palaces for a refuge” (Pls. 48:3).

Now, the lessons taught and practically demonstrated by Leader Olumba Olumba Obu in our time, on how to give inner peace to the hearts of the daughters of men, to tap into the spirit of blessings and favour of genuine womanhood, is very important to all generations of the sons of men.

For instance, in one occasion, as in many occasions, an earthman who was new in the fold of the Brotherhood of the Cross and Star, paid a visit to The Sole Spiritual Head, Leader Olumba Olumba Obu.

One evening around 7.30pm, the earthman saw Leader Olumba Olumba Obu walking with two senior members from His abode, 34 Ambo Street, Calabar, Nigeria, to the abode of His queen, which is the distance of about half a kilometre.

The abode of Holy Mother Elisabeth Olumba Obu, which also houses the male and female virgins of the Brotherhood of the Cross and Star, is 26 Mbukpa Road, Calabar, Nigeria.

As they walked pass the main gate, Leader Olumba Olumba Obu saw the earthman and asked him to join them, which he did. As they got to 26 Mbukpa Road, the earthman was bamboozled when he observed that Leader Olumba Olumba Obu went on His knees to embrace His queen, who was seated out by the door to her vestry. Then The Sole Spiritual Head spoke lovely words of deep appreciation to His queen and she smiled.

At this point, the earthman asked one of the senior members the meaning of such action. The senior member explained that it was a normal practice of Leader Olumba Olumba Obu from time to time. He clarified that the Leader teaches love and total humility, and demonstrate same in practical terms.

He further explained that Leader Olumba Olumba Obu does this to show love and honour to His queen, as well as to practically demonstrate to the sons of men the need to show love, respect and honour to their wives. In one of His messages to the sons of men in His fold, the Leader said:

“Some people here have married many wives, but none is seen in the house. Have you considered what your end would be?”

“Some of you go about practicing evil and deceiving sisters in the name of marrying them. You are among the false prophets which you hear about in the Bible”.

(See the book, 'Spiritual Warfare Weapons').

In His core teachings on matrimonial existence, related to how the sons of men should live with their wives, so that they may obtain the favour and blessings of the Lord, as contained in 'The Everlasting Gospel' (TEG), a book of different volumes, The Sole Spiritual Head, Leader Olumba Olumba Obu, said:

“If a husband wants to apply God's example of love to wedlock, he should first of all ask himself whether he had received God's instructions. Christ is telling all husbands to keep their wives as a good pastor does to his flock.

“Instead of heeding Christ's instructions, some husbands treat their wives spitefully, disgracing them whenever they like.

“Look around the world today and see how men suffer the consequences for ill-treating their wives.

“Through their negligence, they wreck their marriage home. Tribulations, litigation, fear, illness and death are among the things any husband, who does not love his wife, is most liable to suffer.

“This gospel has peace to offer to those who practice it, and war to wage against all those who do not practice it.

“And what punishment awaits such husbands? Their punishment should be heavy, for there is no reason why the love of a husband should be turned from his wife to cinema, bar and outside women.

“We should care enough to examine ourselves. Why should we give them stones for bread? Why should our wives knock, and we refuse to open and admit them into our bowels of love.

“The love we have for our wives should be full of humility and sympathy and peace. These qualities should mark our conversations and actions towards them”

(TEG. Vol. 1, 55:8, 15, 17, 19, 28, 29, 76).

GIVE YOUR WIFE PEACE OF MIND

Earthman, this is an important message of guidance to you. Don't pass over it lightly. This does not mean, as demonstrated by Leader Olumba Olumba Obu, that you must kneel down to greet and embrace your wife. But it does mean that you must do all you can to give her inner peace and joy.

Don't join the group of the sons of men merely existing, rather become part of the real men truly alive in God's Creation. It is said that he who blows into the dust fills his eyes with it. And when there is misunderstanding between the left and right legs, the entire body collapses.

Remember, a tree that doesn't know how to dance, will be taught by the winds. The lazier a man is today, the more work he is going to do tomorrow. It is not all the baboons that enter a maize field that come out satisfied. The worst loss in life is not death, but what dies in us while we live. An error isn't a mistake until you refuse to correct it.

Earthman, don't follow the path of majority of the forefathers in the realms of the black race. Most of such ancestors did all they could, even via their mundane traditions, to subjugate the spirit of genuine womanhood.

Thus, they remained amongst the most impoverished in the world of man. And look at the people of the white race, who honour their wives and treat them well; are they not more organised and richer than the people of the black race?

Oscar Wilde, an Irish great thinker and poet of the 1880s, in one of his treatise said: on 'An Ideal Husband', said: “I must say to myself that I ruined myself, and that nobody, great or small, can be ruined except by his own hand”. (See 'An Ideal Husband', by Oscar Wilde; also see 'An Idler's Impression', by Edgar Saltus Chicago Brothers of the Book, 1917).

The Holy Scriptures admonished: “Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest” (Ecc. 9:9). “House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from the LORD” (Pro, 19: 14). “So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself” (Eph. 5:28).

Yes, he that loves his wife loves himself. Because by loving your wife, she receives inner peace of mind, and in turn you receive favour in many ways from the Lord. The Great One from above also said to me:

“Harbinger of the Last Covenant, say: Peace of heart in a woman, who is a carrier of favour, is the underlying principle for all manifestations of blessings, from the daughters of men to the sons of men, in your world”.

Lao Russell of the United States, (a sea of wealth in manifestation), wife of Walter Russell, founder of the 'University of Science And Philosophy', Virginia, said something that all the children of men should properly take note of. In her 'Code of Ethics', she wrote:

“Love is like unto the ascent of a high mountain peak. It comes ever nearer to you as you go ever nearer to it”. She also stated: “Love cannot be possessed; therefore, ask not for love but give it”. (See 'LOVE: A Scientific and Living Philosophy of Love and Sex', by Lao Russell).

Napoleon Hill, American leading philosopher and religious leader, wrote: "The men who have accumulated great fortunes and achieved outstanding recognition in literature, art, industry, architecture, and the professions were motivated by the influence of a woman". (See 'Think And Grow Rich', by Napoleon Hill).

CONSCIOUSNESS OF LIGHT AND DARKNESS

Earthman, I have told you that the inner peace in the heart of a woman, who is a carrier of favour and wealth at whatever degree, will surely manifest as blessings to the man who is married to her.

Now, when the Soul personality comes as a daughter of man, with favour to the sons of men, it does so under certain specific conditions, embedded in the aspect of absolute destiny. This is planted and absorbed in the in-between life before physical birth.

The in-between life is a realm of cosmic duality leading to the world of man. This duality, namely, darkness and light, or systems equivalent to day and night in the human terms, plays out there to a large extent. Remember the Words of God thus:

“I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things” (Isa. 45:7).

Blessings, favour and wealth in the world of man, do not only flow to those on the path of Light. Even those on the path of darkness have experiences here, as very much evident hitherto in the world of man. All favour, wealth and blessings come from God into the world of man, via the daughters of men.

Some of these are embedded in Light, while some are embedded in darkness, but all come ultimately from the One Eternal Source, namely, God. This Eternal God releases these, whether from Light or darkness, to the world of man, via the aforementioned foregoing channels the daughters of men.

The evidence that God can give to an earthman riches from darkness, is there in the Holy Scriptures: “And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places” (Isa. 45:3). You must know that God is the consummate prime Source of Light and Darkness.

Therefore, the daughters of men, who are channels of these riches, as far as the human terms are concerned, are not all on the path of Light, on the physical realms of Earth. Some are in Light, some are in darkness, while some are in-between both.

Furthermore, when 'darkness' is mentioned in certain organised religions terms, it connotes in the mind of the 'believer' solely the forces of darkness. However, this belief system is only but a partial aspect of it. In the consummate aspect, even some versions of God Himself dwells in Darkness.

You may recall that in the beginning of creation, “darkness was upon the face of the deep” (Gen. 1:2). In the days of the great Prophet Moses, when the LORD spoke to the assembly of the Israelites, we are told that He did so “out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness” (Deut. 5:22).

Furthermore, it is written: “And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was” (Exo. 20:21). Here, God, in the course of revealing a version of Himself to Moses, was found in the abode of thick darkness.

Also, when the LORD God came down, “darkness was under His feet” (2 Sam. 22:10); Again, God “made darkness pavilions round about” Himself, “dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies” (2 Sam. 22:12). And “The LORD hath said that He would dwell in the thick darkness” (2 Chro. 6:1).

DIVERSE CONDITIONS OF FAVOUR AND BLESSINGS

Now, in the in-between life, some Souls of the daughters of men solely inherit favour, some inherit the opposite of favour -- dry leaf of the desert -- while some simultaneously inherit both. All these are on the aspect of absolute destiny, which can't change once planted on, and inherited by, the coming Soul.

Also, all inherited absolute destiny have diverse conditions attached with it. It is only the ocean of wealth that is beyond all conditions, because the Goddess of wealth is absolutely situated in Light and is the consummate gestalt of wealth. I will come to the inheritance of the opposite of favour dry leaf of the desert later in this my open letter to the earthmen.

Earthmen, these deep things that I am exposing here were brought to me by the Lord of the Universe Himself, in His numerous manifestations to the Harbinger of the Last Covenant, and the Great Ones of the Heavenly realms of Light beyond the world of man. This treatise, therefore, is for your guidance, regardless of your religious affiliations, for as long as you are a son of man on the physical realms of Earth.

Now, as the spirit of favour and wealth operate under diverse conditions, so also is the spirit of lack and want. A woman of favour has blessings flowing through her to you; a woman of the dry leaf of the desert has same for you. All that you own both is the spirit of peace. With peace, you operate in Light and conquer darkness the vicious ones thereof.

FIRST CONDITION: Now, a daughter of man may come to the Earth-world with favour and blessings, but only with one condition attached thereto. Such ones come with the condition that, any earthman who puts her in the state of inner peace of heart, even for once in a moment of time, will automatically partake in the blessings and favour following her.

In such instance this, in general terms, applies to any man that does this to her, before and after her marriage. And even while she is married, this still applies to other men that achieve this on her heart. The women working on this condition, when she is married, gives her husband great favour of wealth, even upon receiving inner peace just once from him.

This kind of the daughters of men, receive a destiny in which adultery is totally absent in her life, all the days of her marriage. Just only in one moment, in only one instance, as soon as her husband makes her heart happy, (which is often done from the onset of the marriage), great favour automatically follows him from that moment.

To such daughters of men, once the favour following her is infused into the microcosm of her husband, it remains with him. This is regardless of what the man does to her later in the marriage. Thus, the man will never be poor, or live in lack and want, all the days of his earth-life.

Some seas of wealth, as well as great rivers, manifested as the daughters of men, operate within the framework of this dimension of destiny. Occasionally, however, some rivers and streams of wealth also work under this condition.

Now, always bear in mind, as expressed by the wise King Solomon, that “Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the Lord” (Pro. 18:22). And don't forget that not all wives represent favour to their husbands in the world of man.

SECOND CONDITION: Now, there are daughters of men that come into the world of man, exactly in the manner and destiny of the aforementioned women, but with a slight difference. They do not commit adultery. The wealth flowing through them, flows out to their husbands once, as soon as their hearts are happy. Through them, other earthmen are also blessed, like the aforementioned ones.

These ones also have the capacity to endure much torments in their hearts, coming to them from their husbands. Even in this situation, however, their husbands will still remain wealthy. Nevertheless, the slight difference here, is that when their husbands torment reaches a certain limited unbearable to them, certain misfortunes will automatically be activated upon the man.

This activation is embedded in the extreme pain in the heart of the woman. This pain could even be a secret one not physically expressed. But whether or not the pain is expressed, the moment the aforementioned activation holds, certain misfortunes will be placed on the path of the man, which money can't solve.

To this end, the subtle aspects of the pain in the heart of the woman towards her husband, will activate in him the probable aspects of misfortunes in his probable aspects of destiny, which shouldn't have manifested upon him under some benevolent circumstances, to now be fully materialised on him.

When activated, the accepted probable destiny to be manifested could lead such earthman into diverse misfortunes, which include but not limited to chronic decrease, painful death via assassination or accident, imprisonment and enormous shame. Here, the need to give inner peace to the heart of a woman, should be well understood.

THIRD CONDITION: These are the daughters of men who, in many aspects, work within the ambit of the aforementioned women, embedded in the first and second conditions. Their wealth, blessings and favour flow to their husbands from their first point of happiness with him. However, they are not of much blessings to other men, like the first and second ones.

They bless other men, but a little when compared with the first and second sets. They can marry a man, without first loving him. Often they marry men, who doesn't have much in material terms, and such earthmen will surely become wealthy later, through his marriage with her.

Now, if you are talking about faithfulness to her husband, such daughters of men must commit adultery, whether or not they belong to a religion or tradition that forbids same. Even if they don't want to do so, in some of their human religious and traditional considerations, amongst other considerations, they will still end up doing it.

This kind commit adultery, because it is inherent in their absolute aspect of destiny. There is nothing that they can do about it in the world of man. As coded in the absolute aspect of destiny, in the in-between life existence, such daughters of men have reasons to accept the life of adultery before coming into the world of man.

To this kind of women, her act of adultery does not in anyway diminish the wealth of her husband. From the in-between life, wherein a clue of the general unfaithfulness of men is disclosed, they choose to imbibe the life of adultery as an act of revenge.

Consequently, while on the physical realms of Earth, they enact the life of adultery, doing this in secret for a reason to revenge, amongst other reasons. They somehow use adultery to balance the torments they receive in their hearts, from their husbands. This situation is like saying:

'Whosoever that I am married to,

on the physical realms of Earth, will surely have wealth, but I won't be faithful to him sexual wise, because of the unfaithfulness of the sons of men. As I enter into the life of adultery in my coming earth-life, I will no longer have any spiritual right to fight against or diminish his wealth, no matter
the pain he brings to my heart'.

This fault or sin is inherited in the in-between life, on the absolute aspect of destiny, which cannot change. As a general rule, however, any earthman or daughter of man in the in-between life must inherit a particular fault, sin or iniquity, to be enacted in the world of man, in one way or the other.

In the higher terms of reality, this is to demonstrate the limitations of the children of men on the physical realms of Earth. Furthermore, this is spiritually designed to place each human in a position of not having any right to judge another human. Remember the admonition of the Great Lord Jesus the Christ, in this connection, thus:

“And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? And how will thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye. Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye" (Math. 7:3-5).

The fault embedded in all humans, in the in-between life before physical birth, is within the elements of four defects, out of which one could inherit one, two, three, or the entire four. According to the ancient 'acaryas of the Vishanava', as recorded in the Upanishads, the children of men have four defects. These are:

1. One is sure to commit mistakes;
2. One is invariably in a system of illusions;
3. One has the tendency and propensity to cheat others; and
4. One is limited by imperfect senses.

With the aforementioned imperfections, the children of men cannot ultimately salvage themselves. That is why the Lord and the Great Ones of Light above come to help the children of men. Now, each human has a fault or sin, whether it is secret or open.

The Bible itself says: "For there is not a just man upon Earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not" (Ecc. 7:20).

Also, “and in the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there” (Ecc. 3:16). This is the true situation of things in the world of man. These faults are planted in other dimensions before physical birth.

Therefore, such daughters of men, who imbibe the code of adultery, must decode same on Earth when the time comes. Some of them are even old in this thing. “Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them?” (Ezk. 23:43).

Now, such daughters of men have, inherent in the psychology of this act, high profile cover-up to deceive their husbands. This is well captured by Swami Prabhupad thus:

“The wife who is thinking of her lover is always thinking of meeting him, even while she is carrying out her household chores. In fact, she carries out her household work even more carefully so that her husband will not suspect her attachment”

(Introduction to Bhagavad-Gita, p.28).

In this connection, therefore, trust is solely for the one trusting, namely, the husband. That is, for him to be at peace with himself. Nevertheless, trusting such daughters of men in sexual terms, doesn't really stop them from doing what they are destined to do. However, there is a specific sign on the hand of this kind of women, and on any woman who has the destiny of adultery, but this I will not reveal here.

FOURTH CONDITION: These are the daughters of men who come into the world of man, mostly with rivers and streams of wealth. They do not commit adultery, for as long as they are in the homes of their husbands. They are often seen as faithful wives.

Such a woman plays great motherly role both to her husband and children. She is a good mother indeed, in such terms. This kind comes with the destiny of 'I must love a man and be loved by him, before the favour with me will be released to him'.

Failure on the part of her man to love her in her terms, failure to give her inner peace of heart, puts the entire household in a state of lack and want. She cannot love another man except her husband, while her spirit of wealth waits for the man to love her in turn, for the release of favour and blessings.

This kind has the capacity to endure long suffering. She herself will be generally seen to be in a state of poverty; a state which she will be until a man truly loves her. She must love a man and the man must love her, before the wealth flowing through her will be activated. If she doesn't love any man and no man loves, then she will live and die as a poor woman.

They usually marry, however. All their marriages are based on love. They can't marry a man except they love him. The problem is not them, but the men they marry. As far as other men are concerned, these daughters of men pretend a lot. They can pretend to love another man, collect money from him to feed their husbands and children. But they can't commit adultery in practical terms.

When the husband ends up loving her and giving her peace of mind, he and his household will be encapsulated in the rivers and streams of wealth. Here, an earthman will fail, when he constantly troubles the heart of a blessed wife. And what his inheritance here? The Scriptures respond thus:

“He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind” (Pro. 11:29).

“And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?” (Ecc. 5:16).

Now, honestly speaking, in many marriages, the sons of men are labouring for the wind. Furthermore, the foregoing daughters of men of the fourth condition, have an extreme destiny on two realities. They are extreme in loving their husbands, but when they are extremely pushed to the wall in their hearts, they become extreme in hating him.

When such a woman finally hates her husband and pulls out of her marriage, a flummoxed destiny will immediately be played out. This is a dangerous period in the destiny of her life, in human terms. Because by what was agreed upon in the in-between life before physical birth, her river or stream of wealth can then be vandalised.

The forces of darkness (vicious astral entities) play a role here. In her state of confused heart, following the dissolution of her marriage, her love life with the sons of men will be transposed. Thus, she will be incapable of loving a man, no matter how he loves her.

Her destiny of wealth is that she must love a man and the man must love her, before the favour in her will flow out. Now, upon the transposed order of her love life, the vicious astral entities come around her in many ways. They can then steal her wealth and give to another man in darkness, who has a kind of wife or lover through which it can be manifested.

This is done at that flummoxed point of her life, when she allows any man (without love in her heart and without love in his heart), to perpetrate any kind of foreplay around her 'garden'. Even ordinary fingering in this connection can vandalize her wealth, by absolute destiny, and place same as 'riches of darkness'.

For this wealth to be gathered back unto her in the course of time, the condition must apply, namely, she must love a man in marriage and the man must love her back. If she and her husband doesn't come back together for the fulfilment of this, it can be fulfilled in another marriage, but love must prevail.

To this end, when she comes out from her confused state of mind, her heart will always be in search of true love. If she finds one who truly loves her and she loves him, for what was stolen from her to be restored, the man will first go down in monetary terms. If he could bear the situation he finds himself, still loves her and marries her, he will later enjoy the favour flowing from her. That is her destiny.

FIFTH CONDITION: A daughter of man may be born on Earth with enormous river or stream of wealth, which may not flow out to her husband at all, because of his attitude towards her. In all of the conditions of favour, flowing from woman to man, the woman's inner heart of peace is of utmost significance.

A daughter of man embedded in this fifth aspect of absolute destiny, comes with a rigid condition. She can marry a man even without loving him. This is possible to some women, though without the knowledge of some sons of men in general terms.

Such a woman must marry first, settle down in her home before her wealth is released on her husband, solely based upon the condition of peace. I know a certain earthman who was a typical example of this. Unknown to him, his wife, born into a wealthy family, came to the world of man with a river of wealth.

This wealth was to flow to that son of man upon the condition that he loves her and gives her inner peace of mind. But here the earthman failed woefully. He was even a 'hard man'. And part of the conditions of the spirit of favour of that daughter of man, is that any money the man borrowed from her and failed to pay back will be used against him.

Here again the man failed. This kind of women may or may not commit adultery, because that is inherent in the probable and not the absolute aspect of their destinies.

When a man has that kind of wife, borrows money from her and fails to give her back; upon this happening in some occasions to the extent that it hurts her, then the man is working towards the inheritance of the wind.

In his terms, the earthman in question loved the woman, but this was within the framework of some rigid traditions of the African man. He was amongst those earthmen of the black race, who hold a secret strong opinion that their wives shouldn't have money more than them. Thus, by tricks he vandalised the monies that his wife had.

He never knew that by so doing, he was himself vanquished by the kind of destiny following his wife. Furthermore, he was also a hot tempered man. How can you exhibit hot temper towards your wife and expect her to have inner peace? Because of the nature of the man, the heart of his wife was constantly in the state of fear.

And it came to pass that the earthman died in abject poverty. He completely failed to access the river of wealth, which was his wife in disguise. In this case the woman may be seen as a dry leaf. She is not a dry leaf of the desert, only that her husband failed to activate her blessings, by putting her heart in a state of fear instead of peace.

An earthman who puts the heart of his wife in fear, is a 'bad son' indeed. Such a person has nothing to offer the daughters of men, even his entire family, than pain and fear. Most of them are used by darkness to destroy their families. Of such earthmen, the ancient wise Canakya Pandita declared:

“Just as an entire forest is reduced to ashes by a fire burning in the hollow of a tree, similarly, one bad

*son can destroy an entire family
What is the value of a man who is neither learned nor religious?
Such a man is compared to a blind eye that is only a source of pain” (Niti Sastra).*

Now, when a daughter of man under this condition of destiny dies in the world of man, the subtle fabrics of favour, blessings and wealth following her will immediately depart from her Soul. Upon such departure, this subtle aspects of favour, amongst other benevolence, will enter into another woman of her kind, whose husband has fulfilled the required condition of favour.

Consequently, favour will be added to the favour of the living woman, while the husband of the departed one, the hard man, will go empty handed. Remember that the Great Lord Jesus the Christ did say:

“For unto everyone that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath” (Math. 25:29).

SIXTH CONDITION: There are daughters of men seas and rivers of wealth who come into the world of man with the spirit of peace. Right from their birth, they are known to be peaceful ones. There are also streams of wealth who come on this platform. However, not all the women who have the disposition of peaceful outlook are carriers of favour.

This kind, the condition of her favour works under diverse factors. As a rule, all she wants is peace from her husband. But the favour coded in the absolute destiny of her psyche chromosomes, is delicate; it is automatic, but off and on.

Nevertheless, upon getting married, there will definitely be an evidence of progress on her man. Her love is intense and constitutes one of the greatest channels of emotional discharge in the entire daughters of men. Soon after marriage, even if her husband was living in just one room, he will have the evidence of occupying greater apartment.

She is ready to 'fight' and defend her husband even with the last drop of her blood. She possesses great love for her husband, through which her favour follows him. Though she can't easily fall in love, but when she does, she does it with all her heart. She is amongst the best of women. She does not fall in love until she is sure that she is loved first.

Now, such daughters of men do not commit adultery, even if she catches her husband doing so, or is aware that her husband is doing it. She is so faithful and committed to her husband that, any iota of suspicion of unfaithfulness against her by her husband, automatically takes away favour from the man. This suspicion robs her of inner peace more than any other thing.

Whosoever marries such a woman and lacks the favour of excellence, will come to that platform mainly upon the ambit of suspecting her of doing what she is not doing. Such daughters of men are very romantic in human terms.

In the mundane terms of some sons of men, it is not easy living with this kind of women. This is so because her heart must be kept in peace at all times, for her favour, blessings and wealth to constantly flow. Most of the daughters of men under this condition are often found in the deep aspects of religion.

The moment she is happy with her husband, the favour with her automatically flows out to him. The moment her heart is sad, brought about by the actions of the man, her favour automatically stops. The favour automatically returns again as soon as her heart experiences inner peace. This automatic fluctuations in her consciousness, depending on the duration of each, can make or mar the earthman.

To this end, as far as the favour following her is concerned, the husband holds the key of her heart, for his own rise or fall. Each time this daughter of man is happy within herself, and sings praises to the Almighty God, within the framework of her belief system, especially in her home, tremendous favour, blessings and wealth are released upon her husband.

The husband of this kind of a woman, should learn and endeavour to appreciate her always. All husbands should endeavour to appreciate their wives always, in words, in kind and in cash.

The more money you put in her hand, the more money you will have. Now, in many respects, the kind of woman on this sixth condition is the type that whosoever finds her has found the favour of the Lord, if the man handles her well.

However, intense anger on her part can cause terrible havoc in many aspects of the life of her husband. If there is a time that favour upon the man will be brought to naught, it is the moment of her intense anger towards the man. If care is not taking, and if the anger in her heart prolonged, then she and her husband may beg for food.

Greater favour and blessings upon her husband can be vandalised through her intense anger, only to be restored gradually when her heart returns to the state of peace. And if this situation of intense anger is revealed about her in a dream to her husband, or revealed to him by a prophet via visions, she may be seen appearing in the symbol of a 'wicked witch'.

This daughter of man is ready to be blessed with her husband, or live in poverty with him, all the days of their lives. As far as she is concerned, separating from her husband is a no-go area. If her husband dwells with her in the knowledge of peace, it will come to pass that he will be “like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season” (Psl. 1:3).

As earlier stated, some seas, rivers and streams of wealth come under this condition, as planted within the absolute aspect of destiny, inherent in the in-between life before physical birth. In this and in all, inner peace of heart is prerequisite for the favour flowing from woman to man in marriage. Don't forget this.

SEVENTH CONDITION: The daughters of men, who work within the framework of the seventh condition of absolute destiny as related to favour, are carriers of great rivers and seas of wealth. Here, lesser rivers and streams of wealth are not involved. These ones are less religious in organised terms. They are usually very pretty, however.

Whosoever she gets married to must invariably become wealthy. Most of them are born in poor homes all over the world. They usually inherit a probable destiny of beginning from the scratch. They take pleasure in building their husbands from a little beginning, so that the prime evidence of the man becoming wealthy after their marriage will be obvious.

They lack intense emotions and romantic display in matrimonial existence. Now, a daughter of man on this platform of destiny does not commit adultery because, even in the first place, she seldom enjoys sexual activity. She can spend her entire earth-life without enjoying the deep aspects of sex, namely, reaching orgasm, in the terms of the daughters of men.

However, all that she needs from her husband, both for manifestations of wealth and its maintenance, is nothing but peace of heart. Here, peace comes again as the prime basis of accessing the favour that the earthman obtains from the Lord when he finds a good wife; the favour that flows out from woman to man.

Now, a woman under this condition of absolute destiny has a serious negative aspect in human terms. This has to do with death. Coded into the fabrics of her absolute destiny under this condition, is a core spirit of death, which an earthman can activate against himself, through some aspects of his probable destiny.

This involves especially her husband. However, in some of such daughters of men, all the earthmen who come in contact with her, along the line of such activation, are therein involved.

In this terms, there are certain exemptions within this framework of absolute destiny as related to death. Thus, while in some, such death is limited to her husband; in others, such death involves all the sons of men that come into sexual activity with her.

The aforementioned death goes under some rules embedded in such a daughter of man. For instance, under this seventh condition, there is a wife that, if her husband have sex with her, goes out to have sex with another woman, and comes back within two weeks after doing it, to have sex with his wife, the husband will die within ninety days.

Remember that the woman, within the physical aspects of her being, is completely oblivious of this; she doesn't know in anyway that this is part of the reality of her inherent absolute destiny.

She may even lament and accuse others for the demise of her husband. Her husband may even be shot to death by someone that could be later exposed. Yet, the spirit of that death was coded in her.

Now, most of such deaths occur through violence means. Some occur in the sleep state, so that the man won't wake up from his sleep again, amongst others. Some daughters of men have this death so coded, to the extent that any earthman who dis-virgins them, without marrying them, passes on into the realms beyond.

To some daughters of men, any man who have sex with them, even when marriage isn't involved, if he does same with another woman and comes back to do it with her again within twenty-one days, then within ninety days the earthman will die. These daughters of men are carriers of wealth, but under certain requirements, they are also carriers of the chambers of death.

Now, before we proceed to the subject of the eight condition related to the forgoing, please be guided by this admonition. First of all, let the sons of men know that what is in-between our legs can lead us into serious trouble, even unto untimely death.

A pastor came to me for prayers. He naked himself and said to me: “Dear Harbinger, please lay your hand upon my penis. Every part of my body hears the word of the Lord, but my manhood has refused to hear”.

Earthman, haven't you been told that the abode of some daughters of men are chambers of the dead? Listen to the words of the Lord, via the wisest king of all times, King Solomon of ancient Israel:

*“Hearken unto me now therefore,
O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth. Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths. For she has cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain
by her. Her house is the way to hell,* going down to the chambers of death” (Pro. 7:24-27).

Remember, you that is married to such a daughter of man, your only way of escape is to give her inner peace and be faithful to her. Do away with the foolish illusions and wrong thinking that an earthman can't be faithful in sexual terms to a daughter of man.

Earthman, bear in mind that whatever killed the hen has also taken the eggs. And those of us whose manhood do not hear the words of the Lord, by the whims and caprices of lust waves, don't forget that the legs of a crab that escapes from a trap will never be complete again.

To you who holds that you don't need anyone to advice you on the promiscuity of your manhood, then be prepared to end up where you don't want. Now, let those who seek guidance on this listen to the admonitions of some ancient wise ones on the path of true men, both for escape and liberation:

“The greatest cause of crimes is lust. The fire of sexual lust kindles every species of wantoness There appears to be a need for some bold men who will say outright what is best, oppose the mightiest lusts, and follow reason only”

(Plato, wise man of ancient Greece).

“Vanity is powerful in the heart of man; intemperance swayeth it whether it will; despair ingrosseth much of it; and fear proclaimeth, 'Behold, I sit unrivalled therein'. But vanity is beyond them all. Weep not therefore at the calamities of the human estate; rather laugh at its follies. In the hands of the man addicted to vanity, life is but the shadow of dream” (Grand Lama of ancient Tibet, in 'Unto Thee I Grant', book 9, p.53).

“It is better to eat a hen and live long than to eat a cow and die soon after. A woman's money is like the penis of a cock; never seen but frequently used. The chicken is never safe in the land of hawks. The worm that eats the wood is usually located within. Those who romance with the devil will certainly dance naked in the market place someday” (ancient African proverbs).

“Giving themselves over to immeasurable cares ending only with death, regarding gratification of lust as their highest aim, and feeling sure that is all Bewildered by many a fancy, entangled in the snare of delusion, addicted to the gratification of lust, they fall into a foul hell” (Bhagavad-Gita 16:11,16).

“Freedom from lust: this truly is the highest happiness From lust creatures run into distress; they are tormented in the six states of existence and people the cemetery again and again” (Lord Buddha Siddhartha Gautama founder of Buddhism).

Earthman, it is with love that you can give inner peace to the heart of a daughter of man. And if death, in the manner that I have spoken, is corded in the systems of her destiny, and whereas she is a carrier of favour and blessings, with love you will subjugate death and reap the benefits of favour.

Love is completely different from lust. As expressed by Kaviraja Gosvami of ancient Bengal: “Lust and love have different characteristics, just as iron and gold have different natures” (Caitanya-caritamṛta Adi 4:164). With love you will give peace of mind to your wife and be faithful to her. If in her is coded death, you will surely overcome.

Nevertheless, under the mode of lust, your manhood will never rest with the daughters of men. And lust generates anger in so many ways, which leads to the downward path in the journey of life. Desires embedded in lust robs humans of inner peace.

Schopenhauer said that “as long as we are given up to a throne of desires, we can never have lasting happiness or peace”. As we defeat lust, we must also defeat anger in the home. We must walk on the path wherein our blessings will be as sure as daylight.

The Prophet Mohammed admonished: “He is not strong who may defeat everyone in a wrestling bout. Mighty is he who controls himself even in a fit of anger” (Sayings of Prophet Mohammed, 22, p.25, by Abdur Raheem Kidwai).

Now, there is an important ancient admonition in the Shariyat, which I hereby urge every earthman to demonstrate practically in his home, especially with his wife, but also with all humans, however. A real man must learn how to live with his wife in the state of selflessness. The admonition goes thus:

“What a man receives in contemplation, he must pour out in love Those living in the state of selflessness will speak gently and carefully, selecting their words to give life to others” (The Shariyat p. 427).

CONDITION NUMBER EIGHT

The daughters of men on this platform, are those who have favour and dry leaf simultaneously. In the in-between life before physical birth, they go on one side and receive the absolute destiny of favour; they also go to the other side and receive the absolute destiny of dry leaf.

Some great rivers, lesser rivers and streams of wealth are involved here. The favour, blessings and wealth following them have conditions of activation. Also, the dry leaf of the desert, which is part of them, have conditions of activation. In this connection, all depends on her husband.

Such a woman may not commit adultery in general terms, because adultery or no adultery is not part of her absolute destiny. Thus, on one hand she may partake therein, on the other hand she may keep off; all depends on how her husband handles her heart.

For such a daughter of man, she will observe that the thought of committing adultery may come into her mind from time to time, when her husband hurts her so deep. When her husband gives her peace of mind is the only time he has her to himself as a wife. When she is deeply hurt, she is something else. If her husband gets a clue of what goes on in her thoughts when she is deeply hurt, I tell you, the man will run for his life.

It is only when she is fully married and has inner peace that the wealth with her will fully manifest. However, any man she loved before her marriage, will have a little evidence of favour, especially if he shares material things with her in love.

In certain terms, she has the propensity of spiritual growth, but her husband must properly guide her within the framework of their belief systems. Peace of heart enables her to be holy and properly situated on the path of Light.

When this daughter of man fails here, through lack of inner peace of heart, arising from the actions of her husband, for as long as she lives with him, she will live almost as a 'demon' in his home. As far as the negative side of this kind of destiny is concerned, it represents one of the worst misfortunes that can befall the earthman, with regards to abject poverty.

This daughter of man on the other side is truly a blessed one. If her husband will be patient with her, love her, give her inner peace of heart, shower her with appreciation, place her above all women, make her to thoroughly enjoy sexual activity, allow her total freedom to worship God, pray together always with her and speak sweet words into her consciousness; it will surely come to pass that he will fully realise that in his home dwells an 'angel' of wealth, blessings and favour.

In the in-between life, the favour aspect of her absolute destiny goes thus: “Upon your life on Earth, any man that marries you and through him and in him you find inner peace of heart, by the Spirit of Light in God that lives, we will decorate him with a garment of favour, of blessings and of wealth”.

Earthman, this is no joke, neither is it a theory emanating from the mundane mind. Several times, the Great Ones of Light above have taken the Harbinger of the Last Covenant into the subtle realms of in-between life. Therefore, I speak not merely of what I 'believe', but of what I know.

However, whether or not you approve the contents of this my open letter to the earthmen, please ensure henceforth that you live in peace with your wife. Whether you worship God in the church, in the mosque, in the temple, in the bethel, in the ashram, or in the synagogue, live in peace with your wife.

In all the aforementioned places of sacred worship, you are taught how to maintain peace in your home. Thus, even if you discard this treatise, because of the forgoing complicated unveiled mysteries beyond your belief system, endeavour to abide by the teachings of your place of worship in this connection.

Nevertheless, if you are a traditionalist who doesn't participate in the above named places of sacred worship, does your tradition tell you to torment the heart of your wife at all times? Any tradition that tells you so, will surely ruin your earth-life, if you abide by it.

Now, on the other side of the forgoing daughter of man, the negative side of dry leaf obtained in her absolute destiny, related to the subject matter of this treatise, it goes in this manner in the in-between life existence:

“We have heard and by the law that never changes, we must respect the destiny of honour bestowed upon you on the side that holds a division from here. But this destiny we also bestow upon you here: Any man that marries you, during your sojourn on Earth, if he fails to give you inner peace and joy, surely we will make him a 'fowl' that scatters”.

I have clearly seen this in the realms beyond. There are many women on Earth today who have these as the basis of their existence, though unknown to them in the physical aspects of their present lives.

I even saw this concerning a daughter of man. I called her and her husband together and told them the true situation of things. This has now helped both of them to be steadfast and grow up more on the path of Light.

Now, earthman, if you have such a daughter of man as your wife, endeavour at all times, by all means, by prayers, even if it requires crying unto the Lord of the Universe, do so to ensure that she has inner peace at all times. If you fail, I tell you, 'your eyes will see your ears'. This is so because so many things are connected with her on the negative side of her absolute destiny.

For instance, if there is a quarrel between her and her husband and she receives a slap from him, it becomes a direct invitation to abject poverty upon his head. What follows the negative side of her absolute destiny snoozes around her most times. Thus, if her husband commits adultery, she will get the signal of it even in her physical aspect. And this will be used against the man in so many ways.

All daughters of men on this condition of existence have high spirit of anger in their negative sides. Bringing out anger in such a daughter of man, automatically puts upon her husband a dark garment of poverty. No matter what he does, if he likes let him fast and pray to God for blessings even for a thousand days, for as long as the anger in his wife is not resolved in peace, he will remain in the dungeon of lack and want.

Some of these daughters of men can stab their husbands to death in anger, or poison him to death in anger. When her husband makes peace with her after a quarrel, she forgives but hardly forgets. When the man misbehaves in another occasion, the former wound will resonate in her mind, as fresh and intense as it was when previously enacted.

This is the negative nature of most women, however. But in the case of this kind, her husband is held down the more, because such situations work against her husband even when she appears to have forgiven and act within the elements of peace.

The slightest thought against her husband matters a lot, though in this, all women are involved. The slightest thought of a woman against her husband opens up the Pandora's box in the home.

Now, the husband of this daughter of man must not borrow money from her and refuse to pay back. This will be used against him. To be on a safer side, endeavour to pay her back possibly more than you took from her, in love and peace.

Her tears of sorrow for the misdeeds of her husband, is a rain of lack and want upon him. This contributes in many ways towards making him a fowl that scatters. His life will be scattered in many dimensions, to the extent that he will surely know that all is not well with him in the world of man.

When she truly returns to inner peace of heart, it will take awhile for her husband to be restored on the path of favour, blessings and wealth. As the time of his restoration comes, the negative side of her will test him to ascertain his true worthiness.

At this point, little thing can stir up irritation and possibly anger in her against her husband. Remember that before this time, her inner heart has been at peace with her husband, the basis of which favour is about to be released on him. Now, the man must overcome the test to possess the coming favour. If he fails the test, things won't change for the better around him, until he returns her mind to inner peace.

Even if such a man was scheduled to meet the president of a nation, who will financially empower him in two days time, if he fails the test, when the day of the said empowerment comes, he will be strangely disappointed.

The time of this test is not the time for him to join issues with his wife at all. Though there is no good time to be thus engaged. However, the earthman at this moment of test, realizing that his wife is irritated by little things coming from him, should use his tongue to count his teeth.

He should endeavour not to bring up his mundane characteristics of old, on the platform of which quarrels are enacted. He should not use mere logic to follow his wife, because her behaviour at that point will be completely bereft of any sound logic. He should pacify her with love and at least dance to her tones within the moment point, because after thunder there will be rain.

By succeeding in restoring peace to her, which banishes the elements of irritations and anger, the man would have passed an important test; a test to further subjugate his life. By passing this test also, the negative side of his wife's absolute destiny will be disarmed. Consequently, he stands blessed, which he must work hard to sustain, via love and peace.

Such earthman will surely and later share a testimony of favour upon his life. The greatest battle facing the husband of such a daughter of man, is embedded on how to remove the garment of abject poverty and put on the robe of blessings and favour. Therefore, you must watch out, if you have such a daughter of man as your wife.

Any period you observe that her heart, being able to abide in peace for a considerable amount of time and all of sudden, for no reasonable cause in your terms, she becomes irritated by whatever you say or do, be matured enough to overcome that moment with love. It is for your victory in the battles of life.

OTHER RELATED CONDITIONS

Now, the daughters of men embedded in diverse conditions of absolute destiny, as related to favour, blessings and wealth in the world of man, may or may not be born into a wealthy family.

The conditions of favour upon women in the in-between life before physical birth, as far as the absolute aspect of destiny is concerned, are so numerous. Generally speaking, they are grouped into more than five hundred segments. Some of these are major, while some are minor.

I can't speak of all of these in totality, but suffice it to say that all such conditions are embedded in the elements of the fact that when you give your wife inner peace and joy, the favour of the Lord upon her will be released to you. This is the aspect that you should never forget in the journey of life on Earth.

Nevertheless, there are some daughters of men who come upon the condition that their hearts should never be deeply hurt by their husbands even once. Inherent in them is a total lack of the ability to truly forgive a son of man.

The moment he hurts her so deep, that is the end of the matter. She will always put up the attitude which will ensure that her husband remains bamboozled on how to give her inner peace again. An aspect of her will ensure that this peace is never achieved in the home, to enable her husband remain subjugated.

The husband of this kind of woman has a lot to do for peace to reign. For him to possibly overcome, he has to be fully and firmly established on the path of Light. However, as soon as her heart is deeply hurt just for once, there is no going back, as inherent in her absolute destiny.

Thus, the wealth following her will automatically revert back to her, and physically manifest only through her, not her husband in this case.

Even when the man does all he can to maintain peace in the home, the wealth in that family will only be physically manifested in the woman. The husband can only benefit from her through his persistent efforts of peace. Generally speaking, the woman will be richer than the man. Such women are mostly streams of wealth.

Divorce often occurs in such marriages. But whether divorce occurs or not, the woman sees the man secretly in her heart as not worthy of her. She merely bears his name just to be seen as a married woman. Her secret heart is constantly in search of true love, in her terms, from other sons of men.

This aspect of her heart can easily be deceived by the sons of men, who offer stones instead of bread. It is not possible for her to be faithful to a husband who has once deeply hurt her. Therefore, she must commit adultery, by virtue of her absolute destiny, which plays out from the moment her heart is deeply hurt as aforementioned.

Her faithfulness to him is embedded in the destiny that he won't hurt her, otherwise the reverse is the case, no matter what he does later to please her. Describing the consciousness of such a woman, whose secret heart has left her husband, Abd-ru-shin stated thus:

“Often enough many a woman prefers the coarse and really insulting flattery of some idler to the faithful labour of her husband”
(The Grail Message vol. 1, p. 149).

This expression fits into the existence of the forgoing daughters of men. The best option for an earthman in this connection is to ensure that there is peace in the home. With this, people will generally see the family as blessed with some wealth and he will somehow partake therein, even as the house in which they dwell may be built by his wife, amongst other things.

However, if the man fails in this regard, except the marriage is dissolved, but for as long as she bears his name and they live together, the absolute destiny of his wife will eventually turn him into her 'servant'. His existence there will therefore be configured into the life of near 'slavery'.

Now, there is a group of other daughters of men operating on a different condition of absolute destiny, related to wealth in the world of man. They come with wealth but also with a destiny of not being under any man in marriage. What they come with to this end manifest physically through themselves. They do not get married. They fornicate with different men.

Generally speaking, they may appear to be happy, but within the innermost parts of their hearts, they lack inner peace of heart and true joy of life; for these attributes flow to the daughters of men from the sons of men. Some of these are rivers and streams of wealth.

In like manner, some daughters of men have a destiny under the condition related slightly to the above, but with a difference. Such ones also come with wealth in the terms of streams and rivers of same. The difference is that they seek to be married to a man.

They are so caring and this helps their search for a husband.

But they do not have the destiny of getting married just to any man. They have a heart of love, therefore they seek love in return. But they can't settle down with any man unless they are sure of his love, and in such terms they are not lucky with men as evident in their absolute destinies.

They often remain unmarried because of not finding a worthy man in their terms. They are also eluded of inner peace of heart, however, for not finding true love. They are mostly unmarried, but they help people a lot due to their hearts of mercy.

They can also be easily deceived by false male lovers. They don't mind becoming a second or third wife to a man, provided she is sure of his love towards her. They are usually very religious and make enormous financial contributions towards the service of God in their respective belief systems. Generally speaking, they are good daughters of men.

There are other women on a different condition of wealth. Such a daughter of man, from the day you proposed to her and she accepts to be your wife, if you fornicate with another woman, your ways will be blocked. If care is not taking, you may find it difficult to raise money required for the fulfilment of the marriage ceremony. This is her destiny.

However, if you succeed in finally getting married to her, refrain from adultery and give her inner peace of heart, the favour, blessings and wealth following her will automatically be yours. If you fail in this connection, these things following her won't flow out to you. And because these things can't also flow out to her without the true love of her husband, then both of you will live a life of poverty. Such daughters of men do not commit adultery.

There are some daughters of men, any slightest beating she receives from her husband during the period of her menstrual cycle, will completely block the way of the man till further notice; till she forgives her husband whilst her mind returns to the state of inner peace of heart. This is also a destiny.

There are daughters of men, even from their childhood, whosoever knocks her head father, mother, brother, sister, uncle, teacher it becomes serious invitation to unwanted predicaments. When she finally gets married, this also plays out in larger proportions towards her husband. She is a carrier of favour and wealth, but by this and if her husband is not careful, he may inherit the wind.

Some daughters of men have yet another kind of absolute destiny in this connection. They are carriers of both streams and rivers of favour. Condition of inner peace of heart is involved. But even then, larger portions of the favour upon her is released on her husband at any point he makes her reach orgasm during copulation. This kind doesn't commit adultery.

In another condition, a daughter of man can marry without love in her heart for the man, but solely for the purpose of having children. She expects love from her husband and if he gives her peace of mind, her favour and wealth will follow him. If he gives her pain, then he should be prepared for misfortunes.

The pain in her heart raises certain forces against the man. These will ensure that the earthman is completely placed in a situation wherein he will be incapable of tormenting her heart. Consequently, such a son of man could be struck by a deadly disease capable of paralyzing him. This is designed to incapacitate him, so that he will be unable to engage with her in any quarrel.

To this daughter of man, adultery is a must, especially from the moment her heart is in pain following the actions of her husband. Thus, through her adulterous life, the forces raised against her husband, inherent in her absolute destiny, will further ensure that fabrics of his subtle aspects is served food in a dustbin. In other words, through adultery, the woman feeds her husband in a dustbin, but unknown to both of them in their physical aspects.

There are some daughters of men who also come into the world of man with great rivers and streams of wealth. They are lovely ones, but death is also attached with certain aspects of their destiny of wealth. Such a daughter of man loves her husband in a tremendous manner. From the moment the man seeks her hand in marriage, changes will begin to occur to him for the better.

This kind of a woman loves and trust her man so much. She can do anything or go to any length to defend him. She doesn't entertain the thought of whether or not her husband commits adultery, for as long as he doesn't throw such to her face. And she cannot practice adultery.

However, her absolute destiny, the forces thereof, forbid one thing: the man must never marry another woman or cause another woman to be pregnant for him. The failure of the man in this connection will automatically generate in her one of the highest pains that will ever occur in the heart of a daughter of man.

The subtle aspects of this acute pain will immediately revert back to the realms of in-between life. It will then draw out and activate the elements of death against the man, from some units of the probable systems of his destiny. And when it finally comes to physical manifestation, accidental death is involved.

There are some daughters of men who also come into the world of man from the realms of favour, according to the absolute destiny which doesn't change, but on a different condition. She is ready to love her husband and give him the best of herself. But under no circumstances should any of her material thing be wasted through the carelessness of her husband.

Like all other daughters of men, her favour demands inner peace of heart from her husband for physical manifestation. The fabrics of her destiny of favour forbid losing her things via the nonchalant attitudes of her husband.

Failure to help her secure and manage her things, raises financial insecurity and crises upon the head of her husband. These things I am saying are not mere theories; they are practical things associated with diverse aspects of absolute destiny, embedded in the daughters of men coming with favour and blessings, from the in-between life before physical birth.

There are many things to say along these lines of thought, which are not said here, but what I have said so far should at least provide enough guidance to those who have the ears to hear. Now, earthman, if you have a wife with favour, then please be very careful always to achieve this favour.

To this end, to the extent that you have been successful after your marriage, to that extent you will know what you have caused her to offer you. And before we go into the rudiments of the dry leaves of the desert, carriers of only the yoke of poverty, let's first discuss the symbols of the Heavens and Earth, as the Harbinger of the Last Covenant was taught in the Spirit by the Lord of the Universe.

SYMBOLS OF HEAVEN AND EARTH

In the Spirit, I was led by the Great One from above, a Heavenly Being of Light, into the inosculate subtle spheres of God's Light in our Solar System, via a flight of the holy gods. This region is the boundary between the middle Planetary Systems (which includes but not limited to the Earth-world) and the higher Planetary Systems, wherein dwells denizens of the Heavenly realms of Light.

This is a subtle region that exists within the electromagnetic ambers of ethereal intensities, which transcends the human recognition of space and time; making space and time feeble in approximation to higher realities in the Universes of God.

This isn't my first guided visit by the holy Angels above into this region. And what I saw, I have seen before, but this time it came under a different reality of divine lessons.

I saw, and, behold, a field of golden grasses. There, a man was on top of a woman, in a manner of playing around her 'garden'. As earlier stated, this wasn't my first time of going there, seeing such and learning some vital lessons, which includes but not limited to the hidden truth of man and woman.

We must understand that the mysteries of man and woman are the sum-total of the mystery of the Earth-world. In such terms, whatever concerns man and woman affects the entire Earth-world. Again, we must understand that Souls in their original estates before physical birth, are neither Hindus, Christians, Buddhists, Muslims, amongst others.

Souls are identities far beyond the bodily identifications of religions. The camouflage systems of these religions, though vital to the human existence on the physical realms of Earth, but are discarded within the order of inheritance of the higher Heavenly realms of Light.

Therefore, as you may have observed from the contents of the forgoing material, I speak much here of what a coming Soul personality of the feminine gender brings into physical manifestations, not much of what the human aspects have to offer within the ambit of religions and traditions established on Earth. Thus, I am speaking of what a Soul personality imbibes on its way downward into the physical realms of Earth, before becoming a Christian, Muslim or whatever, in its human aspect.

Now, it came to pass in this region that the Great Lord Jesus the Christ appeared to me. The Great One from above was there. And the Lord shewed me a mystery of the Heavens and Earth in symbolic terms. The Holy Bible (King James Version) was brought by the Great One from above and given to the Lord. The Lord in turn directed me to read a portion, which says:

“Drop down, ye Heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the Earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it” (Isa. 45:8).

Now, the Great Lord Jesus the Christ explained that the man on top of the woman, which I earlier saw in this realm, were divine symbols of the Heavens and Earth. I will explain here all that I was taught in the Spirit by the Lord Himself.

As a man on top of a woman is placed above her, so the Heavens are placed above the Earth. In this divine terms, man is the symbol of the Heavens (fire), while woman is the symbol of the Earth(water). To this end, it was said to the Heavens: “Drop down, ye Heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness”.

When it was said “Drop down, ye Heavens, from above”, this, in certain divine terms, is the descending process of the masculine Soul personality into the realms of Matter, Energy, Space and Time, namely, the world of man.

This “drop down” has a purpose far beyond what is generally known. But in a nutshell, this has to do with the Heavens joining the Earth, for the consummate balance of existence, which ultimately centralise on the pole of Universal oneness.

As the Heavens enter into the cycle of dropping down, it was further said: “And let the skies pour down righteousness”. This is a great mission, embedded within the probable systems of Soul personalities, in the framework of the masculine gender.

For his divine ascent in the journey of life, it is given to the earthman to bring forth the fruits of righteousness in Light. When he does this, the daughter of man with him will joyfully tap the spirit of peace from him.

Then jointly both of them will begin the journey back to Heaven. If he fails here, the daughter of man will ensure that he is held in the bondage of Earth; in the illusions of gross material aggrandizement, manipulation and association; even as Mother Eve did to the primordial Adam.

“Let the skies pour down righteousness”. The “skies” in this connection, as explained to me in the Spirit by the Lord Himself, symbolises the subtle fabrics of sacred nature, embedded in the masculine Soul personality, within the probable systems of the destiny of man.

Thus, the “skies”, the fabrics of this sacred nature, have a specific divine mission, namely, to “pour down righteousness” on the physical realms of Earth. If this is enacted, a mission of the destiny of honour will be fulfilled by the earthman in the world of man. If this fails, a mission of dishonour will manifest and subsist.

Earthman, the physical sky cannot literally pour down righteousness upon the children of men. Righteousness in thoughts, words and deeds -- is manifested via the consciousness of human. When righteousness is poured down, peace, joy and love prevail; for peace, love and joy are fundamental attributes of righteousness.

Now, Oh earthman, the skies of the Heavens wasn't told to pour down cars, houses, money, silver and gold. Rather, it was specifically directed by the Lord of the Universe to pour down righteousness. You cannot pour down or give what you don't have. You cannot run beyond your shadow.

The “skies”, the fabrics of sacred nature embedded in the probable destinies of “Heaven” sons of men -- doesn't have cars, money, houses, silver and gold to pour into the world of man. In coming into the world of man, it doesn't come with such things. It can only pour down righteousness or fails to pour down righteousness, period.

When the Heavens drop down, and the skies pour down righteousness, this automatically enables the Earth to open “let the Earth open”. The Earth can't open until righteousness is poured down from Heaven.

All the material things of life on Earth are all offshoots of Earth; they are all in, and from, this material world. They didn't come from other Planets. And woman is the symbol of Earth. Therefore, when the Earth opens, because Heaven has poured down righteousness, things will begin to happen.

This was all about man and woman in the symbolic terms of the Lord, as made known to me by the Great Lord Jesus the Christ in the realms beyond. When the Heavens pour down righteousness and the Earth opens, bringing them into one unit of agreement, they will both jointly achieve what the Lord said thus: “And let them bring forth salvation”.

Now, “salvation” in what terms? In the first place, each of them can't bring “salvation” alone. Hence it was said, in the order of perfect agreement in love, “and let them bring forth salvation”.

The word “salvation” is used here, in the light of the divine truth, of man and woman working together in unity and love; this enables them to be steadfast and perfectly situated on the immutable platform of righteousness, wherein they stand salvaged.

They must work together to achieve this “salvation”, that is to be salvaged from all that seek to hold the children of men down, or earthly bondage, in the journey of life. Remember, it was recorded thus in the Holy Scriptures:

“And the LORD God said, it is not good that the man should be alone;

I will make him an help meet for him” (Gen. 2:18).

What is it that wasn't good, in divine terms, for the earthman being alone in the journey of life? Because, ultimately his eyes will see his ears on Earth. To balance his systems of Being, God gave him a woman, so that he wouldn't be alone. As it is written: “Woe to him that is alone” (Ecc. 4:10).

The coming together of man and woman Heaven and Earth in the journey of life, is not a tea party; it is a serious business of the One Eternal Almighty God. They both have a great mission to be jointly performed. Each is important to the other.

When they work together, they bring forth salvation; thus, they stand salvaged. And on the platform wherein they are salvaged, righteousness is the prime impetus. “And let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it”.

At this point, the man shares in the woman and the woman shares in the man. Light is added to Light, favour is added to favour, and blessing is added to blessing; Light is added to peace in righteousness, for the good of all.

Then from the woman favour is added to the man for the life of both; from the man comes righteousness, which “spring up together” in them, bringing forth the divine goodness of peace, love and joy, for the embellishments of the Heavens and Earth. This is the sure foundation upon which man and woman will fulfil the benevolent mission of honour in the world of man.

You have heard about the man revealed upon the 'garden' of a daughter of man in the realms beyond; the man on top of the woman. Now, let the one on top lift up the one bellow let the Heavens descend with righteousness to help the Earth.

Let the one on top lift up the one bellow in righteousness, even in peace, love and joy; so that he will hold her firm upon the ethers of grace and lead her perfectly into the chambers of Light in the higher realms of Heavenly Light in God. Behold, earthman, this is your great mission in the world of man, even in the life of a daughter of man.

Now, to you Oh Earth, even to you that lies bellow, do not ever strive to be on top of the one who is on top of you. For in this, you will surely fail. Open up and let righteousness spring up together. Do not hold down the one on top of you; for when you hold another down, you hold down yourself as well.

Open up and let righteousness flow in, so that in righteousness and peace the favour in you will flow out, and both of you will at last ascend into the Heavenly realms of Light beyond the world of man. This is the greatest mission, which in togetherness both of you should fulfil.

Now, dear reader of this material, I have spiritually realised certain fundamental truths about the journey of man and woman on the physical realms of Earth. To this end, and in symbolic terms, there is a great sea, a turbulent one for that matter, that borders the Heavenly realms of Light into which you should ascend, and the material Earth-world in which you dwell.

On one side is Heaven, while on the other side is Earth, both divided by the turbulent sea with strange waves. The children of men on the physical realms of Earth must cross the turbulent sea before they could get into the higher Heavenly realms of Light. But they can't cross this turbulent sea by any means, without the help of the Great Ones from Heaven, who come into the world of man to help the children of men.

These Great Ones from above come to the world of man with extraordinary ships, capable of crossing the turbulent sea, even capable of flying upon the waters. They come to take the children of men across the sea into the realms of Light in Heaven. Their ships are anchored by the seashore on the side of the Earth-world.

All that is expected from the children of men is nothing but just to make a little effort, enter a ship and be crossed over to the other side the (Heavenly realms of Light under the guidance of the Great Ones, who are expert captains of the extraordinary ships. The Great Ones won't force anyone into a ship to be crossed over, rather you have to enter it yourself, by your volition.

Now, the attempt to enter into a ship in this connection, brings intense battle in the world of man, between Heaven and Earth man and woman. Man and woman, each plays opposing role in this regard, and therein lies the great battle of life in the world of man.

On one hand, man is made to hold woman firm, peacefully take her into a ship, and cross over the turbulent sea with her. On the other hand, woman is somehow made to hold man back upon the sand of the Earth-world, delay or possibly prevent him entirely from entering the benevolent ship. Again, herein lies the great battle. And the one that prevails will take the children alongside himself or herself.

Earthman, if you know that you truly love yourself, you must be very careful in your dealings with the daughters of men, lest one of them holds you back in the world of man. If you must take her with you across the turbulent sea of life into the realms of Light, you must pour down righteousness. Otherwise, you will be held back by her.

When you pour down righteousness, peace, joy and love will automatically come into manifestations. I tell you the truth, the only language that is dear to the hearts of the daughters of men, the only language they hear, is the language of peace of heart in love.

Therefore, you have a great divine responsibility towards the daughter of man your wife. If you must take her with you across the turbulent sea of life, the only basis for her to gladly walk into the ship with you, is when you give her inner peace of heart in love, otherwise you will fail and remain behind.

Let man behave as man, because woman will behave as woman. Child will behave as child; goat will behave as goat; river will behave as water, and so on. Does tree behave like lion? Does elephant behave like eagle? Don't you know that woman must behave as woman? In this you must be wise; you must possess the wisdom of Light, Oh earthman.

Do you think to be a man is all about having a penis in-between your legs? To be a man is far more than that. Therefore, you must be spiritually and psychologically prepared to guide the daughter of man in the journey of life back to the higher realms of Heavenly Light in God.

Even when you are fully and firmly committed towards guiding her back to the Supreme Light of God, you must be prepared to tolerate any occasional expression of hers that doesn't conform to your reciprocal expectations. Just continue on the path of Light with her, knowing that woman will behave as woman.

Whenever her heart is in any state of confusion, endeavour to guide her back to Light. Always help her heart, by pouring down upon it the spirit of righteousness, in which is peace, love and joy. Speak lovely words into her heart from time to time, to enable her heart be kept in the state of inner peace.

When she makes a mistake, don't chastise her with harsh words, lest you bring confusion into her heart. When she makes a mistake, she needs your help to help her out.

I tell you, if you chastise her with harsh words at that moment of her mistake, she may even make more mistakes to compound the already bad situation. But this you may not know, Oh son of man. And in this, you are held down the more in the illusory phantasmagoria and material propensities of the earth-life. Behold, I have warned you.

DRY LEAVES OF THE DESERT

Herein lies the most dangerous aspects of the absolute destiny of some daughters of men in the world of man. Remember, on the good side, the side of favour upon the daughters of men, the wise King Solomon of ancient Israel stated:

“Whose findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the Lord” (Pro. 18:22).

The bad side of this, the dry leaf of the desert, is the worst thing that can happen to a son of man in the world of man. The subtle aspects of the 'garden' of such daughters of men are in the pond of water which doesn't flow at all. They hold in themselves the core spirits of death and destruction in many ways. The wise King Solomon described them thus:

“And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands;
whose pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her” (Ecc. 7:26).

You can never escape from the vicious devices of a dry leaf of the desert, except you are truly in tune with the Spirit of Light in the Almighty God. “Whose pleaseth God shall escape from her”. This entails, as earlier stated in this treatise, still giving her inner peace of heart, so that the mercy of the Lord will reach you for escape.

Then, through the benevolent spirits of some daughters of men who wish you well, you will peacefully walk with the dry leaf on the rough path of gradual growth. Otherwise, you will learn in practical terms how a tree that doesn't know how to dance is taught how to dance by the mighty wind.

Sons of men, know and understand that the “sinner”, the earthman who fails to give inner peace of mind to a dry leaf of the desert, will surely be ruined in the journey of life “but the sinner shall be taken by her”. This is no joke.

In so many ways, the abode of such daughters of men is the realm even worse than death. “And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands”. Such daughters of men have existed in all the generations of men to our time.

However, in their physical aspects, they don't know themselves as dry leaves, but they are found everywhere churches, mosques, governments, communities, amongst others. A dry leaf of the desert may, to some extent, be doing well for herself in financial terms, before marriage.

All women seen to be poor financially, before being married, are not dry leaves. We are talking about what is embedded in the absolute aspect of a destiny in the in-between life before physical birth, beyond the earthly camouflage generally known and seen about her in the human terms.

When you are properly situated in the Light of God, and pray for divine guidance before involving yourself in marriage, through your dreams and revelations things will be shown to you in this regard, but mostly in symbolic terms. If you fail to follow this path of divine guidance, then it becomes a game of luck, but ultimately there is nothing like luck or chance in existence.

There is always an inner subtle basis or providence the Finger of God who formed light and darkness -- that guides all events, situations, experiences and circumstances in all the Universes of God. Now, in one occasion, a daughter of man came to me with a complaint against her husband. She spoke about how her husband doesn't give her money.

Though I called her husband and advised him to be giving her some financial support. Thereafter, I was told in the Spirit that the woman was a dry leaf of the desert that brought nothing into the life of her husband. You see, she wanted something, yet she brought nothing from which she could rightly receive. Her life is just a 'cross' that her husband must carry.

An Apostle of a church wrote me from Tanzania. This was when he observed how things became bad for him, soon after his marriage to a daughter of man, who is equally a 'good Christian sister'. He explained that before he married her, he prayed and had series of dreams.

In the dream, which repeated itself several times, he found himself dropping from the upper floor of a building to the ground floor. He also had a dream wherein he found himself driving a big truck loaded with goods. At a point he observed that his proposed wife was seated with him in the truck. Then the truck, while attempting to cross a fence, which it could not, finally turned upside down.

He finally wrote me, saying amongst other things: “After my marriage to my wife, my ministry, finances, everything, started going down. The favour that I had with people started diminishing”. Well, his dreams clearly warned him, but he didn't understand at that point.

However, the wise learns from hearing, but the fool learns from experience. Remember, grass stops growing when a stone falls on it and worms begin to breed under the stone. If the inexplicable happens the unimaginable is queried, the unquestionable is imagined. And as circumstance saddens the face of a son of man, let it also sharpen his understanding.

Now, in the in-between life before physical birth, the daughters of men coming as the dry leaves of the desert, are involved in so many things in so many ways. But upon each is planted, in the absolute destiny, the dry leaf of the desert. In this in-between life existence, they are brought into alignment with the life-forms of diverse species.

They make this choice themselves in certain terms. From the pool of the 8,400,000 species in the Universe, under different groupings, the dry leaves choose forms of astral identifications.

Consequently, they are placed under different conditions of operations. The form of cobra is the worst and the most vicious form of identification in this regard.

The choice of a form having been made, the coming Soul personality of the feminine gender dry leaf of the desert is further guided to visit different spots in the world of man.

Such visits occur in a dreamlike state from the reference point of the coming Soul. At this point, the pregnancy leading to the physical birth of the Soul may or may not have taken place.

Amongst the places to be visited by such Souls includes but not limited to deserts, deep forests, dry trees, graves, mountains and hills. In symbolic terms, these are elements of poverty. Most of these daughters of men are constantly followed by the elements of death, obtained during their subjective visits to the graves.

Of such daughters of men, we read: “For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead” (Pro. 2:18). Apart from the physical aspects of death herein associated with such daughters of men, this also includes how their destinies of dishonour cause good things to “die” in the lives of the sons of men.

“Her house inclineth unto death”. In certain terms, she is the aforementioned “house”, which deals with the mission of her Soul destiny. It was also said: “And her paths unto the dead”. This has to do with her character, her provocative attitudes, her paths, her ways of.

Most of these daughters of men dry leaves of the desert -- are involved in adulteries; most of them are species of extreme exasperations; while some of them are involved in both. It is difficult to please them, but not impossible, and this is what a son of man will contend with.

To partake in sexual activity with a daughter of man, who is a carrier of the dry leaf of the desert, is the worst experience in the subtle fabrics of the Souls of men.

“Her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword. Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell” (Pro. 5:4,5).

Now, earthman, do you know why we were commanded by the holy gods, wise men of old, the saints and apostles, even by the Great Lord Jesus the Christ, not to commit adultery and fornication? This is to save us from so many things, especially from being entangled with the dry leaves of the desert found all over the world of man.

The dry leaves of the desert are carriers of the static ponds of dirty water in their 'gardens'. This is the element of the highest pollution found even in the entire Universe. Part of the mission of these daughters of men is to pollute the entire world of man with fornication and adultery.

If by any mistake you get yourself there, then be prepared to take whatever you see. God Himself even said that “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge” (Hos. 4:6).

When the earthman is thus polluted, anything from the realms of darkness can happen to him anytime. Anyone that is truly out to salvage you, will tell you to refrain from fornication and adultery, lest you ruin yourself by yourself.

Now, if about one hundred apples are kept in a place, but three of them are poisoned with what will instantly kill a human being, then children are invited to come and eat the apples, will you allow any of your children to join others in eating from the apples? You certainly won't allow that, not because all the apples are poisoned, but because of the three poisoned ones in the midst of the rest.

You won't allow your kids to partake thereof, because you are committed to safeguarding and salvaging them from death, pre-adventure any of them eats one of the poisoned apples and die. To some extent, this is related to the divine messages to the children of men, directing them to completely refrain from fornication and adultery.

A dry leaf of the desert can bring about the death of her husband, without knowing that she is responsible for it in her hidden aspects. Her being is a “house of death”, and through such women, many men have lost their lives.

In some occasions, before her marriage, a man may have sex with such a woman, and this may lead to his instant death. Many men have died in different hotels, and in diverse places, after having sex with some dry leaves of the desert.

Even while she is married, what is following her can lead a man she committed or committing adultery with to death. Fire, accident, gun shots, thunder amongst other things can kill him. He can be killed in the sleep state. This is mostly done to those who fornicate with such daughters of men when they are spinsters, and those who commit adultery with them after marriage.

However, to the husband of such daughters of men dry leaves of the desert -- his earth-life is in serious danger, especially if he continues on the path of hurting her heart.

Earthman, the issue at hand here isn't a joking matter at all. Don't be carried away by the shinning 'gardens' of the daughters of men, for in some of them lies the awful spirits of death.

A man who indulges in fornication or adultery with such a daughter of man, must inherit from her subtle fabrics the elements of misfortunes, diseases, ill-luck, poverty or death. And a husband who gives pain to her heart is equally doomed. Often, such husbands die from the pains of a prolonged disease.

Now, the dry leaves of the desert have a most dangerous aspect. This aspect is carried out by those of them whose subtle fabrics appear subjectively as cobras. This type operate under the most bizarre condition. They are the most dangerous daughters of men in the world of man and in the generations of men, with dirty ponds of static water.

They have destinies in which reality is completely transposed and the earthman is treated less than a moron. For instance, such daughters of men do not hide their acts of adultery from their husbands. This is strange but it happens in the world of man.

A woman of this kind, having completely subdued her husband, and the man being paralysed by stroke or a strange disease in which he can't stand up from his bed alone without help, can bring another man into the house wherein is her husband and commit adultery to his knowledge. Such a husband will eventually die in that house. This kind of a thing has happened in Odukpani community, Cross River State, Nigeria.

Some of them who commit adultery outside the house, whose husbands are in relatively good health, even if he caught her in the act, by the destiny of the woman wherein he is entangled in marriage, he is expected not to raise eyebrows or be angry at all.

In this connection, if he becomes angry or says any word contrastive to the adulterous act of his wife, this will be seriously used against him. This will eventually lead to his death through a prolonged disease.

I am also aware that this happened to a certain man in Sapele, Delta State, Nigeria. Remember, “Her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword. Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell” (Pro. 5:4,5). And “her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead” (Pro. 2:18). The Everlasting Gospel had warned in our time thus:

“You want God to give you life, money, husband or wife, but entirely forgetting about asking God to destroy the instinct of promiscuity and fornication in you so that you may live a righteous and pure life unto Him.

“... All women in the association of prostitutes should be advised to withdraw forthwith, for the job is destructive and killing. All those who go about prostituting, jumping from pillar to post in search of man or woman, should be advised to stop immediately.

“Both men and women should advise themselves on this issue of fornication because the destruction and calamity that will befall fornicators is dreadful and incomprehensible. They will be dying and perishing in millions (TEG, vol. 1, 13:11,151,152).

Here, it is said that such persons “will be dying and perishing in millions”. This may or may not be in terms of mere physical death in earthly terms. But one thing is certain: when you get yourself entangled sexually with a dry leaf of the desert, all the affairs of your life are placed upon the ground of death.

Earthman, let the mouth that commits offence talk itself out of it. A true soldier is the one who fights and returns to tell the story. The only way a cobra protects itself is by attacking its prey.

Earthman, don't be a fool that accepts a ceasefire declared only when his father is killed in battle. The wise are polite and peaceful in this world but fools are wise only in the grave. A word is enough for the wise.

QUESTIONS FROM MY QUEEN

Earthman, before I conclude this my open letter on the hidden truth of man and woman, let me first of answer some few questions that my lovely queen (wife) asked me in the course of this treatise. Her questions go as follows:

QUESTION ONE:

“In the in-between life, during the making of destiny, does the woman know consciously what she is coming to be on Earth? If so, can she change anything and make a better choice at that point in time?”

Lady Imaobong Udemé Uzorma.

Now, in answer to this question, it is important to know that the consciousness inherent in the in-between life before physical birth, is more vivid and varied than the consciousness obtained on the physical realms of Earth. And there are several things involved in the forgoing making of diverse destinies.

However, from the reference point of the in-between life, reality follows a complete different framework beyond the framework of existence in the world of man. In the in-between life, the Souls there see their coming to the physical realms of Earth in the light of 'drama' or cosmic movies, to be played out on the physical landscape.

This doesn't mean that existence on the physical realms of Earth is reduced to mere stereotyped drama. Souls, apart from inheriting some absolute destinies, also come within the ambit of probabilities, in which lies not only volition but also the spontaneity that embellishes the general contours of awareness.

Nevertheless, existence on Earth is viewed from the reality of drama in the in-between life, though a serious drama in which Souls play diverse roles at a given time; and Souls by so doing 'learn' the materialisation of thoughts in a gross material setting that otherwise won't be.

In such terms, the Soul learn lessons on the benevolence and malevolence aspects of the physically oriented thoughts materialised into actions. And in a manner that is beyond human expression, these by reciprocity add to the multidimensional identity and consciousness of the Soul.

Consequently, the roles to be played out by Souls in the world of man are both assigned and agreed upon. The coming Soul in certain terms has his or her hand in the script to be played out in the physical realms of Earth .

To this end, the need to change an inherent absolute destiny, agreed upon, doesn't arise. Souls can only enact the upward or downward journey from the Earth, from the pool of probabilities.

It is just like when you are watching a drama, wherein a normal church pastor is seen in a movie playing the role of thief. And in his role as a thief, he is consequently arrested and finally imprisoned. We may query about why he chose the role. But he may have a better reason for doing so, in order to teach others the danger of following the path of crime.

QUESTION TWO:

“Can a woman who is a carrier of the dry leaf of the desert give birth to a daughter that comes with favour and blessings?”

Lady Imaobong Udemé Uzorma.

The answer is yes. The 'garden' of the daughter of man is just a passage route for Soul personalities into the world of man. There is no Universal rule that because one is a dry leaf of the desert, she must automatically give birth to daughters who themselves must be dry leaves of the desert likewise.

This is not a general rule, but in many instances it happens that way. A woman who is a carrier of the elements of favour and blessings can give birth to a dry leaf. A dry leaf of the desert can begat a blessed daughter of man. A blessed woman can give birth to another blessed woman, or some other blessed women. Likewise a dry leaf of the desert can bring forth another dry leaf, or other dry leaves.

QUESTION THREE:

“What about the man who was wealthy before marriage, but later went down soon after his marriage?”

Lady Imaobong Udeme Uzorma.

The wealth he had before marriage may have flowed to him from his mother, sister or sisters, a female friend, amongst others. And depending on the condition of his wife's absolute destiny, whether in favour or dry leaf, he may go down. Proper study of this treatise gives detailed explanation to this question.

THE CONCLUDING PART

Earthman, you may have known what you never knew in this treatise, but all are for your guidance in the journey of life. Remember, if you are already with the daughter of man in marriage, you owe her nothing but inner peace of heart always. This is for your good in the journey of life.

Now, Oh you daughters of men, you must learn how to forgive and forget the misdeeds of your husbands. Do not hold his misdeeds secretly within your inner heart while pretending to have forgiven him, yet your heart clings to them from time to time. Remember, when you hold another down, you also hold yourself in like manner.

Let the sons and daughters of men never, at any moment of time, allow the wrongs done them at any point in time by anyone to resonate in the secret heart. Free everyone in your hearts; reconcile with your adversaries; live and let live; “Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God” (Math. 5:8).

When you set your heart, Oh earthman, to seek a wife in the world of man, in your secret prayers to the Almighty, also seek for His divine guidance. Then listen carefully to the Spirit of the Lord within, and watch out for the symbolic communications that will come to you from above even in your dreams and other subjective encounters. Do this, lest you enter the path of dry leaves.

And to all my men all over the world, at this point in life, bring your proposed wife to me, before you settle down with her. I will surely be of help.

To you all, Oh sons and daughters of men, love with your head first and not with your heart, when you seek a wife or husband. With your head you will gain understanding of the signals given to you from above in this connection.

When approval is given to what you seek, then bring forth the love of your heart, not your head, for the occurrence of excellence in your marriage life. If approval is not given, and because you have loved with your head at first, your heart will escape in peace and find another.

Now, Oh you daughters of men, you will surely get the signal from the onset concerning the earthman who won't give you inner peace of heart in the years ahead. Many of you ignore such signals and finally find yourselves in dungeons you call marital homes.

You stay there not because love still exist in your heart anymore for him, but because of the fruits of your womb. You stay there without inner peace. I tell you, without inner peace of heart in you, you will offer him no favours, and both of you without peace and love will surely not excel.

When you set your heart to seek a wife, seek not only the bodily identifications upon the platform of beauty, eloquent speech, level of education, family background, church and religious affiliations, amongst other things.

Rather, sincerely enquire from the Lord Himself whether she is a carrier of the dry leaf of the desert or the one through whom you will find the favour of the Lord. Don't pass over this lightly because today is less than tomorrow, and tomorrow begins today.

Flee from dry leaves of the desert, Oh sons of men, for through her you will surely go down in the journey of life, except you constantly give her inner peace of heart. And I do not see many of you being committed towards giving inner peace of heart constantly to a dry leaf. Behold, even if the 'pope' takes a dry leaf, without giving her inner peace of heart, he will surely go down.

Remember Samson and Delilah. With all his high profile spiritual powers, that earthman went down in that cycle of the earth-life through his sexual entanglements with a dry leaf, namely, Delilah. I know of a church pastor in Aba, Nigeria, who married a daughter of man and through her he was highly favoured.

Later he sexually entangled himself with a dry leaf of the desert, who was a 'prayer warrior' in religious terms. In the course of time, his eyes saw his ears. Not only that his church completely closed down, he also became mad and was taken to a psychiatric home.

Another pastor from Nigeria went to the United States to obtain a doctorate degree in Christian theology. His wife in Nigeria is a blessed one through whom he obtained the favour of the Almighty. But in the United States, he got himself sexually entangled with a dry leaf of the desert, who is a senior lecturer in Christian theology. Through her, the pastor was at last completely paralysed by stroke. The wise King Solomon said:

“Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids. For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life. Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?” (Pro. 6:25,26).

Throughout the history of the Earth-world, this is the last hour of fulfilment of ancient prophecies. This generation of men now stands upon the threshold of planetary winnowing. We must be spiritually careful and watchful now than ever.

About five thousand years ago, the great Vishnava master, Sukadev, spoke about this generation in the Srimad-Bhagavatam. He made it clear that in this generation, the earthman will find it difficult to marry and feed his family. This is because many dry leaves of the desert will be physically manifested.

Also, because of this, the daughters of men will be involved in the most desperate act of hunting for the sons of men, both for marriage and for other nefarious sexual entanglements. This hunting desperation in our time was captured in the prophecies of Isaiah thus:

“And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach” (Isa. 4:1).

Earthman, now is the hour of the fulfilment of this. Therefore, this is also the time for the greatest art of watchfulness. If you follow the wrong path and make a wrong choice, you may be hunted down by a dry leaf of the desert.

And if such a choice is already made by you, then one of the greatest works that you must carry out on the physical realms of Earth is to give her inner peace of heart. Otherwise, because of the high rate of the hunting desperation now in the world of man, one may be killed by what killed his forefathers.

Oh earthman, the daughter of man is made to strike a balance into the systems of your being, for excellence in the journey of life. Oh daughter of man, the earthman is made to cover your head, that you be not exposed to shame.

In the gathering of a thousand sons of men, if no daughter of man is found there, the Earth-world is not complete before the Lord of the Universe. Also, in the gathering of a thousand daughters of men, if no earthman is found there, the Earth-world is not complete before the Lord of the Universe.

Now, if only but one daughter of man is found in the midst of a thousand men, behold, the Earth-world is complete in balance before the Throne of God. And if one earthman is found in the midst of a thousand daughters of men, I tell you a divine truth, the entire world of man is balanced in the cycle of the Universal Systems of the Almighty.

To this end, sons and daughters of men, each is the balance for one to the other, that both of them may stand complete before their God. This completeness is brought about only in the estate of inner tranquillity.

Whosoever fails here will surely fail in many factors and fabrics of being. Failure in this regard is a disobedience to the Almighty, because one has failed to choose from the pool of the probable systems the thoughts, words and actions that will enhance balance in the tranquillity of peace and love, via his or her volition. In the Divine Iliad, God said to the children of men:

“Heed ye thy desires lest they be unlawful. Measure ye thy desires carefully against their opposites, lest unbalanced desires breed their unbalanced kind to rise and smite thee. For again I say My one principle of My one law is founded upon the solid rock of equal interchange between all pairs of opposite things, opposite conditions or opposite transactions between men.

“My Will must prevail on Earth as it is in Heaven. That which I divide to give to Earths and their surroundings of Heavens of space is equal. That which Earths give to their surrounding space balances that which space gives to Earths.

“See thou My Will thus working irrevocably in the starry systems which constitute My immortal, eternal Body.

Note thou the precision of Earth paths through their Heavens. Know thou that such precision is result of obedience to My Will which My law is. Tell thou these workings of My law in the firmament of My Body to man who knows those workings but denies Me in them.

“Tell man My rhythms are absolute, else the interlacing of Earth paths through their Heavens could not be. Tell him also that chaos must arise from his unbalanced comings and goings, his givings and takings, e'en as chaos would arise from disobedience to My Will in the comings and goings of Earth paths through their Heavens, or the givings and re-givings of their interchanging pressures.

“When skies take on Earth unequally with Earth's taking of the skies, tornadoes tell both Earth and skies that I am within and without them, yea within and without every particle of them, and theirs is the agony of disobedience to My Will. Not till they obey My Will do they find peace and tranquillity.

“These do I balance with My Will as I balance all divided pairs in My Universe of Me. Likewise, when man takes aught from Earth and *gives naught to Me for regiving through Self of him, toxins arise within him which are tornadoes

Earthman, in tranquillity always strive to bring the order of balance in your home, and it will be well with you. Endeavour to hold the keys of love and peace in your hand; this makes you a real man in the journey of life.

Once again, I admonish you to do all that is within your volition to stay away from the paths of the vicious daughters of men, who are carriers of the dry leaves of the desert. Remember the words of the Great Lord Jesus the Christ. He said: “A man's foes shall be they of his own household” (Math. 10:36).

As a son of man, my religious stand is upon the path of Christianity. But this open letter is for all generations of the children of men, regardless of religious, tribal, traditional or philosophical persuasions, inclinations and considerations. Thus, it is evident in this treatise that due respect is accorded to diverse belief systems.

I think that this subject matter, as expressed in this treatise, having touched other objective and subjective realities of existence, will possibly raise some questions. I assure you that such questions will be answered in another publication dedicated to it. Also, I urge the reader of this material to try and read my book entitled 'Verses of Glorious Marriage'.

All that are contained in this treatise are spoken in love for the guidance of the children of men. Remember, the best person to send on an errand is yourself.

Earthman, if you want a goat to remain on the leash, make sure the grass around is green and enough. In a community where all the barbers have become cats, the rats must stop having their hair cut. It pays to chase away the wild cat first before settling down to advise the hen. A word is enough for the wise.

Let the eternal Peace and Blessings of the Almighty abide with the reader of this material, now and forevermore. Amen.

Yours In The Vineyard Of God,

VERSES OF GLORIOUS MARRIAGE

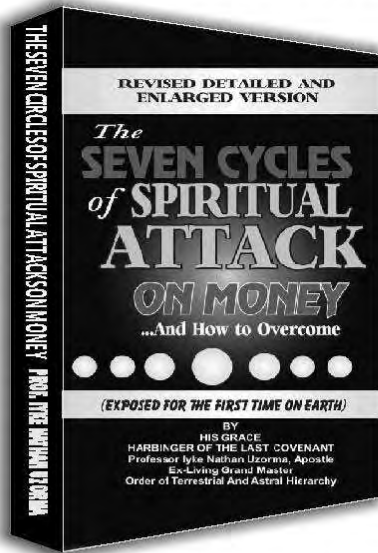

In their battle against successful marriage on Earth, the network of darkness established specific chambers in the Astral realms. There are two thousand minor chambers, forty main chambers and four absolute chambers in the vicious Astral psychic spheres coordinating the battle against marriage on Earth. In human terms, they are "special forces" solely for this project. Their operational guide is: "LET THERE BE MILLIONS OF MARRIAGES AMONG THE CHILDREN OF MEN, BUT LET THERE BE NO PERFECT AGREEMENT IN LOVE". These special Astral Forces fighting against marriage, from their minor, main and absolute chambers, operate well equipped Astral Satellite Systems. These Satellites, produced from the subtle fabrics of the Esoteric Solar Elements, collect, gather and store into the absolute chambers diverse vicious thoughts of humans. From the central pool of the absolute chambers, these vicious thoughts are radiated back to the Earth using the Astral super-conscious waves. These Astral waves invade the human mind, solely to form dichotomy in marriage, for a husband and wife not to live in perfect agreement in love. Why are they thus engaged? And what do we do to overcome them? Find out in this Verses of Glorious Marriage.

VERSES OF WISDOM AND WATCHFULNESS

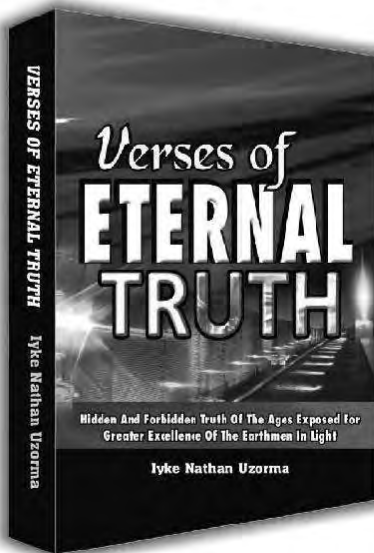

Wisdom is the core nectar of watchfulness in the life of man. In our world, several wise men have, at one time or the other, provided wise counsel to raise our minds to the efficacy of wisdom. And most times those who ignored this have found themselves where they least expected in the hands of their enemies. It is only a fool that says he has no enemy. In 'Verses of Wisdom and Watchfulness', Prof. Iyke Nathan Uzorma has simplified the understanding of how to know and be watchful of the enemy and wicked minded friend. If we study this book and follow its instructions, the light of wisdom will rise to dispel the devices of the dubious minded people in our midst -- father, mother, husband, wife, friend, neighbor, colleague, inlaw, outright enemy, etc.

THE SEVEN CYCLES OF SPIRITUAL ATTACK ON MONEY

The kingdoms of darkness are advancing by empowering their own with enormous resources. Their human channels spend a lot, even using human blood, to obtain wealth from them, by which such humans are enslaved. Should we not also advance in Light? We should not only advance but overtake them, using our resources to promote the work of Jehovah God and HIS Christ in the world of man. This exposition is coming for the first time on Earth.

AND THE 7TH ANGEL SOUNDED

FULFILLMENT OF THE ANCIENT PROPHECIES

The Bible book of Revelation (11:15) says: "And the seventh Angel sounded; and there were great voices in Heaven, saying, the kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of His Christ; and He shall reign forever and ever". Saint John also saw in his revelation "a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns". In his time, the great Prophet Daniel had a strange vision about how "the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea and four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another". What these stand for, as well as their literal fulfillment on the physical realms of Earth, is what this book is all about. Also, on the little horn that grew up in the midst of the ten horns, "before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots", the eyes on the horn, the mouth that spoke great things, as manifested and related to our time, amongst others, including the heads of the beast and the last thereof in this age and time and much more, read this book to know more.
